DIRECTORS
DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. Directors' general authority

- 3.1. Subject to the Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

4. Shareholders' reserve power

- 4.1. The Shareholders may, by Special Resolution, direct the Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 4.2. No such Special Resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

5. Directors' delegation

- 5.1. Subject to the Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Article—

- 5.1.1. to such person or committee,
- 5.1.2. by such means (including by power of attorney),
- 5.1.3. to such an extent,
- 5.1.4. in relation to such matters or territories, and
- 5.1.5. on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.

- 5.2. If the Directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the Directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 5.3. The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

6. Committees

- 6.1. Committees to which the Directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by Directors.

- 6.2. The Directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. Directors to take decisions collectively

- 7.1. The general rule about decision-making by Directors is that any decision of the Directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 8.1

- 7.2. If —

7.2.1. the Company only has one Director for the time being, and

7.2.2. no provision of the Articles requires it to have more than one Director, the general rule does not apply, and the Director may (for so long as he or she remains the sole Director) take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the Articles relating to Directors' decision-making.

8. Unanimous decisions

- 8.1. A decision of the Directors is taken in accordance with this Article when all Eligible Directors indicate to each other by any means that they agree.
- 8.2. Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, where each Eligible Director has signed one or more copies of it, or to which each Eligible Director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 8.3. A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article if the Eligible Directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

9. Calling a Directors' meeting

- 9.1. Any Director may call a Directors' meeting by giving not less than 7 days prior notice of the meeting to the Directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice. Notwithstanding the notice required, the Directors may convene a meeting at short notice if they unanimously agree.
- 9.2. Notice of any Directors' meeting must indicate —
- 9.2.1. its proposed date and time,
- 9.2.2. where it is to take place, and 9.2.3. if it is anticipated that Directors Participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

- 9.3. Notice of a Directors' meeting shall be given to each Director but need not be in writing.
- 9.4. Notice of a Directors' meeting need not be given to Directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

10. Participation in Directors' meetings

- 10.1. Subject to the Articles, Directors Participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when –
 - 10.1.1. the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and
 - 10.1.2. they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any item of the business of the meeting.
- 10.2. In determining whether Directors are Participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Directors are or how they communicate with each other.
- 10.3. If all the Directors Participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

11. Quorum for Directors' meetings

- 11.1. At a Directors' meeting, unless there is a quorum, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 11.2. Where the Company has only one Director, the quorum for a Director's meeting shall be one Director Participating at a meeting and in any other case (subject to these Articles) shall be two Directors Participating at a meeting.
- 11.3. For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to Article 15 to authorise a conflict, if there is only one Director in office besides the conflicted Director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one eligible Director.
- 11.4. If the total number of Directors in office for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision –
 - 11.4.1. to appoint further Directors, or

11.4.2. to call a general meeting so as to enable the Shareholders to appoint further Directors.

12. Chairing of Directors' meetings

12.1. The Board of Directors shall appoint a Director to chair their meetings by a simple majority vote.

12.2. The person so appointed for the time being is known as the Chairman.

12.3. The Directors may terminate the Chairman's appointment at any time.

12.4. If the Chairman is not Participating in a Directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the Participating Directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

13. Casting vote

13.1. If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a meeting of Directors are equal, the Chairman or other Director chairing the meeting shall have a casting vote.

13.2. But this does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the Chairman or other director is not an Eligible Director for the purposes of that meeting (or that part of a meeting).

14. Transactions or other arrangements with the Company

14.1. Subject to sections 177(5), 177(6), 182(5) and 182(6) of the Act and provided he or she has declared the nature and extent of his or her interest in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Acts, a Director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company –

14.1.1. may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;

14.1.2. shall be entitled to vote at a meeting of Directors or of a committee of the Directors, or Participate in any unanimous decision, in respect of such transaction or arrangement in which he is interested and shall be counted in the quorum at any such meeting at which the same is considered;

14.1.3. may act by himself or herself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director;

14.1.4. may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested; and

- 14.1.5. shall not, save as he may otherwise agree, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he or she (or a person connected with him or her (as defined in section 252 of the Act)) derives from any such transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Act.
- 14.2. For the purposes of this Article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any Directors' meeting or part of a Directors' meeting
- 14.3. Subject to Article 14.4, if a question arises at a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors as to the right of a Director to Participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chairman whose ruling in relation to any Director other than the Chairman is to be final and conclusive.
- 14.4. If any question as to the right to Participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the Chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the Directors at that meeting, for which purpose the Chairman is not to be counted as Participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.
- 15. Directors' conflicts of interest
- 15.1. The Directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this Article, authorise any matter or situation proposed to them by any Director which would, if not authorised, involve a Director breaching his duty under section 175 of the Act to avoid conflicts of interest (a "Conflict").
- 15.2. Any authorisation under this Article will be effective only if –
- 15.2.1. the matter in question shall have been proposed by any Director for consideration at a meeting of Directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the Directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the Directors may determine;
- 15.2.2. any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the Directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the Director in question; and
- 15.2.3. the matter was agreed to without his voting or would have been agreed to if his vote had not been counted.
- 15.3. Any authorisation of a Conflict under this Article may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) —
- 15.3.1. extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised;

15.3.2. be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the Directors may determine; and 15.3.3. be terminated or varied by the Directors at any time.

This will not affect anything done by the Director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

15.4. In authorising a Conflict the Directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a Director has obtained any information through his involvement in the Conflict otherwise than as a Director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, the Director is under no obligation to —

15.4.1. disclose such information to the Directors or to any Director or other officer or employee of the Company; or 15.4.2. use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a Director, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

15.5. Where the Directors authorise a Conflict they may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) provide, without limitation, that the Director —

15.5.1. is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of Directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict;

15.5.2. is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict; and 15.5.3. may or may not be an Eligible Director at any future meeting of Directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict.

15.6. Where the Directors authorise a Conflict —

15.6.1. the Director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed by the Directors in relation to the Conflict; and 15.6.2. the Director will not infringe any duty he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Act provided he or she acts in accordance with such terms, limits and conditions (if any) as the Directors impose in respect of its authorisation.

15.7. A Director is not required, by reason of being a Director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a Director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the Directors or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds.

16. Records of decisions

- 16.1. The Directors must ensure that the Company shall cause minutes of all proceedings at meetings of Directors to be recorded and kept, and shall keep a record, in writing, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors, for at least 10 years from the date of the meeting or from date of the decision recorded.

17. Directors' discretion to make further rules

31.2.3. must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the Directors decide

32. Share transfers

32.1. Shares may be transferred by means of an Instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the Directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor

- 32.2. No fee may be charged for registering any Instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any Share
- 32.3. The Company may retain any Instrument of transfer which is registered
- 32.4. The transferor remains the holder of a Share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it
- 32.5. The Board may, in their absolute discretion, decline to register any transfer of any share whether or not it is a fully paid share, and if they do so, the Instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

33. Transmission of Shares

- 33.1. If title to a Share passes to a Transmitttee, the Company may only recognise the Transmitttee as having any title to that Share.
- 33.2. A Transmitttee who produces such evidence of entitlement to Shares as the Directors may properly require —
 - 33.2.1. may, subject to the Articles, choose either to become the holder of those Shares or to have them transferred to another person; and
 - 33.2.2. subject to the Articles, and pending any transfer of the Shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.
- 33.3. But, subject to Article 19 2, Transmitttees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of Shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or Bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become registered as the holders of those Shares.

34. Exercise of Transmitttees' rights

- 34.1. Transmitttees who wish to become the holders of Shares to which they have become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish.
- 34.2. If the Transmitttee wishes to have a Share transferred to another person, the Transmitttee must execute an Instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- 34.3. Any transfer made or executed under this Article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the Transmitttee has derived rights in respect of the Share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

35. Transmitttees bound by prior notices

- 35.1. If a notice is given to a Shareholder in respect of Shares and a Transmitttee is entitled to those Shares, the Transmitttee is bound by the notice if it was given to the Shareholder before the Transmittée's name, or the name of any person nominated under Article 34.2, has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

36. Procedure for declaring dividends

- 36.1. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution declare dividends, and the Directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- 36.2. A dividend must not be declared unless the Directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the Directors.
- 36.3. No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with Shareholders' respective rights.
- 36.4. Unless the Shareholders' resolution to declare or Directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which Shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each Shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or the decision to declare or pay it.
- 36.5. If the Company's Share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on Shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears.
- 36.6. The Directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 36.7. If the Directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of Shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on Shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

37. Payment of dividends and other distributions

- 37.1. Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a Share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means —

 - 37.1.2. sending a cheque made payable to the Distribution Recipient by post to the Distribution Recipient's registered address;
 - 37.1.3. sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the Distribution Recipient has specified in writing; or 37.1.4. any other means of payment as the Directors agree with the Distribution Recipient in writing.

37.2. In these Articles, "Distribution Recipient" means, in respect of a Share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable —

37.2.1. the holder of the Share, or

37.2.2. if the Share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members, or

37.2.3. if the holder is no longer beneficially entitled to the Share by reason of death or Bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, any Transmittree notified to the Company in writing.

38.1.2. the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that Share and the Company.

39. Unclaimed distributions

39.1. All dividends or other sums which are —

39.1.1. payable in respect of Shares, and 39.1.2. unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed.

39.2. The Payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it.

39.3. If —

39.3.1. twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and

39.3.2. the Distribution Recipient has not claimed it, the Distribution Recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

40. Non-cash distributions

- 40.1. Subject to the terms of issue of the Share in question, the Company may, by Ordinary Resolution on the recommendation of the Directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a Share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).
- 40.2. For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the Directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution —
 - 40.2.1. fixing the value of any assets;
 - 40.2.2. paying cash to any Distribution Recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
 - 40.2.3. vesting any assets in trustees.

41. Waiver of distributions

- 41.1. Distribution Recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a Share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if —
 - 41.1.1. the Share has more than one holder, or
 - 41.1.2. more than one person is entitled to the Share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise,the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the Share.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

42. Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

- 42.1. Subject to the Articles, the Directors may, if they are so authorised by an Ordinary Resolution —
 - 42.1.1. decide to capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and
 - 42.1.2. appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

42.2. Capitalised sums must be applied —

42.2.1. on behalf of the persons entitled, and

42.2.2. in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

42.3. Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as Fully Paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

42.4. A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as Fully Paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

42.5. Subject to the Articles the Directors may —

42.5.1. apply capitalised sums in accordance with Articles 42.3 and 42.4 partly in one way and partly in another,

42.5.2. make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with Shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this Article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments), and 42.5.3. authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of Shares and debentures to them under this Article.

43.2. A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when —

43.2.1. that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

43.2.2. that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

43.3. The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

43.4. In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

43.5. Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

44. Quorum for general meetings

44.1. In the case where the Company has only one member, the quorum shall be one Qualifying Person present at a meeting and in any other case (subject to these Articles) shall be two Qualifying Persons present at a meeting unless —

44.1.1. each is a Qualifying Person only because he is authorised under section 323 to act as the representative of a corporation in relation to the meeting, and they are representatives of the same corporation, and

44.1.2. each is a Qualifying Person only because he is appointed as a proxy of a member in relation to the meeting, and they are proxies of the same member.

44.2. No business other than the appointment of the Chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

to attend and speak at a general meeting.

47. Adjournment

47.2. The Chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if —

47.2.1. the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

47.2.2. it appears to the Chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

47.3. The Chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

47.4. When adjourning a general meeting, the Chairman of the meeting must —

47.4.1. either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Directors, and

47.4.2. have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

47.5. If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given)

47.5.1. to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given, and 47.5.2. containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

- 47.6. No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

49. Errors and disputes

- 50.2. A poll may be demanded at any general meeting by any Qualifying Person present and entitled to vote at the meeting.

- 50.3. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if —

50.3.1. the poll has not yet been taken, and

50.3.2. the Chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

A demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

- 50.4. Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the Chairman of the meeting directs.

51. Content of proxy notices

- 51.1. Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "Proxy Notice") which

- 51.1.1. states the name and address of the Shareholder appointing the proxy,
- 51.1.2. identifies the person appointed to be that Shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,
- 51.1.3. is signed by or on behalf of the Shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine, and a Proxy Notice which is not delivered in such manner shall be invalid, unless the Directors, in their discretion, accept the notice at any time before the meeting.

- 51.2. The Company may require Proxy Notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 51.3. Proxy Notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 51.4. Unless a Proxy Notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as —
 - 51.4.1. allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - 51.4.2. appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

52. Delivery of Proxy Notices

- 52.1. A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid Proxy Notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person, and if the person so entitled to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting does so, his Proxy Notice shall be deemed to have been revoked.
- 52.2. An appointment under a Proxy Notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the Proxy Notice was given.
- 52.3. A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

- 52.4. If a Proxy Notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

53. Amendments to resolutions

- 53.1. An Ordinary Resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution if —

53.1.1. notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the Chairman of the meeting may determine), and 53.1.2. the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

- 53.2. A Special Resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution, if —

53.2.1. the Chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and

53.2.2. the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

- 53.3. If the Chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, such error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.
