1 PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 101 'Reduced Disclosure Framework' (FRS 101) and the Companies Act 2006 (the Act) as applicable to companies using FRS 101 and under the historic cost convention FRS 101 sets out a reduced disclosure framework for a qualifying entity' as defined in the standard which addresses the financial reporting requirements and disclosure exemptions in the individual financial statements of qualifying entities that otherwise apply the recognition, measurement and disclosure requirements of EU-adopted International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) The accounting policies have been applied consistently, other than where new policies have been adopted

The Company is a qualifying entity for the purposes of FRS 101. Note 16 gives details of the Company's parent and from where its consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS may be obtained

The following disclosure exemptions have been adopted

- financial risk management note,
- · cash flow statements,
- · process for managing capital,
- · key management compensation, and
- related party transactions between wholly owned group companies

As at 31 March 2016, the Company s total habilities exceeded its total assets by £54,793,000. The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis as its parent entity, ICAP Group Holdings plc has confirmed its undertaking to provide financial support to the Company so that the Company is able to meet its habilities as and when they fall due for a period of 12 months from the date of the financial statements

The Company has exercised its entitlement not to produce consolidated financial statements as consolidated financial statements have been prepared by its ultimate parent undertaking, ICAP plc, as at 31 March 2016

b) Functional currency

The directors have concluded that the most appropriate functional currency of the Company is United States Dollars ("USD") This reflects the fact that the majority of the entity's business is influenced by pricing in international shipping markets, with a predominately US Dollar denominated economic environment, and that the majority of turnover is invoiced in US Dollars

c) Turnover

Turnover relates to a royalty agreement that has been transferred from a fellow subsidiary, ICAP Shipping No 1 Limited, which has been dissolved, and which entitles the Company to 15% of the commission generated from yacht sale deals

1. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

d) Tax

Tax on the loss for the year comprises both current and deferred tax as well as adjustments in respect of prior years. Tax is charged or credited to the profit and loss account, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity in which case the current and deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date

Deferred tax is recognised using the liability method, in respect of all temporary differences between the carrying value of assets and liabilities for reporting purposes and the tax bases of the assets and liabilities. Deferred tax is calculated at the rate of tax expected to apply when the liability is settled or the asset is realised. A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised.

Calculations of current and deferred tax liability have been based on ongoing discussions with the relevant tax authorities, management's assessment of legal and professional advice, case law and other relevant guidance. Where the expected tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were recorded initially, such differences will impact the current and deferred tax amounts in the period in which a reassessment of the liability is made

e) Foreign currencies

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the rates of exchange prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At each balance sheet date, monetary assets and liabilities that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. Exchange differences are taken to the profit and loss account, except for exchange differences arising on non-monetary assets and liabilities where the changes in fair value are taken directly to reserves. Non-monetary assets and liabilities carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined

f) Financial assets

Financial assets are classified as available-for-sale or "loans and receivables" on initial recognition

Available-for-sale available-for-sale financial assets are debt and equity non-derivative financial assets and are initially recognised at fair value. Any subsequent changes in fair value are recognised directly in equity. When an investment is disposed of or is determined to be impaired, any cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in equity is transferred to the profit and loss account. For equity financial assets, where the fair value cannot be reliably measured, the assets are held at cost less any provision for impairment. These assets are generally expected to be held for the long-term and are included in non-current assets. Assets such as shares or seats in exchanges, cash-related instruments, and long-term equity investments that do not qualify as associates or joint ventures are classified as available-for-sale.

Loans and receivables—loans and receivables are non-derivative financial instruments which have a fixed or easily determined value. They are recognised at cost, less any provisions for impairment in their value. These assets are included in debtors (note 11).

Financial assets not held at fair value are impaired where there is objective evidence that the value may be impaired. The amount of the impairment is calculated as the difference between carrying value and the present value of any expected future cash flows, with any impairment being recognised in the profit and loss account. Subsequent recovery of amounts previously impaired are credited to the profit and loss account.

g) Investment in subsidiaries

Investments comprise equity shareholdings These investments are recorded at historical cost less provision for any impairment in their values

A subsidiary is an entity over which the Company has control. Control exists where the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

h) Intercompany balances

Intercompany balances are shown in accordance with the netting agreement, which allows netting of bilateral intercompany balances within entities that are party to the netting agreement

i) Debt provisioning

Provisions are made for specific debts when it is considered that the creditworthiness of the debtor has deteriorated such that the recovery of all or part of a debt is in serious doubt

A provision is made in respect of potential losses which are judged to be present in debtor balances at the balance sheet date, but which will not be identified as such until some time in the future. The level of provision is based upon the previous experience of such losses in the Company and is reviewed on a periodic basis. The appropriateness of the provision is periodically assessed against any actual losses that have arisen. All provisions are recorded within administrative expenses in the profit and loss account.

1) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash held at call with banks

k) Impairment of assets

An impairment review of the recoverable amounts of assets is undertaken at each balance sheet date or when such events or changes in circumstances indicate that an impairment loss may have occurred

An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use

I) Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Dividends are recognised as deductions from retained earnings in the year in which they are declared.

m) New standards, amendments and interpretations

No new standards, amendments or interpretations, effective for the first time for the financial year beginning on or after 1 April 2015 have had a material impact on the Company

2 KEY ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

The Company makes various judgements in applying its accounting policies and various assumptions and estimates, including about the future, when determining the carrying value of certain assets and liabilities

As at 31 March 2016 the only such judgements are related to the impairment review of investments (note 9) When considering the investments value in use, cashflow projections have been used which extend forward to a terminal value and which take account of the approved budget for the coming year. The Company applies a suitable discount factor to the future cash flows based on its weighted average costs of capital at 8.3% (2015) 8.5%) Growth rates are conservatively applied and do not exceed the expected growth in the local economy after the fifth year. Management applied a rate of 5% which is consistent with that of ICAP Group
