Directors' report

The directors present their annual report and financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2019.

Activities

The principal activity of the company was that of a holding company. This company has been dormant throughout the current and prior periods, other than the receipt of dividends income from subsidiary undertakings. The company is part of the Busy Bees group of companies ('the group').

On 1 January 2018, as part of a group reorganisation exercise, the Company transferred its entire trade and assets to another group subsidiary, Busy Bees Holdings Limited. The Company also reduced its share capital to £1 nominal value and realised its capital reserves through a capital reduction. The Company then declared a dividend for the full amount of its distributable reserves to its parent Company, Busy Bees Holdings Limited. The company has been dormant during the year, other than receipt of dividend income received, and it is expected that this Company will eventually be dissolved.

Dividends

The directors have not declared a dividend in the year (2018: 8,268,253).

Going concern

As the Company no longer trades, the directors have prepared the financial statements on a basis other than a going concern. No adjustments arose as a result of ceasing to apply the going concern basis.

Directors

The directors who held office during the year and subsequently were as follows:

S A Irons
M J Randles
M P Muller

Small companies note

In preparing this report, the directors have taken advantage of the small companies exemptions provided by section 415A of the Companies Act 2006.

Approved by the Board of Directors and signed on its behalf by:

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
