(iii) In the event of the death of a Shareholder holding Ordinary Shares the Ordinary Shares so held will be converted into "A" Ordinary Shares being non-voting shares and shall remain as "A" Ordinary Shares until such time as the shares have been transferred from the deceased shareholder to such persons as defined in the terms of the trust or will and at which point the shares shall be converted back to Ordinary Shares.

(iii) Each of the following shall be deemed to constitute a variation of the rights attached to each class of shares:

(a) any alteration in the articles of association of the Company, or

(b) any increase or reduction or subdivision or consolidation or other alteration in the issued share capital of the Company or any of the rights attaching to any share capital.

- 3 2 Subject to the remaining provisions of this Article 3 and to Article 4, the directors are generally and unconditionally authorised, for the purposes of section 551 of the 2006 Act and generally, to exercise any power of the Company to

- (b) shall only apply insofar as the company has not renewed, waived or revoked it by ordinary resolution, and
- (c) may only be exercised for a period of five years commencing on the date on which these Articles are adopted, save that the directors may make an offer or agreement which would, or might, require Ordinary Shares to be allotted after the expiry of such authority (and the directors may allot Ordinary Shares in pursuance of an offer or agreement as if such authority had not expired)

4. FURTHER ISSUES OF SHARES: PRE-EMPTION RIGHTS

- 4 1 Unless otherwise agreed by special resolution, if the company proposes to allot any Shares (other than any Shares to be held under an employees' share scheme), those Shares shall not be allotted to any person unless the company has first offered them to all shareholders on the date of the offer on the same terms, and at the same price, as those Shares are being offered to other persons on a pari passu and pro rata basis to the number of shares held by those holders (as nearly as possible without involving fractions) The offer

- (a) shall be in writing, shall be open for acceptance for a period of 21 business days from the date of the offer and shall give details of the number and subscription price of the relevant Shares, and
- (b) may stipulate that any shareholder who wishes to subscribe for a number of Shares in excess of the proportion to which he is entitled shall, in his acceptance, state the number of excess Shares (Excess Shares) for which he wishes to subscribe

- 4 2 Any Shares not accepted by shareholders pursuant to the offer made to them in accordance with Article 4 1 shall be used for satisfying any requests for Excess

Shares made pursuant to Article 4 1 If there are insufficient Excess Shares to satisfy such requests, the Excess Shares shall be allotted to the applicants pro rata to the number of shares held by the applicants immediately before the offer was made to shareholders in accordance with Article 4 1 (as nearly as possible without involving fractions or increasing the number of Excess Shares allotted to any shareholder beyond that applied for by him) After that allotment, any Excess Shares remaining shall be offered to any other person as the directors may determine, at the same price and on the same terms as the offer to the shareholders

- 4 3 Any Shares not allotted to shareholders in accordance with Articles 4 1 and 4 2 and to section 551 of the Act, shall be at the disposal of the directors who may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to any persons at those times and generally on the terms and conditions they think proper
