NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Accounting policies

The following accounting policies have been used in dealing with items that are considered material in relation to the Company financial statements. They have been applied consistently throughout the current year and prior period.

McCarthy & Stone (Home Equity Interests) Limited (the Company) is a private company limited by shares and registered in England and Wales under the Companies Act 2006. The address of the registered office is given on page 2.

Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention, modified to include certain items at fair value, and in accordance with FRS 102 'the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006.

The functional currency of the Company is considered to be pounds sterling because that is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates.

The Company meets the definition of a qualifying entity under FRS 102 and has therefore taken advantage of the disclosure exemptions available to it in respect of its separate financial statements. The results of the Company will continue to be consolidated at McCarthy & Stone Limited for the full financial year and the post-acquisition results are also included at Mastiff BidCo Limited consolidation. Exemptions have been taken in these separate Company financial statements in relation to financial instruments, presentation of a cash flow statement and remuneration of key management personnel.

Going concern

The Directors have a reasonable expectation that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. When making this assessment, the Directors have considered the results and future forecasts of the Group given the high level of intercompany transactions with the Company.

The Directors have assessed the Group's business activities and the factors likely to affect future performance in light of current and anticipated economic conditions. In making their assessment the Directors have reviewed the Group's latest budget, forecasts, available loan and revolving credit facility and considered reasonably possible downside sensitivities in performance and mitigating actions.

As a result of the above considerations, the Directors consider that the Group and Company have adequate resources in place for at least 12 months from the date of the approval of these financial statements and have therefore adopted the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements.

1. Accounting policies (continued)

Other operating income

The Company previously attracted a risk of ownership premium payable by other McCarthy & Stone Group companies, in recognition of the scheme assets which the Company holds. This was reported as other operating income to reflect the nature of the intra-group transaction however has since lapsed.

Profit or loss on realisation of the shared equity assets is also recognised within other operating income.

Corporation tax

Corporation tax comprises current tax. Current tax is based on taxable profits for the year ended 31 October 2020. Tax is charged or credited directly to equity if it relates to items that are credited or charged to equity. Otherwise, tax is recognised in the profit and loss account.

Financial assets

Basic financial assets, including trade and other receivables, cash and bank balances are initially recognised at transaction price, unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the transaction is measured at the present value of the future receipts discounted at a market rate of interest. Such assets are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

At the end of each reporting period financial assets measured at amortised cost are assessed for objective evidence of impairment. If an asset is impaired the impairment loss is the difference between the carrying amount and the present value of the estimated cash flows discounted at the asset's original effective interest rate. The impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss.

If there is a decrease in the impairment loss arising from an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, the impairment is reversed. The reversal is such that the current carrying amount does not exceed what the carrying amount would have been had the impairment not previously been recognised. The impairment reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

Other financial assets and shared equity receivables are initially measured at fair value, which is normally the transaction price. Such assets are subsequently carried at fair value and the changes in fair value are recognised in profit or loss.

Financial assets are derecognised when (a) the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire or are settled, or (b) substantially all the risks and rewards of the ownership of the asset are transferred to another party or (c) despite having retained some significant risks and rewards of ownership, control of the asset has been transferred to another party who has the practical ability to unilaterally sell the asset to an unrelated third party without imposing additional restrictions.

Shared equity receivables

Shared equity interests arise from sales incentive schemes under which the Company acquires a contractual entitlement to receive a proportion of the proceeds of sale of an apartment. These interests are normally protected by a legal charge over the relevant apartment and/or a restriction on title.

The value of the shared equity receivables changes in response to an underlying variable and therefore is accounted for as a derivative. The shared equity receivables are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the receivable. The fair value of future anticipated cash receipts takes into account the Directors' view of future house price movements and the expected timing of receipts.

The Directors revisit the future anticipated cash receipts from the assets at each reporting date as these assets are also subsequently recognised at fair value. The difference between the anticipated future receipt and the initial fair value is credited/charged to interest payable and similar expenses or other gains and losses.

Related party transactions

The company discloses transactions with related parties which are not wholly-owned within the same group. It does not disclose transactions with members of the same group that are wholly owned.

2. Critical accounting judgements and estimation uncertainty

In the application of the Company's accounting policies, which are described in note 1, the Directors are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Critical judgements in applying the Company's accounting policies

No critical judgments have been made in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies that have a material effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements.

2. Critical accounting judgements and estimation uncertainty (continued)

Critical assumptions and major sources of estimation uncertainty

The Company does not have any key assumptions concerning the future, or other key sources of estimation uncertainty in the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Other assumptions and sources of estimation uncertainty

The following assumption and sources of estimation uncertainty carry risk of resulting in a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities over the longer-term.

Fair value of shared equity receivables

Shared equity receivables are recognised at the fair value of future anticipated cash receipts that takes into account the Directors' view of an appropriate discount rate, a new build premium, future house price movements and the expected timing of receipts. Shared equity receivables are reviewed at each reporting date using a variety of estimates that anticipate future cash flows from the assets. The revaluation is mainly driven by changes in discount rates and the timing of receipts. Should both of these assumptions be impacted by a reasonably possible change of a 1% increase or decrease, the effect has been illustrated below:

	Increase assumptions by 1% £m	Decrease assumptions by 1% £m
Discount rate	(0.2)	0.2
Timing of receipts	(0.2)	0.2

As at 31 October 2021, the shared equity receivables were valued at £4,197,728 (2020: £4,429,267).

3. Operating profit

a. Employees

The Company had no employees during the current or preceding year.

b. Auditor's remuneration

Remuneration of the Group auditor is settled by McCarthy & Stone (Developments) Limited on behalf of all companies within the McCarthy & Stone Group, and not recharged in period. The total Group audit fee for the year ended 31 October 2021 was £0.5m (2020: £0.4m).

c. Directors' remuneration

The Directors received no remuneration from the Company in the current year ended 31 October 2021 or prior period. The Directors are paid by other Group companies and the allocation to this Company for the year ended 31 October 2021 is £nil (2020: £nil).
