Report of the Trustees
for the Year Ended 30 November 2019

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 November 2019. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015).

Objectives and activities

Objectives and aims

The objectives of the charitable company are as stated in its governing document, the advancement of the physical education of children and young people under the age of 18 years by the provision of organisation or assistance in the provision of organisation of facilities or paying for items, services or facilities, in the pursuit or support of sporting or recreational activities in Lincolnshire and Nottinghamshire.

Achievement and performance

Charitable activities

The Trust has supported over 80 clubs since its inception and has also worked to introduce new activities in schools to help encourage young people to become involved in outdoor events.

From its online presence, the Trust provides participating clubs with guidance on risk assessment and child protection.

Schemes and awards are provided by the Trust for fair play (the Fair Play Award) and for outstanding contribution to junior sports in Lincolnshire and Nottinghamshire (The Gold Award).

Pop Lacrosse, which was introduced to Lincolnshire by the Trust, has been extended throughout the county with the provision of loan equipment and with the arrangement of regional tournaments.

Ultimate Frisbee continues to attract interest and the Junior Sports Programme plans to introduce Kin-ball (a Canadian sport) as an additional resource in 2020.

Financial review

Financial position

The reserves in the charity have increased in the year to £1,785. The charity's overheads are, however, negligible and the Trustees consider that the reserve requirements of the charity are minimal.

Structure, governance and management

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Charity constitution

The organisation is a charitable company limited by guarantee incorporated on 14 July 2008 as the Junior Sports Programme Trust Limited. The company is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association and, in the event of it being wound up, members are required to contribute an amount not exceeding £10.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Junior Sports Programme
Trust Limited

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Junior Sports Programme Trust Limited ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 30 November 2019.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. Accounting policies

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
