NOTES

Show the full forenames, NOT INITIALS. If the director or secretary is a corporation or Scottish firm, show the name on surname line and registered or principal office on the usual residential line.

Give previous forenames or surname(s) except:

- for a married woman, the name by which she was known before marriage need not be given.
- for names not used since the age of 18 or for at least 20 years

A peer or individual known by a title may state the title instead of or in addition to the forenames and surname and need not give the name by which that person was known before he or she adopted the title or succeeded to it.

Other directorships.

Give the name of every company incorporated in Great Britain of which the person concerned is a director or has been a director at any time in the past five years.

You may exclude a company which either is, or at all times during the past five years when the person concerned was a director, was

- dormant
- a parent company which wholly owned the company making the return, or
- another wholly owned subsidiary of the same parent company.

in order to be able to handle the situation. The first step is to identify the problem and then to determine the cause. Once the cause is identified, the next step is to develop a plan to solve the problem. The plan should be based on the cause of the problem and should be realistic and achievable. Once the plan is developed, the next step is to implement it. The implementation should be done in a systematic and organized manner. Finally, the results should be evaluated and the plan should be adjusted if necessary.
