(a) by written resolution (which may consist of one or more documents in like form each signed by one or more Shareholders) recording the relevant decision; or

(b) all Shareholders present in person or by proxy at a meeting of the Shareholders duly convened.

THE BOARD AND DIRECTOR APPOINTMENTS

 - (a) The minimum number of appointed Directors of the Company shall not be less than one.
 - (b) The number of Directors as appointed from time to time shall constitute the Board of the Company.
 - (c) The Company by way of the passing of an Ordinary Resolution may determine the maximum number of Directors that may be appointed. Unless and until such time as otherwise determined, there shall be no maximum number.
 - (d) No Director of the Company shall be required to retire by rotation.

- (e) Unless and until so nominated by the Board, no person shall be deemed to be eligible to be appointed to the position of Director of the Company unless and until not less than fourteen nor more than thirty five clear calendar days have elapsed before the date of holding any General Meeting of the Company and there shall have been lodged with the Company Secretary at the registered office of the Company notice in writing by a Shareholder enabled to attend and vote at any such General Meeting of his intention to propose any such person for election as a Director of the Company and a further notice in writing signed by the person proposed for election as a Director of his consent to be appointed as such a Director.
- (f) The Board shall at all times (and until such time as otherwise determined by the Company) retain the power to appoint any person to the position of Director from time to time. Such power shall be exercisable for the purpose of either appointing a further Director of the Company to the Board or in order to fill any casual vacancy that may arise from time to time on the Board. Such power is exercisable without prejudice in any respect to the power of the Company in General Meeting to elect a person so nominated to be a Director of the Company.
- (g) Regulations 64 and 73 to 80 (inclusive) in Table A shall not apply to the Company.

SHARE ALLOTMENTS AND INCREASE OF AUTHORISED CAPITAL

- 3. (a) The share capital of the Company is £286250 divided into 286250 ordinary shares of £1 each ("Shares"). The maximum amount of Shares or Relevant Securities which the Company may allot shall not exceed the registered authorised share capital, being the unissued share capital of the Company as at the date of incorporation, or such further increase as the Company may have approved from time to time by Unanimous Resolution.
- (b) The authorised share capital may be increased by way of passing of an Unanimous Resolution by the Company by such sum divided into such class of shares or securities as the resolution shall determine.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of Article 3(d), the Directors are generally and unconditionally authorised for the purpose of section 80 of the Companies Act to exercise any power of the Company to:
 - (i) offer, allot or grant rights to subscribe for; or
 - (ii) convert securities into; or
 - (iii) otherwise deal in, or dispose of,any Shares (or any other Relevant Securities in the Company) to any person, at any time and subject to any terms and conditions as the Directors think proper. Such authority of the Board of Directors to allot Shares and deal with the Shares within the authorised share capital of the Company may only be renewed, revoked or varied by Company by way of the passing of an Unanimous Resolution.
- (d) The authority referred to in Article 3(c):
 - (i) shall be limited to a maximum nominal amount of Shares equal to the amount of the authorised but unissued share capital of the Company immediately following the date on which these Articles are adopted;

- (ii) shall only apply insofar as such issue and allotment of Relevant Securities would not result in more than 5 (five) persons being Shareholders;
 - (iii) shall only apply insofar as the Company has not by Unanimous Resolution renewed, waived or revoked it; and
 - (iv) may only be exercised for a period of 2 (two) months commencing on the date on which these Articles are adopted, save that the Directors may make an offer or agreement which would, or might, require Relevant Securities to be allotted after the expiry of such authority (and the Directors may allot relevant securities in pursuance of an offer or agreement as if such authority had not expired).
- (e) Any application for an allotment of shares to be issued shall be made in writing and addressed to the Company at its registered office address.
 - (f) The Board may not issue any Shares which did not form part of the original authorised capital of the Company on incorporation, except with the sanction of the Shareholders by way of a Unanimous Resolution.
 - (g) Pursuant to the provisions of S.91 (1) of the Companies Act, the authority of the Board is conferred as if sections 89(1) and 90 (1) to (6) (inclusive), are not to apply to the Company.
 - (h) Whensoever any person or body is acquiring or proposes to acquire any shares comprised in the capital of the Company or other securities, then no financial assistance of whatever nature whatsoever shall be given by the Company for any such purpose as is specified in Section 151 of the Companies Act, except as otherwise permitted by the Companies Act or any subsequent statutory modification.
 - (i) If the share capital of the Company is increased beyond the existing amount of the authorised share capital then the authority of the Board of Directors to allot and deal with such shares shall at all times be renewed by the Company by Unanimous Resolution (unless dispensed with by the provisions of S.80A of the Companies Act).
 - (j) Regulation 8 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 4. (a) Any person or corporate body becoming a Shareholder of the Company by way of becoming the holder of any shares in the capital of the Company shall be entitled to be issued with, no later than a period of two calendar months after lodgement and approval of a stamped stock transfer form or by way of a completed allotment, to receive one share certificate for all of his shares of each class or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon the payment of such sum as the Board may determine shall be reasonable after each first certificate.
- (b) No share transfer shall be approved by the Board or recorded in the register of Shareholders until such time as a stamped stock transfer form is presented to the Company.
- (c) A share certificate shall only be required to be sealed when the Company has formally adopted a seal as the common seal of the Company. Regulation 6 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

5. (a) Each Director of the Company shall be entitled to receive notice of every meeting of Directors. Notice of such meeting of the Directors shall be given to each Director (including every Alternate Director) at any address supplied by him to the Company (including by way of electronic communication under the procedure and definition of Article 15(c)), for such purpose whether or not he is present within the United Kingdom, provided that any Director shall have the power to waive notice of any such meeting either prospectively or retrospectively and if he does so it shall not affect the validity of such meeting that the required notice was not given to him.
- (b) A meeting of the Directors may be convened and held at any location in any jurisdiction anywhere in the World.
- (c) Where a minimum of two Directors are appointed to the Board, a quorum for the transaction of any and all such business at a meeting of the Directors of the Company shall be two Directors physically present. In counting a quorum, an alternate Director present shall be counted as part of the quorum, but only in the absence of his appointor. Whensoever the number of appointed Directors is no greater than one, then a sole Director shall be empowered to exercise all and any such powers of the Company deemed to be vested in the Board of Directors of the Company. Regulation 89 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.
- (d) The Chairman shall have a second or casting vote in the case of an equality of votes which may only be exercised by him to maintain the status quo. Regulation 88 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.
- (e) The Directors may appoint one of their number to the position of Managing Director or such other executive position as they may determine.
- (f) The Directors shall be empowered to appoint a committee of Directors the powers, constitution and purpose of which shall be determined by a resolution at meeting of the directors of the Company at which a quorum shall be present. Such committee may be permanent or temporary but the number of Directors on such committee shall not be less than two and Regulation 72 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.
- (g) A Director shall be entitled to vote in regard to any contract or arrangement in which he is interested or on any such like matter arising thereout provided that he declares his interest pursuant to S. 175, Companies Act, 2006, and if he votes on any such matter or related matter then his vote shall be counted and his presence at the meeting shall be counted in estimating a quorum in considering any such arrangement or contract whether at a meeting of the Directors or committee of the directors. The declaration of any interest by a Director in any contract or arrangement shall be formally recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- (h) Regulations 94 to 97 (inclusive) of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

DIRECTORS DUTIES OF OFFICE

6. A Director of the Company (including every appointed alternate Director) shall be subject to the general duties as specified in S.171 - 177, Companies Act, 2006, which shall at all times be owed by every Director to the Company.
7. Every appointed Director shall at all times in the exercise of the powers and duties of his office and otherwise: -

- (a) Act within the powers of the registered constitution of the Company and only exercise such powers for the true purpose for which they have been conferred upon him.
- (b) Act in good faith with the object of promoting the furtherance and success of the Company for the benefit of its Shareholders, employees, the communities in which it is established and in which it operates, and to further good relations between its suppliers and customers, to act reasonably and fairly between Shareholders and to promote the reputation, success and understanding of the company.
- (c) Exercise independent judgement where appropriate.
- (d) Exercise at all times reasonable care, skill and diligence in the exercise of the powers of his office.
- (e) Avoid any direct or indirect conflict of interest with the interests of the Company, except where such transaction or arrangement with the Company which has been authorised following declaration of interest made to the Board under article 5. (g) provided that such authorisation and approval is made by a majority of the Board without the vote of the Director(s) subject of the declared interest and without counting him in declaring a quorum for a meeting of the Board or any other such interested Director.
- (f) Refuse any direct or indirect benefits arising or resulting from (whether directly or indirectly) his position as a Director (or otherwise) or in relation to any other position or office held by him within the Company from a third or other party and which would be conferred as a result of him agreeing, undertaking, assisting, facilitating or omitting to undertake any action as a Director which may normally be expected of him in the normal course of his duties except where such benefit cannot reasonably be regarded as having derived from his position or office.
- (g) Declare the nature and extent of any interest in any proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company and any such declaration may be made by way of written notice to the Board of Directors, at a meeting of the Board or by way of written notice under S. 184, 2006 Act or by way of general notice under S.185, 2006 Act before any such transaction is entered into.
- (i) Such notice need not be given where a Director is not aware or have knowledge of any such proposed transaction or arrangement, where no conflict of interest has arisen, where the Board is already aware of any such proposed transaction or arrangement or where such transaction or arrangement relates to his terms or conditions of service.
- (i) In the event that any such declaration is inaccurate or incomplete, or becomes so by way of the change and nature of events, then a further declaration must be made based upon the changed circumstances.

8 The Company has been established in order to carry on the Business, and in the course thereof for the purpose of undertaking Development Projects, and Film Projects through participating in the Partnership.

9 The Company shall not except with Unanimous Resolution:

- (a) alter the objects contained in its memorandum of association or alter these Articles of Association of the Company for any purpose including without limitation varying the rights attaching to Shares or effecting any increase, reduction, sub-division, cancellation, purchase or redemption of the capital or any allotment or issue of shares of the Company; or

- (b) change the nature or scope of the Business of the Company or pass any resolution or engage in any other matter which represents a substantial change in the nature of the Business of the Company or in the manner in which the Business is conducted; or
- (c) agree to any material change to the Partnership Agreement; or
- (d) sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of its undertaking, property, assets or any subsidiary, or any interest therein or contract to do so whether or not for valuable consideration otherwise than in the course of the Company's ordinary business for the time being (and for the avoidance of doubt a disposal by the Partnership of all or part of its undertaking, property, assets or any interest therein in accordance with the Partnership Agreement shall be deemed to be in the course of the Company's ordinary business); or
- (e) wind up the Company or convene a meeting of its creditors or appoint a liquidator, manager, receiver, administrator, administrative receiver or similar officer in respect of the Company's assets or undertaking; or
- (f) give any guarantee, make any payment or incur any obligation or act as surety otherwise than in connection with the Company's ordinary Business for the time being (and for the avoidance of doubt such matters undertaken by the Partnership in accordance with the Partnership Agreement shall be deemed to be in the course of the Company's ordinary business); or
- (g) lend or agree to lend, grant any credit or make any advance to any person otherwise than in the ordinary course of the Business of the Company (and for the avoidance of doubt contributions by the Company to the capital of the Partnership in accordance with the Partnership Agreement shall be deemed to be in the course of the Company's ordinary business); or
- (h) borrow any money in excess of any limits agreed between the Shareholders, or create any mortgage, debenture, pledge, lien or other encumbrances over the undertaking or assets of the Company, or factor, assign, discount or otherwise dispose of any book debts or other debts of the Company (and for the avoidance of doubt borrowings by, and securities given by, the Partnership in accordance with the Partnership Agreement shall be deemed to be in the course of the Company's ordinary business); or
- (i) allot Relevant Securities to more than 5 persons or such that the value of the Company's gross assets exceed £7 million immediately before the Relevant Securities are issued and £8 million immediately afterwards.

10 Unless otherwise agreed by Unanimous Resolution, all approvals required of Shareholders of matters arising in the ordinary course of the Business shall be by Ordinary Resolution including without limitation any approval required of Shareholders of the Company with regard to any Partnership Asset Sale.

11 For the avoidance of doubt, the directors are, save where the sanction or direction of Shareholders by Unanimous Resolution (as the case may be) is expressly required under these Articles, empowered (whether expressly or impliedly) to exercise in pursuance of its objects and powers all of the powers of the Company in relation to the Company's rights and obligations as a member of the Partnership including (without limitation):

- (a) Attending in person or by proxy at meetings of the Partnership;
- (b) Approving or disapproving the selection by the Partnership of the Film Project (as such term is defined under the Partnership Agreement) to be undertaken by the Partnership;
- (c) Approving or disapproving proposed Film Projects and the principal form, terms and provisions of Transaction Documents to be entered into in respect of the Film Project pursuant to the Partnership Agreement;
- (d) Approving or disapproving the authorisation of the Executive Partner for and on behalf of the Partnership to negotiate, agree, approve, execute and deliver the Transaction Documents, or any of them, on behalf of the Partnership and of any other documents required to be executed, in the ordinary course of business in connection with the undertaking by the Partnership of the Film Project;
- (e) Approving or disapproving the provision by the Partnership of Partner Loan Security, and Option Security (as such terms are defined under the Partnership Agreement), and the authorisation of the Executive Partner on behalf of the Partnership to take or authorise any action required, and to agree, approve, execute and deliver the forms and terms of any documents required to be executed, in connection therewith;
- (f) Approving or disapproving any proposed Partnership Asset Sale pursuant to the terms of the Transaction Documents; and
- (g) taking any action and to execute, seal and deliver or otherwise perfect any instrument or document which the directors may consider to be necessary or desirable to in relation to the Company's rights and obligations as a member of the Partnership.

- 12 Save as expressly provided in these Articles, all the provisions of the Companies Acts or Table A, as to the requirement for a sanction or direction by Shareholders by a special resolution or ordinary resolution shall mutatis mutandis apply.

APPOINTMENT OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

13. (a) An appointed Director of the Company shall be entitled to appoint an alternate director in order to attend and vote at any meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the Directors at which the appointing Director is unable to attend. Such alternate Director may represent more than one director but in determining a quorum present at any meeting of the Directors shall only be counted as a single Director but nevertheless shall be entitled to cast one vote for each of the Directors for whom he is appointed as an alternate Director.
- (b) The appointment of an alternate Director shall be approved by the Board of Directors prior to an alternate director's appointment being effective and to him taking up any such duties and he shall not be entitled to any remuneration other than the reimbursement of his reasonable expenses.
- (c) Regulations 65 to 66 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.

RIGHT OF INDEMNITY OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND AUDITORS

14. (a) The Directors and the Company shall be authorised and empowered to take out, purchase and maintain indemnity insurance or insurances to cover any future potential liability referred to in Section 309(6) of the Companies Act of any of the appointed Directors and officers of the Company (who may not necessarily be a Director of the Company) or of any Associated Company (as defined) in addition to the appointed Auditor of the Company.
- (b) All of the appointed Director's, officers and the Auditor of the Company shall be entitled at all times to be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all and any liabilities, losses, debts, charges and expenses incurred and sustained by him as a result of any liability incurred in the performance of any duties of his office, (whether such liability is incurred in civil or criminal law), in defending any proceedings brought against him of which he is acquitted or judgement given in his favour, or in relating to any application under which relief is granted to him from any liability by any Court or recognised tribunal having sufficient authority to do so.
- (c) The term "Liability" for the purpose of this Article shall mean any and all such liability incurred by any person being a Director, officer or Auditor (including any breach or failure of duty, negligence, breach of trust or any other default in relation to the Company or an Associated Company) in the course of him carrying out and executing his duties, employment or exercising the powers of his office on behalf of the Company.
- (d) Regulation 118 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

PROCEDURE AND RESOLUTIONS OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 15 (a) All meetings duly convened and held by the Company (other than the Annual General Meeting) shall be referred to as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company. Regulation 38 of Table A shall apply accordingly.
- (b) Any notice issued by the Company convening any such General Meeting shall comply with Section 372(3) of the Companies Act thereby notifying Shareholders of their rights to appoint proxies at any such meeting. All and any other notices and communications relating to any General Meeting of the Company and which any Shareholder is entitled to receive shall also be sent to the appointed Auditors or Accountants for the time being of the Company.
- (c) Provided that a Shareholder has given prior consent to the Company in writing and provided an effective and correct address to which such notice may be sent, then the Company shall be empowered to give notice communicated to him by a legible form of electronic transmission, being all and any form of electrical or electronic communication whether by electric, electro - magnetic, electro - optical or any other like or similar method of transmission and in the event that any such communication is made by such method, notice shall be deemed to have been served on the Shareholder on either the date that such electronic communication was effected or on the actual date that it was physically delivered to the Shareholder, whichever date shall be the earliest. Whensoever any such notice is communicated by electronic transmission, the provisions of Regulation 115 in Table A shall not apply and Regulations 112 to 116 shall be modified accordingly.
- (d) The Company shall not transact any business at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present and a quorum shall comprise of two persons entitled to attend and vote upon the business to be transacted, each such person being an actual Shareholder of the Company or a proxy for a Shareholder or a duly authorised representative of a corporation Shareholder. If such a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time set for any such adjourned meeting then, notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 41 of Table A, the meeting may be dissolved thereafter.

- (e) Whensoever the Company has only a single Shareholder, then a quorum shall be constituted by that sole Shareholder being present either in person, in person as a voting proxy for another Shareholder or by means of a proxy vote lodged with the company prior to the meeting. In the case of another Company being a sole Shareholder, attendance by a duly authorised person of that Company shall be deemed to be a quorum. Regulations 40 and 50 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.
- (f) All and any decisions taken by a single Shareholder in a General Meeting of the Company or by way of a written resolution shall be deemed to be effective and all and any such decisions so made shall be recorded in writing and entered into and maintained in the minute book of the Company, being the dedicated book held and maintained by the Company for such purpose.
- (g) No resolution may be passed if such resolution requires the casting vote of the Chairman who shall not exercise such vote other than to maintain the status quo. Regulation 50 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.
- (h) If any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted or which might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the resolution unless it is pointed out at the same meeting and not, in that case, unless in the opinion of the Chairman the error is of a sufficient magnitude as to vitiate the resolution.
- (i) On a show of hands every Shareholder being an individual and present in person or by proxy or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative then (unless he is himself a Shareholder entitled to vote) then every person attending as a Shareholder or a proxy shall have one vote on a show of hands and one vote on a poll (subject to any restrictions attaching to the share class).
- (j) All original signed notices of meeting and other papers relevant to the convening and proceedings of such meetings shall be held and maintained with the statutory books of the Company.

REGISTRATION OF TRANSFERS OF SHARES

- 16. (a) Any proposed transfer of shares, stock or debentures in the capital of the Company shall be presented on the prescribed form, be correctly executed and shall have the appropriate stamping duty paid thereon prior to presentation to the Company, together with any share certificate for cancellation or an appropriate form of indemnity. No more than one class of share shall be transferred on each prescribed form.
- (b) Subject to Article 16(c), the Directors shall have absolute discretion to decline to register the proposed transfer of any shares in the capital of the Company without being required to give any reason or explanation thereof (and shall decline any such proposed transfer where such transfer is not presented on the appropriate stock transfer form with the correct stamp duty properly paid or lacking the original share certificate or form of indemnity) and shall further be entitled to decline to give any reason or explanation thereof on any formal request for such reason being received. Notice of any refusal to register any such proposed transfer shall be sent to both the transferee at the address recorded in the register of Shareholders and the address of any presenter of such documents of transfer within one month after the date upon which the documents of transfer were presented to the Company.

- (c) The provisions of Article 16(b) shall not apply, nor shall they be enforceable by the Company, its directors or any Shareholder of the Company if the transferee is a person or entity to whom such shares have been charged by way of security and the proposed transfer is to be carried out pursuant to the powers granted under the document creating such security interest. A certificate from the transferee that the shares were so charged and the transfer is to be carried out pursuant to such power of sale shall be conclusive evidence of such facts.
- (d) Regulations 23, 24 & 25 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.

ADOPTION OF COMPANY SEAL

- 17. (a) The Company may adopt a seal which shall then be deemed to be the common seal of the Company.
- (b) A seal once formally adopted may only be used under the authority of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board appointed, authorised and empowered by it to execute all and any such documentation requiring such use of the seal on behalf of the Company. Every document to which the seal is so affixed shall be signed by at least one Director and the Company Secretary or two Directors of the Company, unless the Board at a meeting of the Directors shall have otherwise determined. The obligation to seal share certificates shall not apply if the Company has not adopted a seal.
- (c) The Company shall be entitled to have an Official Seal for use abroad in a foreign territory or jurisdiction. Such power to use the seal shall be vested in the Board of Directors who may authorise any person within a foreign jurisdiction to use the seal on behalf of the Company in accordance with the requirements of S.39 of the Companies Act.
- (d) Regulation 101 of Table A shall not apply to the Company and Regulation 6 shall be modified accordingly.

DIRECTORS & OFFICERS PENSIONS GRATUITIES AND ALLOWANCES

- 18. Provided that any Director or Directors of the Company declares any interest pursuant to article 5(g) (whereupon such declaration shall be recorded in the minutes), he shall be entitled to be counted as part of the quorum and to vote and benefit from the exercise of any power of the Company to establish or enter into, arrange or provide for any scheme or arrangement for the grant of any retirement pensions, annuities, benevolent fund or other benefits and allowances provided or to be provided by the Company for the benefit of any Director or officer or employee or former Director or officers or employees of the Company, (together with its holding company, subsidiaries, associated companies and predecessors in business) and of the Shareholders of their family (including any spouse widow, or former spouse and dependants of any Director or former Director of the Company) and Regulation 87 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.
