DIRECTORS

4. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

5. SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER

5.1 Shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

5.2 No such special resolution and no alteration of the articles invalidates anything which the directors have done before the resolution is passed or the articles are altered (as appropriate) provided such actions were taken by the directors in accordance with the articles before any such alteration became effective.

6. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

6.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

6.1.1 to such person or committee;

6.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);

6.1.3 to such an extent;

6.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and

6.1.5 on such terms and conditions as they think fit.

6.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

6.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. COMMITTEES

7.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based, as far as they are applicable, on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

7.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees.

8. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting of the directors or a decision taken in accordance with article 9.

9. DIRECTORS DECISIONS MADE BY WRITTEN RESOLUTION

9.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article 9 when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.

9.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

9.3 References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.

9.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article 9 if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

10.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving reasonable notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

10.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:

10.2 1 the proposed date and time;

- 10.2.2 where it is to take place; and
- 10.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 10.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.
- 10.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company, and notice of the waiver may be given before or after the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

11. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 11.1 Directors "participate" in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:
 - 11.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles; and
 - 11.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 11.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 11.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

12. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 12.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 12.2 Subject to article 12.3, the quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by ordinary resolution and (subject to article 12.3) unless otherwise fixed it is two, except when only one director is in office. Where there is only one director in office, the only business permitted to be considered at a director's meeting shall be to appoint a new director.

- 12.3 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held to authorise a director's conflict, if there is only one director in office other than the conflicted director, the quorum for the meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one.

13. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 13.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- 13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the "chairman".
- 13.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- 13.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within 10 minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors may appoint one of their number to chair it.

14. NO CASTING VOTE

The chairman or other director chairing the meeting shall not have a second or casting vote.

15. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every decision taken by the directors.

16. DIRECTORS' CONFLICTS: OTHER DIRECTORSHIPS, INTERESTS AND PENSION TRUSTEE MATTERS

- 16.1 A "conflict situation" means a situation in which a director or an alternate has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company:
- 16.1.1 including a situation relating to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, irrespective of whether the Company could take advantage of the property, information or opportunity;

- 16.1.2 excluding a situation which could not reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; and
- 16.1.3 excluding a situation involving a transaction or arrangement.
- 16.2 A director or an alternate shall not infringe his duty to avoid a conflict situation if the matter or situation which would otherwise result in that director or alternate infringing that duty arises out of or results from that director or alternate:
 - 16.2.1 being a director, alternate, officer, employee, consultant or member of any other group company;
 - 16.2.2 being (directly or indirectly) involved with or interested in, any other group company; or
 - 16.2.3 acting as trustee, or a director of a corporate trustee, or being a member, of any pension scheme of which the Company is an employer (as defined in section 124 Pensions Act 1995) or having a direct or indirect interest in any company which is a trustee of or employer in relation to, any such pension scheme; for the reason that any such matter or situation is hereby authorised and no further authorisation, whether pursuant to article 16.3 or otherwise, is required in respect of such matter or situation. In addition, any such director or such alternate shall not be in breach of any other duties he owes to the Company, including the duty to exercise independent judgment, as a result of him being involved in other group companies or pension schemes in the manner referred to in this article 16.2.

- 16.3 Any other matter or situation which would otherwise result in a director or an alternate director infringing his duty to avoid a conflict situation may be authorised by the directors. Any such authorisation will only be effective if:
 - 16.3.1 the quorum at the meeting of the directors at which that matter or situation is considered is met without counting the director or alternate in question or any other interested director or alternate; and
 - 16.3.2 the matter or situation was agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted.

- 16.4 Any authorisation given by the directors in accordance with article 16.3
- 16.4.1 may (at the time it is given or at any subsequent time) be made subject to such terms and such conditions as the directors consider appropriate; and
- 16.4.2 may be revoked or varied by the directors (any such revocation or variation will not affect anything previously done by the director or alternate in accordance with such prior authorisation).
- 16.5 Where in relation to a director or an alternate, a matter or situation is authorised under article 16.2 or specifically authorised by the directors under article 16.3, that director or alternate shall, irrespective of his interest in the matter or situation giving rise to the conflict situation, and subject, at all times, to the terms and conditions (if any) of any authorisation:
- 16.5.1 be entitled to:
- 16.5.1.1 receive any papers or other documents in relation to or concerning, such matter or situation;
- 16.5.1.2 attend any meeting (or any part of any meeting) of the directors or of a committee of the directors, at which such matter or situation is discussed or absent himself from any such meeting (or any part of any such meeting); and
- 16.5.1.3 be counted in the quorum and vote at, any such meeting; and
- 16.5.2 not be required to:
- 16.5.2.1 disclose to or use for the benefit of the Company, any confidential information relating to such matter or situation if such disclosure or use would constitute a breach of confidence; and
- 16.5.2.2 account to the Company for any benefit which he derives from such matter or situation.

17. DIRECTORS' CONFLICTS: DIRECTORS' INTERESTS IN TRANSACTIONS AND ARRANGEMENTS

17.1 A "situation involving a transaction or arrangement" means a situation in which a director or an alternate is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a transaction or arrangement with the Company in circumstances where the provisions of sections 177 or 182 of the Act apply.

17.2 The provisions of article 16 shall not apply to a situation involving a transaction or arrangement

17.3 Any director or alternate may be interested in a situation involving a transaction or arrangement as long as he declares the nature of his interest in accordance with section 177 or, as the case may be, section 182, of the Act.

17.4 Where, in relation to a director or an alternate, a situation involving a transaction or arrangement has arisen and the director or alternate has declared the nature of his interest in accordance with section 177 or, as the case may be, section 182, of the Act, that director or alternate shall, irrespective of his interest in the matter giving rise to the situation involving a transaction or arrangement, be entitled to:

17.4.1 receive any papers or other documents in relation to or concerning, such matter;

17.4.2 attend a meeting (or any part of any meeting) of the directors or of a committee of the directors, at which such matter is discussed; and 17.4.3 be counted in the quorum and vote at, any such meeting.

18. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

Subject to the articles, the directors may regulate their proceedings and the manner in which they take decisions as they see fit.

19. METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS

19.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director:

19.1.1 by ordinary resolution;

- 19.1.2 by a decision of the directors; or
- 19.1.3 by written notice by the majority holder to the Company.
- 19.2 Any appointment under article 19.1.2 shall be effective when the decision of the directors has been taken.
- 19.3 Any appointment under article 19.1.3 shall be effective when the written notice of appointment is deemed to have been received under article 50.6.

20. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT

- 20.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as:
- 20.1.1 that person ceases to be a director in accordance with any provision of the Act or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- 20.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- 20.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

- 20.1.6 the majority holder removes him from office by written notice to the Company (such removal to be treated as an act of the Company); or
- 20.1.7 notification is received by the Company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms.
- 20.2 Any removal of a director from office under article 20.1.6 shall be effective when the written notice is deemed to have been received under article 50.6.

21. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 21.1 Any director (other than an alternate director) (in this article, the "appointor") may appoint any person (whether or not a director) to be an alternate director ("alternate" or "alternate director")
- 21.2 In the absence of the alternate's appointor, the alternate director may exercise the powers and carry out the responsibilities of his appointor in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors.

- 21.4 The notice must:

- 21.6 Except as otherwise provided in the articles, alternate directors:
- 21.6.1 are deemed for all purposes to be directors;
- 21.6.2 are liable for their own acts and omissions;
- 21.6.3 are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and

- 21.8 A person who is an alternate director, but not a director:

- 21.8.1 may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present (but only if that person's appointor is not participating); and
- 21.8.2 may participate in decisions of the directors (but only if his appointor is eligible to participate in relation to that decision and does not himself participate).
- 21.9 On any decision of the directors, in addition to his own vote, a director who is also an alternate director is entitled (in the absence of his appointor) to a separate vote on behalf of his appointor (provided that his appointor is eligible to participate in relation to that decision).
- 21.10 An alternate director may be paid expenses and may be indemnified by the Company to the same extent as if he were a director. An alternate director shall not be entitled to receive from the Company any remuneration in his capacity as an alternate director except such part (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his appointor as the appointor may by notice in writing to the Company from time to time direct.
- 21.11 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:
- 21.11.1 when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the Company in writing specifying when it is to terminate; or
- 21.11.2 when an event occurs in relation to the alternate which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director; or

22. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

- 22.1 Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the directors decide.

26.2 The Company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

27. COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the Company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

28. SHARE CERTIFICATES

28.1 The Company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.

28.2 Every certificate must specify:

28.2.1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;

28.2.2 the nominal value of those shares; and

28.2.3 either that the shares are fully paid, or the amount paid up on each share.

28.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

28.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

28.5 Certificates must be executed in accordance with the Act.

30.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.

30.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

30.3 The Company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.

30.4 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.

30.5 The directors may refuse to register a transfer unless the instrument of transfer is delivered to the registered office or such other place as the directors may decide and is accompanied by the certificate for the shares to be transferred (or an indemnity for any certificate not in the transferor's possession in such form as the directors may decide) and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor and the execution by him of the transfer or, if the transfer is signed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so

30.6 The directors shall not register a transfer, or purported transfer:

30 6.1 to any infant or bankrupt; or

30.6.2 to any person where the transfer is not in accordance with the articles.

30.8 If the directors refuse to register the transfer of a share the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

31. PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

31.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.

31.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

31.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.

31.4 Unless a shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

31.5 If the Company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears.

- 31.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 31.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.
- 31.8 Notwithstanding article 31.6 (but subject always to the requirements of the Act), the directors of the Company shall at regular intervals of not less than 3 months meet, inter alia, to review the state of the Company's financial affairs and to consider the distribution to the shareholders of the whole of the profits of the Company that are lawfully available for distribution to the shareholders by way of dividend or interim dividend in accordance with the Act, which profits shall be so distributed unless all the shareholders of the Company shall have otherwise directed in writing prior to the meeting, or unless the directors otherwise conclude that to do so would not be in the best interests of the Company.

32. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

- 32.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:

- 32.1.2 sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or
- 32.1.3 any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide.
- 32.2 In this article, the "distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:
- 32.2.1 the holder of the share; or

32.2.2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or

32.2.3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the person entitled to such share

33. NO INTEREST ON DISTRIBUTIONS

33.1 The Company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:

33.1.1 the terms on which the share was issued; or

33.1.2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the Company.

34. DEDUCTION FROM DIVIDENDS

The directors may deduct from any dividend payable on or in respect of a share all sums of money presently payable by the holder to the Company on any account whatsoever.

35.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

35.1.1 payable in respect of shares; and

35.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable;

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed.

35.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it.

35.3 If:

35.3.1 12 years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and

35.3.2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it;

- 35.3.3 the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

36. NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

- 36.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).
- 36.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:
- 36.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;
 - 36.2.2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
 - 36.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

37. WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

- 37.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if:
- 37.1.1 the share has more than one holder; or
 - 37.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise;
- the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

38. AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

- 38.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:

- 38.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.
- 38.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:
 - 38.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled; and
 - 38.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.
- 38.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 38.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 38.5 Subject to the articles the directors may:
 - 38.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 38.3 and 38.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
 - 38.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and
 - 38.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article.

- 39.7 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 39.8 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more shareholders attending it are in the same place as each other.
