3 Share Capital

- 3.1 The share capital of the Company at the date of adoption of these Articles consists of A shares, B Shares, C Shares and D Shares.

- (b) any resolution to put the Company into liquidation

4 Allotment of Shares

- 4.1 The directors have general and unconditional authority to allot (with or without conferring rights of renunciation), grant options over, offer or otherwise deal with or dispose of any unissued shares of the Company to such persons, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the directors may decide but no share may be issued at a discount.
- 4.2 The directors have general and unconditional authority, under section 551 of the Act, to exercise all powers of the Company to allot relevant securities for a period expiring on the fifth anniversary of the date of adoption of these Articles unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in general meeting.
- 4.3 The maximum amount of equity securities which may be allotted under the authority conferred by Article 4.2 is £10,000 at the date of the adoption of these Articles.
- 4.4 By the authority conferred by Article 4.1, the directors may before the authority expires make an offer or agreement which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after it expires and may allot relevant securities in pursuance of that offer or agreement.

5 Rights Attached to Shares

- 5.1 In accordance with section 570 of the Act the pre-emption provisions of section 561 of the Act do not apply to an allotment of the Company's equity securities.
- 5.2 Subject to the provisions of the Act and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares, any share may be issued with such rights or restrictions as the Company may by ordinary resolution determine.
- 5.3 Subject to the provisions of the Act, shares may be issued which are to be redeemed or are to be liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder on such terms and in such manner as may be provided by the Articles.

6 Payment of Commission

The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by the Act. Subject to the provisions of the Act, any such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or by the allotment of fully- or partly-paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other.

7 Trusts Not Recognised

Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and (except as otherwise provided by the Articles or by law) the Company shall not be bound by or recognise any interest in any share except an absolute right to the entirety of that share in the holder.

8 Share Certificates

- 8.1 Every member, upon becoming the holder of any shares, shall be entitled:
- (a) to one certificate for all the shares of each class held by him and thereafter;
 - (b) without payment:
 - (i) upon transferring a part of his holding of shares of any class, to a certificate for the balance of such holding; and
 - (ii) upon conversion of any shares on the Step Down Date, to a certificate for the new holding of shares; and
 - (c) several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment for every certificate after the first of such reasonable sum as the directors may determine

Every certificate shall be signed on behalf of the Company by at least one director and the secretary or by at least two directors or by such other person or persons as may be authorised by the directors for that purpose and shall specify the number, class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up thereon. The Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for shares held jointly by several persons and delivery of a certificate for a share to one joint holder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them.

- 8.2 If a share certificate is defaced, worn-out, lost or destroyed, it may be replaced on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of the expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in investigating evidence, as the directors may determine but otherwise free of charge, and (in the case of defacement or wearing-out) on delivery up of the old certificate.

9 Lien

- 9.1 The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) payable at a fixed time or called in respect of that share. The directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article 9.1 The Company's lien on a share shall extend to any amount payable in respect of it.
- 9.2 The Company may sell in such manner as the directors determine any shares on which the Company has a lien if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within fourteen clear days after notice has been given to the holder of the share or to the person entitled to it in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the holder, demanding payment and stating that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold.
- 9.3 To give effect to a sale pursuant to Article 9.2 the directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold to, or in accordance with, the directions of the purchaser. The title of the transferee to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

- 9.4 The net proceeds of the sale pursuant to Article 9.2, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as is presently payable, and any residue shall (upon surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold and subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

10 Calls on Shares and Forfeiture

- 10.1 Subject to the terms of allotment, the directors may make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares. A call may be required to be paid by instalments. A call may, before receipt by the Company of any sum due thereunder, be revoked in whole or in part and payment of a call may be postponed in whole or part. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made upon him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.
- 10.2 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed.
- 10.3 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.
- 10.4 If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the day it became due and payable until it is paid at the rate fixed by the terms of allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is fixed, at the appropriate rate (as defined by the Act) but the directors may waive payment of the interest wholly or in part.
- 10.5 An amount payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of nominal value or premium or as an instalment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call, and if it is not paid when due all the provisions of the Articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call.
- 10.6 Subject to the terms of allotment, the directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares.
- 10.7 If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable the directors may give to the person from whom it is due not less than fourteen clear days' notice requiring payment of the amount unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued. The notice shall name the place where payment is to be made and shall state that if the notice is not complied with the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
- 10.8 If the notice is not complied with any share in respect of which it was given may, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors and the forfeiture shall include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

- 10.9 Subject to the provisions of the Act, a forfeited share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors determine either to the person who was before the forfeiture the holder or to any other person and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or other disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit. Where for the purposes of its disposal a forfeited share is to be transferred to any person the directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person.
- 10.10 A person any of whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of them and shall surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate for the shares forfeited but shall remain liable to the Company for all moneys which at the date of forfeiture were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of those shares with interest at the rate at which interest was payable on those moneys before the forfeiture or, if no interest was so payable, at the appropriate rate (as defined in the Act) from the date of forfeiture until payment but the directors may waive payment wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.
- 10.11 A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that a share has been forfeited on a specified date shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and the declaration shall (subject to the execution of an instrument of transfer if necessary) constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or disposal of the share.

11 Transfer of Shares

- 11.1 The directors shall register a transfer made in accordance with the provisions of these Articles. The directors shall refuse to register any transfer unless such transfer has been made in accordance with the provisions of the Articles.

12 Obligatory Transfer

- 12.1 If any of the following events occur in relation to a member:
- (a) the member enters into any moratorium, composition or arrangement with its creditors generally or seeks protection from its creditors or is unable to pay its debts or becomes insolvent or bankrupt in accordance with applicable law;
 - (b) an encumbrancer or receiver lawfully takes possession or an administrative receiver or similar insolvency practitioner is appointed over the whole or any part of the undertaking, property or any assets of the member;

- (c) an order is made or resolution is passed or notice is issued convening a meeting for the purposes of passing a resolution or any analogous proceedings are taken for the appointment of an administrator of, or the winding up of, the member, other than a members' voluntary liquidation solely for the purposes of an amalgamation or reconstruction;
- (d) a member attempting to deal with or dispose of any share or any interest in it otherwise than in accordance with Article 13 (Pre-emption rights) or Article 12.1 (Obligatory Transfer); or
- (e) any other event occurs which all the members have agreed in writing will lead to a Transfer Notice being deemed to have been given, then the member shall be deemed to have given a Transfer Notice in accordance with Article 13 in respect of all of the shares held by that member and the Prescribed Price shall be the Deemed Transfer Price.

- 12.2 If any member fails to make any payments it has contracted to make in connection with a subscription for shares, debentures or loan stock in the Company and such default is still unremedied 14 days after notice has been given to such member to remedy it, then that member shall be deemed to have given a Transfer Notice in accordance with Article 13 in respect of all the shares held by that member and the Prescribed Price shall be the sum of £1 in respect of all the shares held by the member. Any transferee shall inherit all the payment obligations in connection with the subscription for shares, debentures and loan stock in the Company with which the relevant member failed to comply.

13 Pre-emption Rights

- 13.1 Before transferring any shares, a Proposing Transferor shall serve a Transfer Notice on the Company. Each member appoints the Company, as from the later of the date of adoption of these Articles and the date such member became a member, as its agent for the sale of shares to any member or members. The Transfer Notice shall state the Prescribed Price unless the Prescribed Price is required by these Articles or the directors to be the Deemed Transfer Price, in which case, forthwith upon receipt or deemed receipt of the relevant Transfer Notice, the Company shall determine the Deemed Transfer Price in accordance with these Articles. The Transfer Notice shall (unless it is a Deemed Transfer Notice) state full details of the proposed transferee or transferees.
- 13.2 A Transfer Notice served under Article 13 shall not be revocable except with the consent of the directors or in accordance with Article 13.7. Deemed Transfer Notices are not revocable.
- 13.3 Within seven days (or, in the case of a Deemed Transfer Notice, 14 days) of service of a Transfer Notice the Company shall offer the Sale Shares to all holders of shares (other than the Proposing Transferor) for purchase at the Prescribed Price. All offers shall be made in writing and every offer shall limit the time (being not less than 30 days and not more than 45 days) within which the offer must be accepted or in default of acceptance shall be deemed to be declined. Holders of shares may offer to purchase no more than such proportion of the Sale Shares as is equal to the proportion of the Company's shares (other than the Sale Shares or any other Shares held by the Proposing Transferor) held by that holder.

- 13.4 If the Company does not receive agreements to purchase all the Sale Shares under the offer made under Article 13.3, the Company shall again offer the balance of the Sale Shares which members have not agreed to purchase to all holders of shares (other than the Proposing Transferor and any holder which did not offer to buy any shares under Article 13.3). Such offer shall be made within seven days of the end of the time limit for acceptance of the offer under Article 13.3 and shall limit the time (being not less than 10 days and not more than 20 days) within which the offer must be acceptable or in default of acceptance shall be deemed to be declined. The Company shall notify such offerees of the identity and number of shares each such offeree has already agreed to purchase under Article 13.3. Offerees may offer to purchase some or all of the Sale Shares so offered. The provision of this Article 13.4 shall not apply after any such further offer has been made.
- 13.5 If holders of shares offer to purchase in aggregate more than the number of Sale Shares, the Sale Shares shall be sold to the holders accepting the offer in proportion (as nearly as may be) to their existing holdings of shares provided that in dividing all the Sale Shares amongst the holders of shares no holder of shares shall be obliged to purchase more Sale Shares than it has offered to purchase.
- 13.6 If the Company shall within the applicable periods for acceptance find a purchaser or purchasers willing to purchase all of the Sale Shares, it shall promptly give notice in writing hereof to the Proposing Transferor. Every such notice shall state the name and address of each purchaser and the number of Sale Shares agreed to be purchased by it.
- 13.7 Within three days of service of a notice under Article 13.4, a Proposing Transferor may withdraw the relevant Transfer Notice (other than in the case of a Deemed Transfer Notice) by notice in writing to the directors.
- 13.8 If the Proposing Transferor does not deliver a notice under Article 13.7, it shall be bound upon payment of the Prescribed Price or the Deemed Transfer Price (as relevant) to transfer such Sale Shares to the respective purchasers thereof and the purchase shall be completed at a place and at a time to be appointed by the directors but in any event not later than 14 days after service of a notice under Article 13.6,
- 13.9 If a Proposing Transferor after having become bound to transfer any shares to a purchaser shall fail to do so, the directors shall authorise some person to execute on behalf of and as attorney for the Proposing Transferor any necessary transfers and shall receive the purchase money, which the directors shall hold on trust for the Proposing Transferor. Upon receipt of the purchase money the directors will enter the name of the purchaser in the register of members of the Company as the holder of the shares. A receipt from the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchaser who shall not be bound to see the application thereof.

- 13.10 If the Company fails to find purchasers for all of the Sale Shares within the applicable period for acceptance the directors shall notify the Proposing Transferor within three days of the expiration of the later of such periods.
- 13.11 Within three months of service of a notice under Article 13.10 the Proposing Transferor may transfer all (but not some) of the Sale Shares to any proposed transferee named in the Transfer Notice by way of bona fide sale at any price per share greater than or equal to the Prescribed Price.
- 13.12 Before registering a transfer made under Article 13.8 or 13.10, the directors may require evidence that such Sale Shares are being transferred by way of a bona fide sale for the consideration stated in the transfer without any deduction, rebate or allowance whatsoever or howsoever made to the purchaser. A statutory declaration by an officer of the Proposing Transferor to that effect shall be deemed to be conclusive evidence for this purpose.
- 13.13 No share and no interest in or rights attaching to any share shall be held by any member as a bare nominee for or sole or disposed of to any person unless a transfer of such share to such person would be made in accordance with the provisions of these Articles. If the foregoing provisions shall be infringed in respect of any shares, such member shall be deemed to have given a Transfer Notice in respect of that number of shares at the Deemed Transfer Price.
- 13.14 For the purpose of determining whether any circumstances have arisen whereby a Transfer Notice ought or is deemed to have been given, the directors may from time to time require any member or any person named as transferee in any transfer lodged for registration to furnish to the Company such information and evidence as the directors may think fit regarding any matter which they may deem relevant to such purpose. Where information or evidence required under this Article is not furnished to the satisfaction of the directors within a reasonable time after request the directors shall be entitled to refuse to register the transfer in question or (in case no transfer is in question) to require by notice in writing that a Transfer Notice be given in respect of the shares concerned.
- 13.15 Where the directors have required a Transfer Notice to be given in respect of any shares and such Transfer Notice is not given within a period of one month, or such longer period as the directors may allow, such Transfer Notice shall be deemed to have been given on such date after the expiration of the said period as the directors may determine. This Article shall not apply to any transfer of shares, the process for such transfer having been commenced or completed under Articles 11, 12 or 12.2.

14 Intra-group Transfer

- 14.1 A shareholder may transfer all or some its shares to a member of its Group on giving written notice to the Company and the other shareholders. No Transfer Notice shall be deliverable and the provisions of Articles 13.1 to 13.15 shall not otherwise apply to any such transfer. Any transferee shall immediately retransfer the shares it has acquired to the transferor (or a member of its Group) if it ceases to be a member of that shareholder's Group.

Transmission of Shares

- 14.2 If a member dies the survivor or survivors where he was a joint holder, and his personal representatives where he was a sole holder or the only survivor of joint holders shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest; but nothing in the Articles shall release the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him.
- 14.3 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as the directors may properly require, elect either to become the holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee. If he elects to become the holder he shall give notice to the Company to that effect. If he elects to have another person registered he shall execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. All the Articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the member and the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred.
- 14.4 A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall have the rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to attend or vote at any meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.

Alteration of Share Capital

- 14.5 The Company may by ordinary resolution:
- (a) issue new shares of such amount as the resolution prescribes;
 - (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
 - (c) subject to the provisions of the Act, sub-divide its shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount and the resolution may determine that, as between the shares resulting from the sub-division, any of them may have any preference or advantage as compared with the others; and
 - (d) cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

14.6 Whenever as a result of a consolidation of shares any members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the directors may, on behalf of those members, sell the shares representing the fractions for the best price reasonably obtainable to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members, and the directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

14.7 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may by special resolution reduce any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account in any way.

15 Purchase of Own Shares

15.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may purchase its own shares (including any redeemable shares) and make a payment in respect of the redemption or purchase of its own shares otherwise than out of distributable profits of the Company or the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares.

16 General Meetings

16.1 The quorum necessary for a general meeting shall be not less than two members owning not less than 75 per cent. of the shares in the Company.

16.2 The directors may call general meetings and, on the requisition of members under the provisions of the Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting in accordance with the provisions with the Ad. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors to call a general meeting, any director or any member may call a general meeting.

16.3 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting of shareholders to, or the non-receipt of a notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

17 Proceedings at General Meetings

17.1 No business shall be transacted at any meeting (including adjourned meetings) unless a quorum is present.

17.2 If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such day and at such time and place as the directors may determine. If at such adjourned meeting such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, one member present in person or by proxy or (being a corporation) by its duly authorised representative shall be a quorum.

17.3 The chairman, if any, of the board of directors or in his absence some other director nominated by the directors shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but if neither the chairman nor such other director (if any) is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman and, if there is only one director present and willing to act, he shall be chairman. The chairman at any general meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

- 17.4 If no director is willing to act as chairman, or if no director is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman.
- 17.5 A director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.
- 17.6 The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
- 17.7 A resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a poll may be demanded:
 - (a) by the chairman; or
 - (b) by any member present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote.

- 17.9 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chairman and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 17.10 A poll shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a place and time for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 17.11 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of 17.12 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place time at which the poll is to be taken.

17.13 A resolution in writing signed or approved by letter, facsimile, telegram or telex by or on behalf of each member who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a general meeting at which he was present shall be as effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several instruments in the like form each executed by or on behalf of one or more members. If a resolution in writing is described as a special resolution, it has effect accordingly. This Article is in addition to, and not limited by the provisions in sections 288 of the Act.

Any Conflict Authorisation shall extend to any actual or possible conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Conflict Situation so authorised.

- (a) where the Relevant Director obtains (other than in his capacity as a director of the Company or as its employee or agent or, if the directors so decide, in any other capacity that would otherwise oblige him to disclose it to the Company) information that is confidential to a third party, he will not be obliged to disclose it to the Company or to use it directly or indirectly for the benefit of the Company or in performing his duties as a director of the Company in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of a duty of confidence owed to that third party;
- (b) the Relevant Director may (but shall be under no obligation to) absent himself from the discussion of, and/or the making of decisions relating to, the relevant matter (whether at any meeting of the directors or otherwise) and be excused from reviewing documents and information prepared by or for the directors to the extent that they relate to that matter; and

- (a) is not obliged to disclose to the Company information that is confidential to a third party obtained by him (other than in his capacity as a director of the Company or as its employee or agent or in any other capacity that would otherwise oblige him to disclose it to the Company) in any situation to which the Member Conflict Authorisation applies, nor to use any such information directly or indirectly for the benefit of the Company or in performing his duties as a director of the Company, in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of a duty of confidence owed to that third party; and
