Surrey Hills Society

The trustees, who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act, present their report with the financial statements of the charity of the year ended 31 March 2020.

The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice, applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) effective 1 January 2015.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and Aims

The Society seeks to promote, enhance and conserve the physical and natural environment and its natural beauty around the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The Surrey Hills Society is an independent charity promoting the positive enjoyment and care of the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty for the benefit of those who live, work in or visit the area. The Society encourages people to explore and learn about the special qualities and distinctiveness of the area which is recognised as being of unique value and needs to be nurtured for the benefit of future generations to enjoy. The Surrey Hills Society is dedicated to the protection and enhancement of this outstanding and natural landscape.

The Society's aims and roles are:

- 1 Creating greater awareness and understanding of the Surrey Hills through education, publicity and events
- 2 Providing activities for members and supporters of the Society, including walks, talks, social events, advice, communications for (and with) members
- 3 Promoting and championing farming, forestry and local industries, including tourism, and raising awareness of local produce and crafts
- 4 Protecting and improving facilities for recreational use of the area
- 5 Encouraging conservation alongside the improvement of the amenities and features which make the Surrey Hills special
- 6 Influencing regional and local authorities, seeing high standards of planning so as to protect and enhance the landscape and character of the Surrey Hills.

We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commissions' general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aims and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees now consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives of the Society.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

2019-20 has been another successful year for the Society, although just towards the end we had to cancel our last three events in March due to COVID-19. Membership has remained stable with a dedicated group of more than 60 active volunteers contributing almost 5000 volunteer hours to support the Society.

Society volunteers promote the special protected landscape of the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in many different ways, ranging from:

- Running events to educate our members and residents about the area
- Leading free walks across the county
- Supporting and promoting the work of other related charities
- Manning our stall at local shows across the county, handing out free walks leaflets and showcasing the special attractions of the area
- Giving talks to other groups and organisations

Our volunteers share their passion for everything to do with the Surrey Hills – from its wonderful flora and fauna and rare habitats to its unique culture and heritage, as well as its leisure opportunities. They also collaborate with other organisations across the Surrey Hills to raise funds for agreed worthwhile projects within the area, which benefits both wildlife and the residents of Surrey.

Last year we reported that in November 2018 we had been nominated for the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service ("QAVS"). In June 2019 we were absolutely delighted to be notified that we had been chosen to receive this prestigious award, which is the highest award given to local volunteer groups across the UK to recognise outstanding work done in their own communities. The QAVS is the equivalent of an MBE for volunteer groups. A small number of the award presentations are carried out by members of the Royal Family and it was a huge honour to be told that Prince Edward, Earl of Wessex, would make the presentation. We then had to find a venue and create suitable displays to support the event. With great support from the Friends of Albury Old Saxon Church, the Albury Estate and many others we were able to mount an impressive display for the Earl's visit. It was a cold but bright day on 6th November when we welcomed the Earl to the Albury Old Saxon Church. The Earl certainly appeared to enjoy himself – he stayed significantly longer than his schedule suggested and talked with most of the 60 invited volunteers.

In addition to the presentation in November, our Vice-President, Ken Bare, and his wife attended a Buckingham Palace Garden Party as the Society's representative and we were also pleased to receive a certificate from Mole Valley District Council at a full meeting of Council in recognition of our QAVS award and the work done by the Society.

In the previous year we had several important celebrations and this year preparations for the QAVS presentation again consumed a great deal of time, but the Society continued to put on our usual programme of events and there were 54 events that took place during the accounting period compared to 33 in the previous accounting period. We have particularly concentrated on developing partnerships with other like-minded organisations during the year. The Arts and Crafts Movement in Surrey (ACMS) relationship has been especially fruitful, with our members being given the opportunity to attend some of their lectures and events. At our 2019 AGM we were pleased to welcome their Chairman, Carolyn Smith, and Secretary, Denise Todd, who gave short presentations and Charles Gillespie from ACMS has joined our Events Committee.

We have been very keen to develop our already close relationship with the other members of the Surrey Hills Family – Surrey Hills Trust Fund, Surrey Hills Enterprises and Surrey Hills Arts. We have been particularly involved with promoting the Trust Fund's "Into the Wild" initiative that seeks to encourage young people into the countryside and to emphasise the therapeutic benefits of nature. This formed the principal theme for the Surrey Hills Symposium on 27th November 2019 at the University of Surrey, which was organised with the assistance of our volunteers, and attended by over 300 people.

Some of our most successful events have included visits to Surrey Hills Enterprises members such as Plant Passion and the Surrey Copper Distillery. We also enjoyed an excellent visit to the Heathland Artworks Exhibition at Farnham Heath Nature Reserve organised by Surrey Hills Arts and have supported the campaign for the latest sculptural bench, which has been designed by local sculptor, Will Nash, and is to be installed near Newlands Corner as part of the Inspiring Views project.

Surrey Wildlife Trust led an excellent walk on Pirbright and Ash Ranges, where members heard about the conservation work being carried out on our rare heathland and we intend to do similar events in the future. Other events that focussed on the natural world included a tree and fungi identification walk and a talk on bee conservation.

Our regular walks on the first Sunday of each month continued throughout the period as well as some of our popular perennials. Highlights included our walk from Belmont School, which is an Arts and Crafts gem, with mulled wine and mince pies provided by the headmistress afterwards. Then there was the best attended walk of all with over 50 attendees – Walk off your Christmas Pudding! We also explored the Deepdene Trail and Betchworth Castle and had a fabulous day exploring the Victorian graves and mausoleums of Brookwood Cemetery, as well as the Brookwood military cemetery maintained by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission in the afternoon.

Our partnership with Guildford Walkfest has been of especial note, with the Society leading 12 walks in September 2019. A new initiative was to lead a charitable walk from Guildford to Denbies in Dorking along the North Downs Way in conjunction with Guildford Street Angels. This raised the incredible sum of £3019 for the Street Angels – a worthwhile day! We also supported the Farnham Walking Festival in May by leading a walk along the North Downs Way from Farnham to Chilworth.

Another new partnership was with the Investec Music Festival. We jointly promoted a walk from Shere to Albury Old Saxon Church, where we were serenaded by soprano, Kim Collins, and tenor, Stephen Petch before walking back along the Tillingbourne Valley. This is another format that we intend to continue.

Variety is one of the most important elements that our Event's Committee strive to achieve.

During the year we have visited a number of gardens including Ramster, Pratsham Grange, and the wonderful community garden run entirely by volunteers, Grace and Flavour in West Horsley. Historical events included a visit to the 630-year-old Wanborough Barn, and an excellent talk by Guildford Remembrancer, Matthew Alexander, on the Guildford Wool Trade. Guildford featured again when we had a tour that told the stories of actors, artists and authors closely associated with Guildford, with actors from the Town Guides bringing the stories vividly to life. Those interested in crafts were able to make Christmas wreaths with our Vice-President, Chris Howard or visit Grayshott Pottery, whilst wine buffs had the opportunity to sample the award-winning wines of High Clandon Estate. Another popular activity continues to be our village and town days, which this year included trips to East Clandon, Compton, Cranleigh, Newdigate, Godalming, and Farnham.

The Surrey Hills landscape is particularly dependant on our agricultural community. We were therefore extremely grateful to Bill and Bridget Biddell, who hosted Chairman's day at the wonderful Hampton Estate and to learn about the importance of diversity in modern day farming. During the course of the day we learnt about their forestry and logging operations, their hop growing business and their passion about conserving biodiversity, whilst raising their pasture fed pedigree Sussex cattle. During the year, we also visited Manor Farm, Wotton, which is a traditional mixed farm with a Belted Galloway suckler herd and enjoyed a trip to the Mane Chance Sanctuary, which rescues and rehabilitates abandoned and old horses.

In addition to our crowded events calendar, we have attended 11 shows and external events across the county and have given 8 talks to external groups. We have continued to fund the "Into the Surrey Hills" badge that has been made available to Girlguiding units across Surrey. It has been taken up with enthusiasm and nearly 1,000 badges and worksheets have been distributed to groups of all ages from five to fifteen. A reprint is now in hand.

Due to the impact of Coronavirus the Trustees decided to make limited charitable donations this year. We again made a donation in support of the Surrey Wildlife Trust Youth Summit. Unfortunately, this worthwhile day designed to encourage 16-18 year olds to become involved in understanding the natural world and the pressures that exist in relation to biodiversity and climate change had to be postponed because of coronavirus, but it will be resurrected when circumstances permit. We continue to support the production of Rail to Ramble walks and a leaflet incorporating a new walk is due to be produced shortly.

We continue to produce our 8-page full colour newsletter with a print run of 3500 copies. These are distributed to members, Surrey's library network, all Borough & District councillors, a number of local business outlets and handed out at all the shows, events and talks, which we attend. It is with great sadness that I have to report the death of our former newsletter sponsor Anthony Wakefield in September 2020. He was a huge supporter of the Society. Anthony will be sadly missed, and our thoughts are with his family.

Late in 2019, the Society increased its focus on social media. This has been hugely successful and already we are reaching thousands of people, many of whom have a younger age profile than our normal audience, through Instagram, Twitter and Facebook.

Finally, this report would not be complete, at the time of writing in October 2020, without mention of the Coronavirus pandemic that has ravaged the World. As a result of the Government lockdown our last three planned events during the accounting period were cancelled and all events from April to July 2020 did not go ahead. It was also no longer practicable to publish a newsletter in hardcopy. Since August we have been able to get started again and outdoor events are now taking place. As noted elsewhere in this annual report, the trustees continue to monitor the Society's activities to ensure that we are fully compliant with official guidance and best practice. One positive consequence of the crisis is that this year we have been publishing e-newsletters and these have been so successful that we intend to continue them even though we hope to continue printing hardcopy newsletters each year.

This report started by referring to our many volunteers. The trustees would like to extend our thanks to all that our volunteers do for the Society. Writing this report gives pause to reflect on just how much we have done during another busy year and the contribution that everyone makes to our beautiful Surrey Hills is, quite simply, outstanding!

FINANCIAL REVIEW

As in previous years, the Society's work is funded by membership subscriptions, donations and grants received for specific purposes. Anthony Wakefield and Co, a Dorking-based insurance broker has provided sponsorship of our periodic newsletter and we offer them our thanks for this very welcome support.

Overall the Society's financial position is strong with net reserves of £38,225 at 31 March 2020. The Trustees are confident that the Charity has appropriate reserves and will be able to operate as a going concern over the next twelve month period.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing Document

The Charity is controlled by its governing document and constitutes a company limited by guarantee as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Recruitment and Appointment of New Trustees

The Trustees have received great support and encouragement from the Surrey Hills Board. They have also been fortunate to have help from a number of hardworking volunteers that have formed the various committees that do so much to run the day to day affairs of the Society. The directors of the company are also the charity trustees for the purposes of charity law and under the company's Articles. Trustees are initially appointed to the trustee board and proposed for election at the AGM following their appointment. One third of the trustees retire by rotation at the AGM each year. If the charity is unable to fill the vacancy of a retiring trustee, the trustee may be re-appointed.

Management Structure

The trustees have delegated day to day management of the Society to various committees which meet regularly.

Risk Management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error. The trustees have the responsibility for identifying and assessing the Society's key risks and formally prepares a risk register which is presented to the Board of Trustees annually, along with recommended mitigating actions.

Covid – 19 has had a significant impact on the Society's programme of events, which has occurred mainly in the period following that covered by this annual return. The national lockdown was implemented on March 23rd 2020 which was just 8 days prior to the Society's accounting year end so the impact on the year under review was minimal.

The Trustees continue to monitor the financial impact on the Society, which, thus far, has been minimal in net terms. We have lost event income but have, consequently incurred no expenditure in event organisation. As events are priced only to make a minimal financial surplus the overall financial impact has been insignificant. The Society has significant reserves that enable the Trustees to be confident that the Society will weather the pandemic without serious consequences. The Trustees are also pleased to record that our membership has remained loyal and we have lost few members as a result of the lack of our usual range of events.

The Trustees will, at all times, ensure that the Society follows government guidance and best practice and will adapt our activities in light of changing circumstances. It is worth noting that our members show a keen interest in participating in those events we now have in our schedule, which is evidence of their continuing support for what we are doing as well as their enthusiasm to recommence normal activity as far as is possible at the present time.

2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1.ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the U.K. and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102). The charitable company is a public benefit entity for the purposes of FRS 102 and a registered charity established as a company under guarantee Practice applicable to charities who prepare their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standards in the U.K and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102, Charities SORP), the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011. Financial Reporting Standard 102 - reduced disclosure exemptions.

The charity has taken advantage of the following disclosure exemptions in preparing these financial statements, as permitted by FRS 102.

- the requirements of Section 7 Statement of Cash Flows

Going Concern

The Trustees have assessed whether the use of the going concern basis is appropriate and have considered possible events or conditions that might cast significant doubt on the ability of the charitable company to continue as a going concern. The Trustees have made this assessment for a period of at least one year from the date of the approval of the financial statements. In particular, the Trustees have considered the charitable company's forecasts and projections and have taken account of pressures on donation income. After making enquiries the Trustees have concluded that there is a reasonable expectation that the charitable company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. The charitable company therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs by category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with use of resources.

Tangible Fixed Assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life

Plant and Machinery	20% on cost

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow - moving items.

Taxation

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanations of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Areas of Judgement

In the view of the trustees, in applying the accounting policies adopted, no judgements were required that have a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements nor do any estimates or assumptions carry a significant risk of material adjustment in the next financial year.

Financial Instruments

Cash and Cash Equivalents include cash at bank and in hand and short term deposits with a maturity date of three months or less
