Particulars of Rights – Ordinary Shares

SHARES

6 The authorised share capital of the Company at the date of adoption of these Articles is £10,000 divided into 1,000,000 Ordinary Shares

7 Save as set out below, each Share shall carry the right to one vote at general meetings of the Company and all the Shares shall rank pari passu for all purposes save as set out in these Articles regardless of the nominal value thereof or the price at which they were issued

8 The Shares shall be under the control of the Directors and the Directors are authorised for the purposes of section 80 of the Act to allot any relevant securities (as defined by section 80(2) of the Act) of the Company up to the authorised share capital as at the date of adoption of these Articles in accordance with the provisions of these Articles. This general authority shall expire on the day before the fifth anniversary of the date of the adoption of these Articles unless varied or revoked or renewed by the Company in general meeting. In accordance with section 91(1) of the Act, sections 89(1) and 90(1) to (6) (inclusive) of the Act shall not apply to the Company

9 The Directors shall be entitled under the general authority conferred by Article 8 to make at any time before the expiry of such authority any offer or agreement which will or may require securities to be allotted after the expiry of such authority

10 Subject to Article 11, except with the consent in writing of Shareholders holding in aggregate more than 75% of the issued Shares, any unissued Shares from time to time shall, before they are issued, be offered to all the Shareholders, in proportion as nearly as may be to the number of Shares held by them respectively (and such offer shall be at the same price and on the same terms to each such Shareholder). Such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number and class of Shares offered, the proportionate entitlement of the relevant Shareholder, the price per share and limiting a period (not being less than 14 days) ("Offer Period") within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined and after the expiration of such period the Directors shall (in the same manner as the original offer and limited by a period of not less than 7 days ("Further Offer Period")) offer the Shares so declined to the persons who have, within the Offer Period, accepted all the Shares offered to them. At the expiration of the Offer Period and again on the expiration of the Further Offer Period (if any) the Directors shall allot the Shares so offered to the Shareholders who have agreed to take them. Any Shares not accepted pursuant to such offers or not capable of being offered except as fractions shall be under the control of the Directors who may allot the same to such persons as they think fit provided that such Shares shall not be disposed of on terms which are more favourable than those on which they were offered to the Shareholders

11 The rights of pre-emption set out in Article 10 shall not apply to the creation of convertible loan notes (or their conversion into Shares in accordance with their terms) of a maximum aggregate principal amount of £100,000, on terms approved by the Directors

Particulars of Rights – Preference Shares

The terms attaching to the convertible participating redeemable preference shares of £0.01 each are, as follows

Each preference shareholder has the same voting rights as each ordinary shareholder. On a poll, each preference shareholder holding one or more preference shares is entitled to exercise the number of votes which he would have been entitled to exercise if all the preference shares held by him had been converted into ordinary shares immediately before the holding of the general meeting at the then applicable conversion rate.

The ordinary shares and the preference shares rank pari passu in all respects as to income as if all the preference shares in issue had been converted into ordinary shares at the then applicable conversion rate.

The shares rank above the ordinary shares on winding up and the shareholders have a right to receive the full original issue price of the shares in preference to any payments being made to the ordinary shareholders. The balance of any asset remaining once the preference shareholders have had their capital returned is distributed amongst the holders of the preference shares and the ordinary shares (pari passu as if the same constituted one class of share) pro rata according to the number of shares held by each shareholder, such number to be calculated as if all the preference shares in issue had been converted into ordinary shares at the then applicable conversion rate.

If at 31 May 2012, no sale or listing of the company has occurred, any holder of preference shares may, thereafter, give notice to the company requiring that all or some of his shares shall be redeemed on a specified date at an amount per preference share equal to the aggregate of the original issue price of that share and an additional amount that equals any accrued dividends and interest of 10% p.a. from the date of issue to the date of redemption.

Any holder of preference shares shall be entitled to require conversion of their entire holding of preference shares into ordinary shares at any time at the applicable conversion rate, being that for each preference share, one ordinary share will be received in return. The exception to this is that, upon a listing, all of the preference shares shall, immediately prior to admission, automatically convert into ordinary shares. The number of ordinary shares into which the preference shares so convert is such number as gives the same proportion of the total number of ordinary shares after such conversion as the proportion of the cash payable to all shareholders which the preference shareholders would have received on a sale.
