9. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Memorandum and the Articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all the powers of the company. No alteration of the Memorandum or Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this article shall not be limited by any special power given to the directors by the Articles and a meeting of directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the directors.
10. The directors may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the company for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine, including authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his or her powers.

Delegation of Directors' Power

11. The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors. They may also delegate to any managing director or any director holding any other executive office such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by him or her. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the directors may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as they are capable of applying.

Remuneration of Directors

12. The directors (other than directors who are also trustees of the Charity) shall be entitled to such remuneration as the company may by ordinary resolution determine.

Directors' Expenses

13. The directors may be paid all travelling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of directors or committees of directors or general meetings or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.

Directors' Appointments and Interests

14. Subject to the provisions of the Act a director:

- 14.1 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by the Charity or any body corporate promoted by the company or in which the company is otherwise interested provided that no director who is also a trustee of the Charity shall be remunerated or receive other benefits in respect of such employment or office; and
- 14.2 shall not, by reason of his or her office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he or she derives from any such office or employment and no transaction or arrangement of the company shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such benefit.

Proceedings of Directors

15. Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. A director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, call a meeting of the directors. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chair shall have a second or casting vote.
16. The quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors may be fixed by the members and unless so fixed at any other number shall be two.
17. The continuing directors or a sole continuing director may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but, if the number of directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of calling a general meeting.
18. The directors may appoint one of their number to be the chair of the board of directors and may at any time remove him or her from that office. Unless he or she is unwilling to do so, the director so appointed shall preside at every meeting of directors at which he or she is present. If there is no director holding that office, or if the director holding it is unwilling to preside or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to be chair of the meeting.
19. All acts done by a meeting of directors, or of a committee of directors, or by a person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any director or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director and had been entitled to vote.
20. A resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors or (as the case may be) a committee of directors duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more directors. The date of a written resolution of the directors shall be the date on which the last director signs.

21. The directors may hold meetings by telephone or video conference or such other means as they may agree whereby all participants may communicate simultaneously with all other participants.
22. Save as otherwise provided by the Articles, a director shall not vote at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he or she has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty which is material and which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company.
23. A director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he or she is not entitled to vote.
24. The company may by ordinary resolution suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, any provision of the Articles prohibiting a director from voting at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors.
25. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more directors to offices or employments with the company or any body corporate in which the company is interested the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately and (provided he or she is not for another reason precluded from voting) each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum in respect of each resolution except that concerning his or her own appointment.
26. If a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chair of the meeting and his or her ruling in relation to any director other than himself or herself shall be final and conclusive.

SECRETARY

27. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and unless appointed by the members in accordance with the procedure for appointing directors the secretary shall be appointed by the directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them. A secretary appointed by the members may be removed only by them following the procedure for removal of directors. The secretary shall not be remunerated if he or she is a trustee of the Charity but shall be entitled to reimbursement of expenses to the same extent that the directors are entitled.

MINUTES

28. The directors shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose:-
  - 28.1 of all appointments of officers made by the directors; and

- 28.2 of all proceeding at meetings of the company and of the directors, and of committees of directors, including the names of the directors present at each such meeting;

- 29.2 The Company may give notice to a member either personally or by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at its registered address, by leaving it at that address, or by facsimile or by electronic means to an address provided for that purpose or posted on a website where the recipient has been notified of such posting in a manner agreed by him or her.
- 29.3 A member present shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purpose for which it was called.
- 29.4 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted or proof that an electronic communication or facsimile has been transmitted to the correct address or number shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. A notice shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be given at the expiration of 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted.

WINDING UP

30. If the company is wound up all remaining assets of the company after paying the debts of the company and the costs of winding up shall be paid to the Charity.

INDEMNITY

31. Subject to the provisions of the Act but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a director may otherwise be entitled, every director or other officer or auditor of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company against any liability incurred by him or her in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his or her favour or in which he or she is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him or her by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the company.
