- (iii) a general notice given to the directors that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified,
- (iv) an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his,
- (v) a director need not disclose an interest if it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, and
- (vi) a director need not disclose an interest if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware)

18 3 Without limitation to articles 18 1 and 18 2, the directors may (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as they may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation and with the prior approval of the Special Director where he is not the subject of the authorisation) authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law

- (i) any matter which would otherwise result in a director infringing his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company and which may reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest (including a conflict of interest and duty or conflict of duties), and
- (ii) a director to accept or continue in any office, employment or position in addition to his office as a director of the company and, without prejudice to the generality of article 18 3(i), may authorise the manner in which a conflict of interest arising out of such office, employment or position may be dealt with, either before or at the time that such a conflict of interest arises, provided that the authorisation is effective only if (i) any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director, and (ii) the matter was agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted

- 18.4 In relation to any such matter, office, employment or position that has been authorised in accordance with article 18 1 or article 18 3 (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as the directors may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation or the permissions set out below)
- (i) the director shall not be required to disclose to the company, or use in performing his duties as a director of the company, any confidential information relating to such matter, or such office, employment or position if to make such a disclosure or use would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed by him in relation to or in connection with such matter, or that office, employment or position,
 - (ii) the director may, but shall not necessarily be required to, absent himself from discussions, whether in meetings of the directors or otherwise, and exclude himself from information, which will or may relate to that matter, or that office, employment or position, and
 - (iii) a director shall not, by reason of his office as a director of the company, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such matter, or from any such office, employment or position
- 18 5 Subject to compliance with article 18 1, any director interested in any matter relating to an Investor, or, with the prior approval of the directors, any other matter, may vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is interested and be counted in the quorum present at any meeting at which any such contract or arrangement is proposed or considered and if he shall so vote his vote shall be counted
- 18 6 In exercising his discretion in relation to any matter, the Special Director shall be entitled to take into account such interests of the Investor as he, in his absolute discretion, sees fit Neither the existence of any class of share nor the rights attached thereto shall in any way inhibit or restrict the Special Director in the exercise of his discretion or require the Special Director, in such exercise, to pay any greater, or as much, regard to the interests of the holders of a class of shares as compared with the interests of the holders of any other class of shares
- 18 7 Subject to article 18 8, if a question arises at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Special Director whose ruling in relation to any director other than the Special Director is to be final and conclusive
- 18 8 Other than in relation to any interest he might have which is expressly set out in this article 18, if any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the Special Director, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the Special Director is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes His attendance for that decision to be made shall not be required in order for the meeting to be quorate in respect of that decision

- 21 2 The terms of any such appointment, agreement or arrangement shall be determined by the directors

every alternate Special Director shall be entitled to be paid all reasonable expenses incurred in exercise of his duties, and

41 3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights

41 4 Subject always to the 2006 Act and these articles, the directors may at any time with the prior written consent of the Special Director, and shall, if directed in writing by the Special Director, declare and pay such interim dividends as appear to the directors, or if directed by the Special Director to declare and pay such interim dividend, as appears to the Special Director, to be justified by the position of the company. The directors may also declare and pay any fixed dividend which is payable on any shares half-yearly or otherwise on fixed dates whenever the position in the opinion of the directors so justifies

41 5 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it

41 6 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear

41 7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights

42 Payment of dividends and other distributions

42 1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means

- (ii) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
- (iii) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide, or
- (iv) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide

42 2 Dividends may be declared or paid in any currency, and the directors may agree with any distribution recipient that dividends which may at any time or from time to time be declared or become due on the distribution recipient's shares in one currency shall be paid or satisfied in another, and may agree the basis of conversion to be applied and how and when the amount to be paid in the other currency shall be calculated and paid and for the company and any other person to bear the costs involved

42 3 In the articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable

- (i) the holder of the share, or

- they may, instead of issuing a lien enforcement notice, deduct from any dividend or other sum payable in respect of the share a sum of money up to but not exceeding such part of the sum for which the lien exists as is presently payable

43 2 Money so deducted must be applied towards payment of the sum for which the lien exists

43 3 The company must notify the distribution recipient in writing of 45 1 All dividends or other sums which are

- (i) payable in respect of shares, and
- (ii) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable, may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed

45 2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it

45 3 If

- (i) twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
- (ii) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company

46 Non-cash distributions

46 1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors in accordance with article 41 4 decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company)

- (i) the share has more than one holder, or
- (ii) more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share

48 Reserves

The directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks proper as reserves which shall at the discretion of the directors be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the company may be properly applied and pending such application may either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments as the directors may at any time think fit. The directors may also without placing the same to reserve carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to divide

49 Authority to establish a capital reserve

49 1 The directors may establish a capital reserve. All capital appreciation realised upon or derived from the sale or realisation of properties, securities or investments or other realisations of or dealings with the capital assets or any other sums which in the opinion of the directors are of a capital nature may, if so determined by the directors, be applied to capital purposes only and (unless forthwith appropriated to meeting realised losses on sales or realisations or on any change or transposition of securities, investments or properties or other realisations of or dealings with capital assets or to writing down properties, securities, investments or other capital assets (either individually or in the aggregate)) shall be carried by the directors to the credit of a capital reserve and all losses of a similar nature shall be carried to the debit of such capital reserve

49 2 The sum carried and at any time standing to the credit of the capital reserve shall not in any event be transferred to profit and loss or revenue account but may be regarded as available for capital distribution or for making good losses on the company's properties securities and investments or for providing for depreciation in the value of the company's properties securities and investments Any moneys for the time standing to the credit of the capital reserve may, at the discretion of the directors, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such properties, investments or other assets as the directors may think fit

50 2 Capitalised sums must be applied

- (i) on behalf of the persons entitled, and
- (ii) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them

50 3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct

50 4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct
