Notes

1. Average Number of Employees

Average number of employees, including directors, during the year was as follows: 1 (2021: 1)

2. Going Concern

The director has considered the impact of COVID-19 in relation to her assessment of going concern and in her opinion has taken all reasonable steps to mitigate these factors. As at the point of authorising the accounts, and for the foreseeable future, the director considers the going concern assumption to still be appropriate. The director acknowledges that given the currently rapidly changing business and social environment, there are likely to be significant unknown factors which may present themselves. Such factors are considered by the director to represent a general inherent level of risk in relation to the going concern assumption albeit not quantifiable at this time.
