Director's Report

The director presents his report and accounts for the year ended 31 March 2012

Principal activity

The company is dormant and has not traded during the year or subsequent to the year end. The company changed its name from Watford Business Centre Limited to THFC 60 Limited on 15th July 2011.

Directors

The following persons served as directors during the year

L G Lipman (appointed 6th September 2012)

N Corderey (resigned 7th July 2011)

P M Davis (resigned 6th September 2012)

None of the directors hold shares in the company which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Safeland plc. Their interests in the shares of Safeland plc are disclosed in that company's financial statements. Apart from this, the directors had no interest in the shares of any group company.

Profit and Loss Account

No profit and loss account is presented with these financial statements because the company has not received income, incurred expenditure or recognised any gains or losses during the accounting period under review. There have been no movements in shareholder's funds during the period under review.

Directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the report and accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these accounts, the directors are required to - prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
