Notes

(forming part of the financial statements)

1 Accounting policies

The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the Company's financial statements

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable UK accounting standards (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), and under the historical cost convention

Under FRS 1 the Company is exempt from the requirement to prepare a cash flow statement on the grounds of its size

As the Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Connaught Oil & Gas Ltd the Company has taken advantage of the exemption contained in FRS 8 and has therefore not disclosed transactions or balances with entities which form part of this group. The consolidated financial statements of Connaught Oil & Gas Ltd, within which the Company is included, can be obtained from the address given in note 12

The financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, notwithstanding net liabilities of £44,818 (2008 net assets of £27,892) and net current liabilities of £549,196 (2008 £396,044) which the Directors believe to be appropriate for the following reason. The Company is reliant for its working capital on funds provided to it by the Company's ultimate parent undertaking, which has provided the Company with an undertaking that it will, for at least 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements, continue to make available such funds as are needed by the Company and in particular will not seek repayment of the amounts currently made available. This should enable the Company to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future by meeting its liabilities as they fall due for payment. As with any company placing reliance on other group entities for financial support, the Directors acknowledge that there can be no certainty that this support will continue although, at the date of approval of these financial statements, they have no reason to believe that it will not do so. Based on this undertaking the Directors believe that it remains appropriate to prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that would result from the basis of preparation being inappropriate

(a) Exploration Expenditure

The Company accounts for petroleum and natural gas activities in accordance with the full cost method whereby all costs associated with the acquisition of, exploration for and development of petroleum and natural gas reserves are capitalized and charged to earnings as set out below. Such costs include lease acquisition costs, geological and geophysical costs, carrying charges of non-producing properties, costs of drilling both productive and non-productive wells, tangible production equipment costs, and general and administrative costs directly related to, and necessary to, exploration and development activities

All costs relating to licence and data acquisition, geological and geophysical activity and exploration and appraisal drilling are initially capitalized as intangible oil and gas assets pending determination of the commercial potential of the relevant oil and gas properties

If prospects are subsequently deemed to be unsuccessful on completion of evaluation, the associated costs are charged to the profit and loss account in the period in which that determination is made. If the prospects are deemed to be commercially viable, such costs are transferred to tangible oil and gas assets. The status of such prospects is reviewed regularly by the Directors

In applying the full cost method, petroleum and natural gas assets are evaluated at least annually to determine whether the costs are recoverable and do not exceed the fair value of the properties. The costs are assessed to be recoverable if the sum of the undiscounted cash flows expected from the future production of proved reserves and the lower of cost and market of unproved properties exceed the carrying amount of the petroleum and natural gas properties

If the carrying amount is not assessed to be recoverable, an impairment loss is recognized to the extent that the carrying amount exceeds the sum of the discounted cash flows expected from the future production of proved and probable reserves and the lower of cost or market of unproved properties. Cash flows are based on third party quoted forward prices, adjusted for transportation and quality differentials. The Company's risk-free interest rate is used to arrive at the net present value of the future cash flows. Any impairment loss recorded is included in depletion and depreciation.

(b) Taxation

The charge for taxation is based on the loss for the year and takes into account taxation deferred because of timing differences between the treatment of certain items for taxation and accounting purposes.

Deferred tax is recognised, without discounting, in respect of all timing differences between the treatment of certain items for taxation and accounting purposes which have arisen but not reversed by the balance sheet date, except as otherwise required by FRS 19.

(c) Foreign currencies

Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded using the rate of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction or, if hedged forward, at the rate of exchange under the related forward currency contract. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the contracted rate or the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date and the gains or losses on translation are included in the profit and loss account.
