THE COMPANIES ACTS 1985 AND 1989

COMPANY LIMITED BY GUARANTEE AND NOT HAVING A SHARE CAPITAL

ISLAMIC RESEARCH FOUNDATION INTERNATIONAL

– (A CHARITABLE COMPANY) –

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

1. INTERPRETATION :

1.1 In these Articles :

“the Charity” means the company intended to be regulated by these Articles;

“the Act” means the Companies Act 1985 including any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force;

“the Articles” means these Articles of Association of the Charity;

“the Memorandum” means the Charity’s Memorandum of Association;

“the Objects” means the principal objects set out in the Memorandum;

“the office” means the registered office of the Charity;

“the seal” means the common seal of the Charity if it has one;

“the Secretary” means the secretary of the Charity or any other person appointed to perform the duties of the Secretary of the Charity, including a joint, assistant or deputy secretary;

“the Board of Trustees” means the Directors of the Charity (and “Trustee” has a corresponding meaning);

“clear days” in relation to the period of a notice means the period excluding the day when the notice is given or deemed to be given and the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect;

“executed” includes any mode of execution;

“the United Kingdom” means Great Britain and Northern Ireland; and words importing the masculine gender only shall include the feminine gender.

Subject as aforesaid, words or expressions contained in these Articles shall, unless the context requires otherwise, bear the same meaning as in the Act.

2. MEMBERS :

- 2.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum and such other individuals as are admitted to membership in accordance with standing orders made under Articles 4.16 and 4.17 below – including any members of the Regional Executive Committees and Executive Council appointed in accordance with Article 9 below and any Honorary Trustees and Honorary Patrons appointed in accordance with Article 10 below – shall be members of the Charity.
- 2.2 No person shall be admitted as a member of the Charity unless his or her application for membership has been approved by the Regional Executive Committee whose office is situated in the region in which he or she is resident, subject to the approval of the Executive Council and of the Board of Trustees.
- 2.3 Unless the Board of Trustees shall make other provision under Articles 4.16 and 4.17 below, the Trustees may in their absolute discretion permit any member of the Charity to retire PROVIDED THAT after such retirement the number of members is not less than two.

3. GENERAL MEETINGS :

- 3.1 The Charity shall hold an annual general meeting each year in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Charity and that of the next PROVIDED THAT so long as the Charity holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The annual general meeting shall be held at such times and places as the Trustees shall appoint. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
- 3.2 The Board of Trustees may call general meetings by at least 21 clear days' notice and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting for a date not later than 8 weeks after receipt of the requisition.
- 3.3 Any further rules governing the proceedings at general meetings which the Trustees may deem necessary shall be formulated in accordance with standing orders made under Articles 4.16 and 4.17 below.

4. ADMINISTRATION :

The Charity shall be administered as follows :

Trustees

- 4.1 The number of Trustees shall not be less than three but shall not be subject to any maximum limit.
- 4.2 The Trustees shall be Muslims.
- 4.3 The Trustees shall be members of Islamic Research Foundation International.
- 4.4 The first Trustees shall be those persons named in the statement delivered pursuant to section 10(2) of the Act, who shall be deemed to have been appointed under the Articles. Future Trustees shall be appointed as provided subsequently in the Articles.

Powers of Trustees

- 4.4 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Memorandum and the Articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Charity shall be managed by the Board of Trustees who may exercise all the powers of the Charity. No alteration of the Memorandum or the Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Board of Trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Board of Trustees by the Articles and a meeting of Trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all the powers exercisable by the Board of Trustees.
- 4.5 In addition to all powers hereby expressly conferred upon them and without detracting from the generality of their powers under the Articles the Board of Trustees shall have the following powers, namely :
 - (i) to expend the funds and assets of the Charity in such manner as they shall consider most beneficial for the achievement of the Objects and to invest in the name of the Charity such part of the funds and assets as they may see fit and to direct the sale of any such investments and to expend the proceeds of any such sale in furtherance of the Objects; and
 - (ii) to enter into contracts on behalf of the Charity.

Appointment and Retirement of Trustees

- 4.6 The power of appointing new Trustees and discharging existing Trustees hereof shall be vested in Dr Zakir Abdul-Karim Naik ("the Founding Chairman") or in the event of his retirement or death then in his nominated successor – or in the event of there being no nominated successor then in the surviving or continuing Trustees for the time being (excluding any retiring Trustee).

- 4.7 Subject to Article 4.6 above and to any standing orders made or varied in accordance with Articles 4.16 and 4.17 below and without prejudice to any other power of appointing new Trustees and discharging existing Trustees whether contained elsewhere in these Articles or conferred by statute or otherwise a new Trustee may be appointed and an existing Trustee may be discharged by at least a two thirds majority resolution of all the existing Trustees and whenever a Trustee is so appointed or discharged a memorandum of his appointment or discharge shall be prepared and signed and sealed by the person presiding at such meeting and attested by two signatories appointed and authorised so to act under Article 5.2 below.
- 4.8 No person may be appointed as a Trustee :
- (i) unless he has attained the age of 18 years; or
 - (ii) in circumstances such that, had he already been a Trustee, he would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 4.9 below.

Disqualification and Removal of Trustees

- 4.9 A Trustee shall cease to hold office if he :
- (i) ceases to be a Trustee by virtue of any provision in the Act or is disqualified from acting as a Trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision);
 - (ii) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his own affairs;
 - (iii) resigns his office by notice to the Charity (but only if at least two Trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect); or
 - (iv) is absent without the permission of the Board of Trustees from all their meetings held within a period of 2 years and the Board of Trustees resolve that his office be vacated.

Trustees' Expenses

- 4.10 The Trustees shall be entitled to indemnify and reimburse themselves out of the funds of the Charity for any expenses or liabilities which they may reasonably incur in the performance or exercise of their duties and powers herein.

Trustees' Appointments

- 4.11 Subject to the provisions of the Act and to Clause 5.5 of the Memorandum and to Article 4.10 above the Board of Trustees may appoint one or more of their number to the unremunerated office of managing director or to any other unremunerated executive office under the Charity. Any such appointment may be made upon such terms as the Board of Trustees may determine. Any appointment of a Trustee to an executive office shall terminate if he or she ceases to be a Trustee.

- 4.12 Subject to the provisions of the Act and to Clause 5.5 of the Memorandum and to Article 4.10 above no Trustee shall take or hold any interest in property belonging to the Charity or receive remuneration for their services from the funds of the Charity or be interested otherwise than as a Trustee in any other contract to which the Charity is a party.

Secretary

- 4.13 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Secretary shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees for such term, at such remuneration (if not a Trustee) and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by them.

Proceedings of Trustees

- 4.14 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Board of Trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.
- 4.15 The following regulations shall govern the procedure of the Trustees:
- (i) All decisions and resolutions of the Trustees shall be subject to the approval of the Founding Chairman or in the event of his retirement or death then of his nominated successor – or in the event of there being no nominated successor then of the surviving or continuing Trustees for the time being (excluding any retiring Trustee) as hereinafter provided.
 - (ii) Subject to sub-clause 4.15(i) above where a majority of the Trustees wish to appoint a new Chairman or to discharge an existing Chairman at any meeting then any such appointment or discharge shall only be made by at least a two thirds majority resolution of all the existing Trustees.
 - (iii) The Trustees shall hold meetings at least twice in every year and at such other times and in such places as they shall from time to time decide and a simple majority of Trustees may at any time convene a special meeting of the Trustees upon at least 14 clear days notice being given to the other Trustees of the matters to be discussed.
 - (iv) Subject to sub-clause 4.15(ii) above there shall be a quorum when at least one third or 3 Trustees – whichever is the higher – is present and a meeting of Trustees at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the powers and discretions vested in the Board of Trustees.
 - (v) A meeting of Trustees may be conducted by way of conference call via telephone video web-cam or satellite link PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT everyone involved can at least hear each other speak simultaneously;

- (vi) At any meeting of the Trustees those present shall appoint one of their members to chair that meeting by a simple majority vote.
- (vii) At any meeting of the Trustees the chairman for that particular meeting may be selected either in advance by means of an agreed system of rotation, or by those present at such meeting, as the Trustees in their discretion shall decide.
- (viii) The Trustees shall always seek consensus in their decisions, but where there is not unanimous agreement between all of the Trustees present at any meeting on any matter requiring a decision then the matter in question shall be determined and the final decision made by the Chairman but only after the matter in question has been fully discussed by all the Trustees present thereat.
- (ix) Subject to sub-clauses 4.15(i) and 4.15(ii) above any decision or resolution of the Trustees may be rescinded or varied from time to time by the Trustees.
- (x) The Board of Trustees shall appoint one of their members to be Treasurer by a simple majority vote if the decision is not unanimous for such term as they shall in their absolute discretion think fit.
- (xi) The Board of Trustees may appoint one or more committees for the purpose of making any inquiry or supervising or performing any function or duty which in the opinion of the Board of Trustees would be more conveniently undertaken or carried out by a committee PROVIDED THAT all acts and proceedings of any such committees shall be fully and promptly reported to the Board of Trustees.
- (xii) The Board of Trustees shall keep minutes in books kept for the purpose :
 - (a) of all appointments of officers made by the Trustees;
 - (b) of all proceedings at meetings of the Charity and of the Trustees and of committees of Trustees including the names of the Trustees present at each such meeting; and
 - (c) which shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting at the conclusion of each meeting or at some future meeting if the minutes shall have been duly confirmed.
- (xiii) Subject to sub-clause 4.15(i) above all acts done by a meeting of Trustees, or of a committee of Trustees, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any Trustee or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Trustee and had been entitled to vote.

- (xiv) A resolution in writing, signed by all the Trustees entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Trustees or of a committee of Trustees, shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of Trustees or (as the case may be) a committee of Trustees duly convened and held. Such a resolution may consist of several documents in the same form, each signed by one or more of the Trustees.

Rules

4.16 The Board of Trustees may from time to time make such rules including standing orders as they may deem necessary or reasonable for the proper conduct and management of the Charity and for the purposes of prescribing classes of and conditions of membership, and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, they may by such rules or standing orders regulate :

- (i) the admission and classification of members of the Charity (including the admission of organisations to membership) and the rights and privileges of such members, and the conditions of membership and the terms on which members may resign or have their membership terminated and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;
- (ii) the conduct of members of the Charity in relation to one another, and to the Charity's servants;
- (iii) the setting aside of the whole or any part or parts of the Charity's premises at any particular time or times or for any particular purpose or purposes;
- (iv) the procedure at general meetings and meetings of the Trustees and committees of the Trustees in so far as such procedure is not regulated by the Articles;
- (v) the administration of any Regional Executive Committees and Regional Centres of the Charity as hereinafter provided;
- (vi) the administration of the Executive Council of the Charity as hereinafter provided;
- (vii) generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.

4.17 The Board of Trustees shall have the power to alter, add to or repeal any such rules or standing orders and shall adopt such means as they think sufficient to bring to the notice of members of the Charity all such rules or standing orders, which shall be binding on all members of the Charity PROVIDED THAT no rule or standing order shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the Memorandum or the Articles.

Indemnity

- 4.18 In the exercise of the powers and duties contained herein and in the execution of the trusts hereof no Trustee shall be liable for any loss to the property of the Charity arising by any improper investment made in good faith or for the negligence or fraud of any agent or servant employed by him or her or any other Trustee hereof in good faith although the employment of such agent was strictly not necessary or expedient or by reason of any mistake or omission made in good faith by any Trustee hereof or by reason of any other matter or thing except wilful and individual fraud or wrongdoing or wrongful omission on the part of the Trustee who was sought to be made liable.
- 4.19 Subject to the provisions of the Act every Trustee or other officer or auditor of the Charity shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Charity against any liability incurred by him in that capacity in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Charity.

The Seal

- 4.20 The Seal shall only be used by the authority of the Board of Trustees or of a committee of Trustees authorised by the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and unless otherwise so determined it shall be signed by a Trustee and by the Secretary or by a second Trustee.

Notices

- 4.21 Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles shall be in writing.
- 4.22 The Charity may give any notice to a member either personally or by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address.
- 4.23 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. A notice shall be deemed to be given at the expiration of 7 days after the envelope containing it was posted.
- 4.24 Any notice sent by means of electronic transmission including fax or email shall be confirmed as having been received provided receipt is acknowledged by the person to whom it was sent.
- 4.25 A member present in person at any meeting of the Charity shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where necessary, of the purposes for which it was called.

5. FINANCES:

- 5.1 The Board of Trustees may from time to time open and maintain in the name of the Charity a bank account or bank accounts at such bank or banks as they shall from time to time decide and may at any time pay any monies forming part of the funds and assets of the Charity to the credit of any such account or accounts or place the same on deposit with any bank or banker and all cheques and orders for the payment of money shall be signed by at least two of the Trustees.
- 5.2 The Board of Trustees shall select any two of their number to act as joint signatories to operate the accounts of the Charity and to execute in the name of the Charity and on behalf of the Board of Trustees all assurances or other deeds or instruments for giving effect to any decisions resolutions or transactions to which the Charity is a party.

Accounts

- 5.5 Accounts shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Part VII of the Act.

Annual Report

- 5.6 The Board of Trustees shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Charity Commissioners.

Annual Return

- 5.7 The Board of Trustees shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Charity Commissioners.

6. POWER TO EMPLOY AGENTS:

- 6.1 The Trustees shall not be bound in any case to act personally and shall be at full liberty to employ and pay proper and reasonable remuneration to any administrator clerk or other agent or servant whether Muslim or non-Muslim to transact all or any business of whatever nature required to be done in pursuance of the Objects including the day-to day management of the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity and the receipt and payment of money and shall not be responsible for the defaults of any such employee or any loss occasioned by his or her employment.
- 6.2 When employing any person under Article 6.1 above the Trustees shall only employ those persons who are essential for the effective and efficient administration of the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity.

- 6.3 With reference to Articles 4.16 and 4.17 above the Board of Trustees may make such rules and standing orders as they shall from time to time in their absolute discretion think fit for the management of the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity and may at any time and from time to time rescind or vary such rules and standing orders PROVIDED THAT such rules shall not in any way operate so as to affect adversely or derogate from the charitable nature of the Objects nor shall they authorise the expenditure of the funds and assets of the Charity or the application of the whole or any part thereof (whether as to income or capital) otherwise than exclusively in furtherance of the Objects of the Charity.
- 6.4 In making such rules and standing orders under Article 6.3 above, the Board of Trustees may delegate to anyone working for the Charity such matters relating to the day-to-day management of the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity as they shall in their absolute discretion think fit.
- 6.5 The Board of Trustees shall be entitled to appoint any lawyer, executive, administrator, manager, stockbroker, agent or accountant or other such person to manage the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity and to pay to such person or persons who are appointed suitable remuneration and commission for their services at the usual professional rates.

7. POWER TO ACQUIRE AND DISPOSE OF LAND :

- 7.1 In furtherance of the Objects but not otherwise the Board of Trustees may from time to time acquire or dispose of by purchase exchange gift or otherwise freehold or leasehold land and premises for the use of the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity or in order to generate income for the Objects of the Charity.
- 7.2 If for any reason any part of the premises from time to time occupied or owned in furtherance of the Objects of the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity should in the opinion of the Board of Trustees become unsuitable or not be required for such charitable purposes then the Board of Trustees may (with any consents as be law required) sell, lease, exchange, donate or otherwise dispose of the same.

- 7.3 The Board of Trustees may apply the proceeds of sale of such premises and the rents and profits thereof for any of the Objects including the purchase of other land for the use or occupation by the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity or in order to generate income for the Objects of the Charity and in fitting equipping and furnishing the same so that the same shall be held and used upon with and subject to the like trusts powers and provisions and for the like charitable purposes as the premises previously used and occupied for the Objects of the Charity and its Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity or in order to generate income for the Objects of the Charity.

8. POWERS OF INVESTMENT :

- 8.1 With reference to Article 4.5 above, in the event of there being a surplus of funds which cannot immediately be allocated and applied in accordance with the Objects the Board of Trustees may invest such surplus in such investments as may for the time being be permitted in law.
- 8.2 Any income derived from investments made in accordance with Article 8.1 above, is to be allocated and applied in accordance with either Article 4.5 above or with Article 8.3 below.
- 8.3 The Board of Trustees may assist any body or bodies especially other charitable organisations whose purposes are the same as or similar to those of the Charity, financially or otherwise, PROVIDED ALWAYS that such assistance is in accordance with the Objects.

9. REGIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES
& THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL :

- 9.1 The Board of Trustees shall have power by at least a two thirds majority vote of all the existing Trustees to appoint members who are not Trustees to committees of management described herein as "Regional Executive Committees" and "the Executive Council" and to delegate to any such members any of the administrative powers and discretions vested in them under the terms of the Articles and in particular shall have power without prejudice to the generality of the said power of delegation to delegate to any such members of any Regional Executive Committee and the Executive Council any of the following powers and discretions (all of which shall be exercisable by the Trustees themselves but without prejudice to the generality of the powers and discretions vested in them by the Articles and by law) that is to say :
- (i) to assist in receiving money funds contributions donations legacies subscriptions grants and gifts on behalf of the Trustees;
 - (ii) to assist in the day to day administration of the Charity and its

- Regional Executive Committees and its Regional Centres and its Executive Council and any project or aid scheme initiated and co-ordinated by the Charity;
