BETTER WORLD CHARITY LTD

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The charity's objects, which are set out in its Memorandum of Association as follows:

- (a) To promote the spiritual and moral advancement of humanity through education, self-improvement and the encouragement of individuals to undertake a variety of volunteer programmes and in particular by promoting charitable activities.
- (b) To promote the education of Jewish individuals and the alleviation of poverty among Jewish and wider communities throughout the world.
- (c) Other charitable activities that the trustees may from time to time determine.
- (d) To advance the education of the public in general on the subject of Well-being and Mental Health

Significant activities

The Charity carries out these objects for the public benefit by operating three main projects, known as the Rabbinical Training Academy (RTA), Tikun, and the Three Principles Conference. Each works within its own designated budget and funds.

Rabbinic Training Academy

This programme aims to help create a better quality of Jewish Leader today for the challenges of tomorrow. Known as the Rabbinic Training Academy (RTA) it is a learning and development programme for Rabbinic students and their families who are beginning their professional journey in Communal Leadership and Education.

Traditionally, rabbis have spent the vast majority of their training focusing on Jewish law. They often train in a vacuum which is very different from many of the realities of the professional world they must face in their future leadership roles. Inexperienced in the wider world, they must assume the role of religious, moral and spiritual leadership and responsibility, which often places people's emotional wellbeing in their hands.

The RTA aims to change how rabbinic leaders operate and educate within their communities so that they become more open minded and humane, more humble and caring as well as more understanding in how to provide guidance and support in an ever changing world. This will enable rabbinic leaders to play a significant role in contributing towards a healthier Jewish community and ultimately a better world.

Tikun

The Tikun project shares spiritual and practical Jewish wisdom on a variety of issues including happiness, developing healthy relationships and public contribution primarily, although not exclusively, for Jewish individuals. This has a profound effect on the individual, as well as the society within which they live.

Tikun is not looking for people simply to learn but to learn in order to do. For people to be better human beings rather than simply learning how to become one. It educates individuals to consider what their society, their community and their world needs and for them to respond accordingly. Tikun aims for people to become role models and leaders who will inspire those around them and start to create a grassroots movement of social change.

3PUK Conference

The Three Principles Conference is a 3 day annual event which was held virtually since the covid-19 pandemic. Prior to the pandemic the conference was held at a large conference venue in London. The aim of the conference is to unlock every individual's ability to discover an improved experience of life or wellbeing through an understanding of how the mind works in a relevant, enjoyable and accessible way.

When people feel comfortable with their own lives they are more able to live contently and more meaningfully contribute to the lives of others. With poor mental health becoming increasingly prevalent, the conference provides a means by which people may find their own sense of personal stability and wellbeing putting them on a path of resilience, healthy values and peace of mind.

The trustees have paid due regard to guidance issued by the Charity Commission in deciding what activities the charity should undertake.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty and referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the aims and objectives and in planning future activities and setting it's educational strategy and plans for the year.

Project Review and Development

The Trustees are continually looking to review and develop the current programmes to best satisfy the objectives of the charity. This is demonstrated by the RTA programme, one of whose aims is to better meet objectives in the education of Jewish individuals. As part of ongoing reviews, this programme is continually being appraised so as to improve the experience of the those partaking in it and to further clarify the charity's aims for future years.

STRATEGIC REPORT

Achievement and performance

Charitable activities

Brief highlights of successful programmes this year include:

- o The RTA programme took in a new cohort (Cohort Daled) in September 2022. The programme continued to be a twelve month programme as it was felt that this was sufficient time to teach the syllabus. The shorter programme also saves the charity money.
- o With the lifting of pandemic restrictions most places to visit returned to welcoming visitors - e.g. psychiatric ward, hospice, hospitals etc.
- o The 2022 3PUK Conference had a total of over 700 attendees in a hybrid set-up. We saw 400 in person and 300 attendees online. The price to attend the conference varied depending on the type of ticket that was purchased.
- o The in-person conference took place at Stone X Stadium (formerly Allianz Park) and was received extremely positively and the feedback received was very encouraging especially in respect to a return to an in-person conference after two years of virtual conferences.
- o The conference welcomed back many previous speakers as well as a number of new speakers some of whom have come through the Better World programme. Given economic uncertainties and the large financial commitment to the charity in organising and funding a conference in-person, it was decided to look to go back to a virtual conference in 2023.

Financial review

Financial position

2022 was once again a successful year both in programme impact and for the financial affairs of the charity which has built upon its previous success in prudent financial planning, fundraising and the management of its activities and funds. It has continued to develop plans and has taken steps to increase its funding base, resources and programming to reflect the continuing demand for its services and activities.

The Trustees continue to be pleased with the level of funding generated from the activities themselves, thus demonstrating that the charity is becoming less reliant on external private donations. It should be noted that this aspect has had no effect on the charity's programmes which are still wholly accessible to the financially disadvantaged with all programmes available to everyone regardless of their personal financial circumstances.

Having considered the suggestion of an independent fundraiser, it was decided not to follow this advice. The charity is very niche in its proposition and Rabbi Rosenblatt, the CEO, is best positioned to articulate the vision and direction of the charity. A professional fundraiser would be a financial risk for the charity and the trustees do not believe it is a risk worth taking.

As a charity that continues to raise a large proportion of its funds from private individuals, the Trustees recognise the major risk to the organisation should these donors choose not to give to the charity in the future. To mitigate that risk the Trustees are continually looking to expand the donor base and increase the geographic and demographic reach of its fundraising activities and efforts including instigating an online 'matching funds' fundraising campaign.

At the end of the accounting period the charity had reserves of circa £26,000, compared to circa £3,000 in the previous year. Although the trustees like to run the charity with at least a month's budget in advance (around £45,000), as reserves, nevertheless, there is a yearly donation that has historically come in for the past sixteen years, of £75,000, early in January.

Given a cash flow challenge at the end of December, the trustees felt it was reasonable to pay all creditors, even though that ran the balance very low, but rely on this committed donation as charity reserves for the first week in January. It did indeed come in the first week in January as it has every year and reserves returned immediately to their expected level.

With the country, and indeed the world, heading into deeper financial challenges, the Trustees feel that the fundraising situation remains difficult to predict and fluid in nature. Consequently, the Trustees are closely monitoring the levels of funding being received by the charity and its financial position in general and we believe we have taken due care to ensure that changes have been and will be implemented to ensure the going concern of Better World Charity Ltd.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Organisational structure

The affairs of the charity are governed by the Board of Trustees, of which Mrs Marlow is the Chairperson. They are responsible for setting the strategic direction of the charity, consideration of reserves, risk management, performance review and setting general organisational policy.

The Board of Trustees have decided to delegate the day to day operation of the organisation to its Management Committee, which reports directly to the Board of Trustees. From time to time the Management Committee contracts with specialised consultants and involves experienced volunteers from the business community in a variety of areas in order to establish best practice in the organisation's activities. The Management Committee operates the charity along departmental lines. The Chief Executive Officer continued to be Shaul Rosenblatt and Avril Robbins continued as Chief Operating Officer during the year.

Risk management

The Trustees regularly assess the major risks to which the charity is exposed, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the significant potential risks.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF
BETTER WORLD CHARITY LTD

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Better World Charity Ltd ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
