STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The National Theatre of Wales (NTW) was incorporated as a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital on 9 September 2008. It is registered as a charity with the Charity Commission and regarded as such by HM Revenue and Customs.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

NTW was established in late 2007 with a core funding commitment from Arts Council of Wales (ACW) and the Welsh Government. These two bodies advertised and appointed a Chair followed by eight further trustees in 2008. Membership is open to individuals, who apply in the form required by the directors, and are approved by the directors. Membership is non-transferable.

The company's Articles of Association state that:

A person appointed to the office of director for two consecutive terms shall, at the third Anniversary Board Meeting arising during his/her second term as a director, retire from office as a director and shall therefore be ineligible for re-election as a director for a period of two years unless the Board resolve that he/she may be eligible for re-election as a director for such further period not exceeding three years as the Board in its absolute discretion sees fit.

Where a director is re-elected for a third term pursuant to Article 2 above, he/she shall retire from office as a director by the third Anniversary Board Meeting following the passing of the resolution referred to in that Article. Any director who retires pursuant to this Article shall thereafter be ineligible for re-election as a director (for a period of three years).

As a result, having stood down and being re-elected to the Board in February 2011, the company's original trustees have subsequently been subject to retirement in accordance with an agreed process of rotation. This resulted in two of the original trustees standing down at the Anniversary Meeting in April 2013, a further three in April 2014, and another three in March 2015. The current Chair remains, and is due to retire in 2017. This rotation approach has ensured a continuity of management during the retirement process. The company appointed five new trustees during the course of the 2013/14, financial year, and a further one at the Anniversary Meeting in April 2014 (this trustee position being a representative of the organisation's TEAM Panel, with the identity of the individual changing annually, most recently at March 2015's Anniversary Meeting). A further trustee appointment was made in June 2015, with the appointment of further new trustees taking place over the period to 2017 (subject to there being a maximum of twelve trustees at any one time).

Organisational structure

The Board of Trustees meets on a quarterly basis, and has established two sub-committees - a Finance Committee, which also meets quarterly and a Personnel Committee, which meets twice a year - with appropriate matters delegated accordingly.

The day-to-day running of the company is in the hands of a full staff team, headed by the Chief Executive/Artistic Director. An executive team comprising the Artistic Director, Executive Producer and Managing Director leads the company with delegated authority from the Board on matters of finance, recruitment, fundraising and artistic activity.

During the course of 2014/15, the trustees took the decision to establish a subsidiary company, wholly owned by the charity. The subsidiary, called NTW Productions Limited, was incorporated with effect from 10 December 2014. The subsidiary was created with the intention of simplifying, and making more transparent, the company's arrangements with regard to the receipt of theatre tax relief credits in the context of corporation tax (a tax from which the charity itself is exempt).

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The subsidiary was established with a five person Board of Directors, which remains in place. These directors comprise two trustees – the Chair of the charity (Phil George) and the Chair of its Finance Sub Committee (Bethan Cousins) – as well as the three members of the charity's Executive Team (Its Artistic Director, Executive Producer and Managing Director). Trustees are also actively looking to recruit a non-executive director of the Board of the subsidiary, and discussions remain ongoing in this regard.

The operational relationship between the charity and the subsidiary is that the charity commissions the subsidiary to deliver the production of each of its shows. The charity pays a commissioning fee to the subsidiary that equates to the costs of producing the show, less the value of any theatre tax relief credit that the subsidiary is eligible to claim.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

Strategic development and risk management

The company has in place a fully adopted Strategic Plan, which covers the period 2013-2016, and includes consideration of the company's ambitions, objectives, staffing structure and artistic plans. It also contains broad objectives for monitoring and evaluation, the company's first funding development strategy, a communications strategy, an environmental policy and risk management considerations.

A Strategic Plan review process is currently under way, with a view to bringing forward for approval, in the Autumn of 2015, a Plan for the period 2016-2019.

A risk assessment and risk management policy has also been developed by the company.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and core values

NTW was created in 2008 with the overall goal of developing and enriching English language theatre in Wales, and in so doing promote and assist in the advancement of the education of the public so far as this shall be charitable. Conceived as a flexible, non-building based organisation, the company was set up with the following key aims:

- Offer radical and imaginative theatre choices both in the selection of plays and in production styles.
- Connect with Welsh audiences and make world-class theatre more accessible, especially to those who currently do not attend mainstream theatre.
- Introduce more and varied directorial voices.
- Facilitate a spirit of collaboration and coordination.
- Create or broker relationships between playwrights, directors, companies and theatres.
- Drive up quality and excellence.
- Raise the international profile of the best work being created in Wales.
- Focus on the identification and nurturing of talent.
- Reflect and comment upon the culture and society of Wales, past and present.

Our three key values of our work are:

- Innovative
- Engaged
- International

For the current Strategic Plan the board reviews the initial aims above and identified the following priorities going forward:

- To remain consistently world-class
- To make radical choices and connect with audiences
- To extend the audience
- To make use of existing theatre venues, while remaining radical
- To find, develop and use more 'new writing with interesting things to say'
- To work with others in a genuine, creative collaboration
- To continue to build relationships with others, recognising that this is a gradual, continuous and slow process

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The staff team also developed the following description of NTW's ambitions and its work:

The nation of Wales is our stage: from forests to beaches, from aircraft hangars to post-industrial towns, from village halls to nightclubs. We bring together storytelling poets, visual visionaries and inventors of ideas. We collaborate with artists, audiences, communities and companies to create theatre in the English language, rooted in Wales, with an international reach. You'll find us round the corner, across the mountain and in your digital backyard.

The company operates on a three-year planning cycle, with annual review and adjustments. Business planning is initiated and signed off by the Board at all stages, with input from key partners including ACW, Welsh Government and the theatre sector, and through assessment of the wider context for growth and development. Business plans will combine a core of financially sustainable good practice with a context of visionary new thinking, in line with the founding spirit of the company.

A series of company policies and procedures have been developed, and NTW will strive in all cases to produce policies and procedures which, demonstrate best practice and can be used as a resource by other companies.

Public benefit

We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aims and objectives and in planning our future activities.

NTW aims to belong to all the people of Wales, regardless of age, location, or theatre-going habits. The company aspires to nourish and inspire all of the people across Wales and to link the nation with world-class theatre making and cultural aspiration. Not being based in a building enables us and our work to be truly located in the part of Wales where we are making the work, laying roots and leaving our mark before and after the theatre event. Learning and participation is embedded into the core of all of our work, and engagement with the community we are working within is key to the entire process of making and performing our work. The work we make is all new, and all inspired by the stories, people, places and dreams - past, present, future - that we encounter, explore and encourage across Wales.

We reach beyond the borders in our communication about the work, ensuring that once marginalised theatre activity and awareness is pushed onto the radar across the British Isles and internationally. We partner with a huge range of bodies and organisations to push and pull leading theatre practice in and out of Wales, providing the people and artists of Wales with an engaged and informed creative dialogue.

Our entire operational system is set up to be open and engaged with the public. Our online presence aspires to be the leading National Theatre web resource, based on a truly interactive and conversational relationship with the public. Alongside a conventional website, which will offer an extensive range of facilities and uses to the public, we run a social network site where members can speak to one another, share skills and ideas, react to the work, inform us of events, etc. It is a home for our audience in the absence of a building and a major resource of information and activity.

Our office is a shop in a high street arcade in central Cardiff, with an open door and the ability for the public to drop in any time. We have hot-desk space for artists to congregate, work, get online and operate alongside us, whether they are actively in production with us or not.

With support from the Paul Hamlyn Foundation, NTW has established a TEAM ambassador programme, with full-time posts of Head of Collaboration and TEAM Assistant, who cultivate teams of advocates in each of the locations where we make work. These 'super users' champion the work in their community networks and have access to the way we make work.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

NTW has been making English language productions in locations all over Wales, the UK, internationally and online since March 2010. We operate from a small base in Cardiff's city centre, but we work all over the country, and beyond, using Wales' rich and diverse landscape, its towns, cities and villages, its incredible stories and rich talent as our inspiration.

Our audiences have followed us and Michael Sheen like disciples around his hometown, Port Talbot, to watch The Passion. They've partied with Neon Neon (Gruff Rhys & Boom Bip) in Cardiff, learning the extraordinary story of Italian publisher Giangiacomo Feltrinelli, in Praxis Makes Perfect. Hundreds climbed the foothills of Snowdon to hear poems by the National Poet of Wales, Gillian Clarke and witness first-hand the annual sheep-gathering. Others donned boots to experience Mametz, written by poet Owen Sheers and staged in farmland near Usk, and which offered a chilling glimpse of life and death in a WWI trench. And thousands joined us online for Tim Price's award-winning The Radicalisation of Bradley Manning: learning about a teenager in Pembrokeshire who grew to be one of the world's most influential and divisive political figures, while chatting with other audience members in over 50 countries across the globe.

These are just some of the 40 productions we've staged on trains, military training grounds, beaches and mountains, in warehouses, nightclubs, tents, village halls, schools, aircraft hangars and libraries, all over towns like Barmouth, Laugharne and Aberystwyth, and in cities from Swansea to Tokyo.

"NTW is now so experienced at this kind of work that it makes other companies look amateurish"

The Guardian

The year 2014/15 saw the company undertake the following activity:

Raw Material: Llareggub Revisited - May 2014 Laugharne, South West Wales

Part of the DT100 celebrations, marking the 100th anniversary of Dylan Thomas' birth, NTW re-imagined the world of Under Milk Wood in a three-year collaboration with BBC Drama Wales. The collaboration involved work across an ambitious range of platforms. For the core site-specific theatre piece, NTW invited Marc Rees, one of Wales' leading exponents of contemporary performance and installation, and Jon Treganna, an accomplished writer and Dylan Thomas expert, to create a town-wide performance installation in Laugharne. The show took the audience on a journey through the underbelly of Laugharne - the place, which inspired Under Milk Wood, and the 'strangest town in Wales' according to Dylan Thomas himself.

"An unqualified success"

Wales Arts Review

Alongside this event, BBC Drama Wales, working in close collaboration with NTW, produced a new hour-long version of Under Milk Wood featuring many of Wales's most accomplished and well-loved actors. The two productions acted as mirror images of each other. While the theatre piece focused on the town, with the text almost a ghost haunting the location, the TV production had its actors in locations across the world, using the text to imagine a place that in reality is far away from their busy international lives. Snippets of the TV production were discovered within the theatre piece and vice versa. The broadcast of Under Milk Wood reached an audience of 261,000 viewers on its initial release on BBC Wales and a further 207,408 on iPlayer. It was also shown twice on BBC4 attracting 506,000 viewers.

Further funding from ACW was also received to create an interactive online experience of the theatre production, mixed with elements of the TV Under Milk Wood, which featured on the new BBC-backed platform for digital arts, The Space.

Mametz - June 2014 Usk, East Wales

A new play written by award winning novelist and poet Owen Sheers and inspired by his poem Mametz Wood, the show formed a significant part of the national 14-18 NOW commemorations supported by the DCMS/Heritage Lottery, marking the start of WW1.

Directed by Matthew Dunster and designed by Jon Bausor (winner of the UK Theatre Award and Wales Theatre Award for Best Design) the play was a large-scale, site-located performance in Usk, which took audiences into a poetic re-imagining of the WW1 trenches and the notorious Mametz Wood, scene of significant Welsh losses in the Somme.

"the most impressive, inspiring and deeply moving live performance I have ever witnessed"

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

The Gathering/Yr Helfa - September 2014 Snowdon, North Wales

Created and directed by Louise Ann Wilson with poems from National Poet of Wales, Gillian Clarke, this production was a powerful exploration of the annual cycle of sheep-farming. The Gathering/Yr Helfa is the culmination of three years' observation of life at Hafod Y Llan, a working hill farm managed by the National Trust, at the foothills of Snowdon.

The poetry cycle and the visual installations were highlights of the show, as was the engagement of the shepherds and the local brass band, who together provided some of the show's most memorable images and moments (a shepherd standing high on an outcrop while a circled band plays below, echoing through the mountains). A strong cast went on a challenging but ultimately very fulfilling journey with the show. An interactive webcast reached around 2,000 people with the live-casting of the central poetry sequence a highlight.

"It's lyrical but unsentimental, bloody and brutal. It makes the mountain sing"

****The Guardian

Bordergame - November 2014 Bristol to Newport, South West England and South East Wales

This interactive production created by Jon Norton and Matthew Wright, took place online and on the Bristol to Newport train - imagining a world in which migrants are smuggled over the border into Wales. It was an ambitious mix of immersive theatre experience and online gaming; and an equally ambitious combination of satirical fun with insight into the real-life experiences from the refugee community, the show was an exciting step into the unknown.

The production also won the inaugural Space Prize - a new biennial digital theatre award presented by The Space and BBC Writersroom to encourage theatres across the UK to create a unique theatrical experience and received additional commissioning funds from The Space to fully realise the online world of the production, which engaged over 10,000 viewers/players.

"Deeply unsettling....quietly moving, and not a little humbling"

The Times

Crouch, Touch, Pause, Engage - March 2015 (UK tour)

NTW co-production with Out of Joint, Arcola, in association with the Sherman Theatre

NTW started 2015 by collaborating with Max Stafford Clark and Out of Joint (one of the UK's leading touring companies) to create a new verbatim production, Crouch, Touch, Pause, Engage, about the life of Welsh rugby legend Gareth 'Alfie' Thomas. Gareth was the Welsh captain and won over 100 caps for his country. He is also one of the world's most prominent gay sportsmen. Working closely with him, his family and the community of his hometown in Bridgend, we created a great story about sport, politics, secrets, and learning to be yourself. The script also gathered stories from young people who had lived through the media storm about teen suicide in Bridgend.

"brilliant... wrenches the gut and makes the soul sing"

*****The Times

With an opening run at Sherman Cymru, Cardiff the production also toured to; Aberystwyth Arts Centre, Aberdare Coliseum, Sony Centre at Bridgend and Neuadd Ogwen in Bethesda in Wales followed by a further six-week tour to; West Yorkshire Playhouse, Watford Palace Theatre, Hull University, Liverpool Playhouse, Felstead School (Essex), Oundle School, The Leys School (Cambridge), Lincoln University, Exeter Northcott and a further five weeks at the Arcola Theatre in London.

Praxis Makes Perfect - July 2014 Berlin, Germany

Our 2013 production with Gruff Rhys, directed by Wils Wilson and written by Tim Price, was remounted for a two-night run at Berlin's famous Berghain club as part of Foreign Affairs/Berliner Festspiele, one of Europe's most prestigious arts festivals.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Green Man // Red Woman - August 2014 Green Man Festival, Brecon, Mid Wales

Created by Wales-based artist Gerald Tyler, this was a small-scale commission specially created for the Green Man festival, inspired by the ancient stories associated with this beautiful site located deep in the heart of the Brecon Beacons.

An immersive piece took Father Christmas in a freezer van to the August music festival, where he found himself in the presence of the Red Woman, aka the long lost Mrs Christmas, spirit of summer. The piece 'popped up' in audience encounters through the festival, with around 200 people gathering for each of the more scheduled highlight moments.

WalesLab & Artist Development

Alongside the artistic programme NTW continued its programme for new work and emerging artists, WalesLab, providing opportunities for 54 artists across Wales, and hosting our third two-week Summercamp for 19 emerging artists in Dale, West Wales.

We also hosted two groups from Japan who carried out research and development into new ideas across Wales, meeting with communities in Aberystwyth, Cardiff, Caerleon, and Anglesey. The two-week residency resulted in sharings of the work held at Chapter Arts Centre.

Recruitment from a host of Summercamp applications resulted with a particularly strong group chosen this year including 16 Welsh, one Moroccan and two South Korean artists (with support of South Korea's Arts Council and the British Council).

This year also saw the introduction of our Artists 'Huddles' initiative, designed to deliver business skills and advice to support freelance practitioners start and maintain an arts career.

Our Resident Artist position was once again popular. As previously, the entire staff team were involved in the shortlisting and selection process and finally chose Leah Crossley, a visual artist, to be part of the team for a year.

We have launched a new Emerging Producers initiative alongside WalesLab, which has been designed to bring independent producers into the process of developing new work at the earliest possible stages. Those selected for the opportunity are either new producers looking to develop skills to work in the industry or experienced producing artists looking to hone their skills with some guidance from NTW.

During 2014/15 the company offered four new full commissions to writers, plus 10 seed commissions. 18 projects underwent Research and Development: exploring ideas for future productions, usually with week or two-week long rehearsals and a range of public and semi-public showings. Additional initiatives included the establishment of a Dramaturgs Group - involving six established writers and theatre artists who supported writers on commission at NTW as well as supporting and advising the company around writer and artist development.

Our Celebration of New Writing with Dirty Protest - Dirty, Gifted and Welsh - had its second incarnation, and again proved a successful meeting point and hub for those interested in new writing for theatre. Fourteen different plays were read on the day, as well as open mic and scratch performances, and writers received invaluable feedback and advice.

The Big Democracy Project

NTW secured £60k of funds from the Rayne Foundation to support a new phase of our Assembly programme, entitled The Big Democracy; a three year project made up of a series of democratically-selected, site-specific, debate-provoking performance events: encouraging people across Wales and beyond to engage in decision-making, and instigating change through a 'ground up' approach.

In this first year of The Big Democracy, proposals to host Assemblies were invited from communities in the four areas of Wales (North, South, West and Central). Proposals focused on issues that people would like to see debated and changed. Whereas previous Assemblies have concentrated on local issues, The Big Democracy looks more at the questions that Wales as a whole needs to address. During this financial year, Assemblies have debated voter apathy (North) and the treatment of refugees and asylum seekers (South).

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

TEAM

NTW continued to provide leadership, training and confidence building to TEAM members through: working on NTW productions (particularly Mametz and Bordergame) and events; support to run their own creative projects, such as the partnership with the Sherman to develop Scratch nights, and work with Literature Wales and Martin Daws (Young People's Laureate for Wales) to develop Word4Word; development of TEAM panel; a series of training sessions for young artists and freelancers - sessions on freelance survival and tax, digital photography, video editing, leadership training, poetry and storytelling.

A range of TEAM members also started new initiatives with NTW's support in recent months, including Theatre Playground (Playgroup), a group which brings writers and directors together to workshop and create new work, and Pontypridd Fun Palace, a one-off event as part of a UK wide celebration of Joan Littlewood's approach to theatre. Meanwhile the development of TEAM hubs in north Wales and the Valleys continued with a range of activity in Bangor, Wrexham and Bridgend in particular.

NTW Online

NTW's live streaming of productions, webcasts, Youtube, online community and digital gaming of Bordergame attracted a further 16,548 active participants during the course of the year. In addition, our partnerships with BBC Wales and The Space attracted a further 1,019,408 broadcast viewers, including iPlayer and BBC4 repeats.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

Year 5:

NTW's Year 5 will run from Spring 2015-Spring 2016, following very similar dates to our original Launch Year programme, and bringing back some of the key artists who have helped create NTW's reputation for extraordinary work in unexpected places.

There will be five core shows as well as a series of surprises and initiatives throughout the year.

Mother Courage and Her Children - May 2015

Brecht's classic - the play with which he defined his idea of Epic Theatre — will be brought to new life by Ed Thomas (House of America, Hinterland), arguably the great lost voice of Welsh theatre. With a new score by Dafydd James (The Village Social, Llwyth) and direction by NTW Artistic Director John E McGrath, Brecht's great story of common folk's survival will be re-imagined for 21st Century Britain.

{150} - June/July 2015

The epic Welsh adventure - the settlement of Patagonia - will have its 150th anniversary in 2015. Directed by Marc Rees (For Mountain Sand and Sea, Tir Sir Gar, Raw Material) in NTW's first co-production with Welsh language national company Theatr Genedlaethol Cymru.

Iliad - September/October 2015

The creators of two of NTW's most acclaimed productions, The Persians and Coriolan/us bring their unique multi-media vision to one of the great stories of all time - Homer's Iliad - the tale of the Trojan war. Using the extraordinary version by Christopher Logue - War Music - as their text, and featuring ambitious cinematography, Mike Pearson and Mike Brookes will create an epic production in four parts.

The Insatiable, Inflatable Candylion - December/January 2015/16

Two of NTW's most popular shows in 2013 were Praxis Makes Perfect, a 'theatre gig' in a warehouse created by Gruff Rhys (Super Furry Animals, American Interior), Wils Wilson (The Strange Undoing of Prudencia Heart) and Tim Price (The Radicalisation of Bradley Manning, Teh Internet is Serious Business), and Silly Kings - our adaptation of Terry Jones's Fairy Tales in a magical Spiegeltent. For Christmas 2015 Rhys, Wilson and Price will be taking over the Glamorgan Cricket Stadium to create a 'theatre gig for kids'.

Before I Leave - Spring 2016

For the final show of Year 5, NTW premieres an extraordinary new play with music by Patrick Jones, responding to the mighty Welsh battle of modern times - the 1984 Miners' Strike - in a very unexpected way. A group of elderly men and women with dementia are brought together to form a choir. A former miner finds himself singing alongside the policeman he battled against and an opera-loving fan of Margaret Thatcher.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

Alongside these five Epics for Year 5, NTW will continue the enormous range of work it has developed with communities, in artist development, and online. Three projects announced as part of the Year 5 launch sum up these core strands of work:

The Karen Project

This is a collaboration with Digital Theatre pioneers Blast Theory, to create an intimate theatre experience on a smart phone app.

Transition

Is the first project from NTW's WalesLab programme for new theatre ideas to grow into a full NTW production. Transition explores the shifting relationship between father (a professional contemporary dancer) and daughter (who is ballet mad) through the mediums of dance, conversation and film.

The Big Democracy Project

Since its very first days, NTW has worked closely with communities throughout Wales to explore local issues through theatre and debate. Closely tied in with the company's TEAM network, which helps people set up their own projects with NTW's support, NTW's Assembly programme has debated issues ranging from the testing of drones in Cardigan to the opening of Tesco's in Machynlleth. In 2015, through The Big Democracy Project, NTW will be asking Wales to decide the most pressing question for the country today - and turning it into the theme for a major new show.

The company has also undertaken company-wide strategic planning during the course of 2014-15, led by freelance facilitator Gerri Moriarty. The company's new Strategic Plan will run from April 2016 to March 2019, providing the organisation with a robust and comprehensive Vision and Mission. Ensuring that we remain true to our Values to be: Daring, Curious, Generous, Responsible, Adaptable and a Catalyst, encouraging others to develop and grow.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The statement of financial activities for the company is shown on page 15. During the year, the company made a surplus on unrestricted funds of £343,884 (2014: £6,238). This improved financial performance arose from a combination of prudent budget management across the company and a very successful year's fundraising, especially in respect of productions. This allowed the company to designate a significant level of funds (£251,019) as part of its budget strategy for 2015/16, to enable it to undertake an ambitious programme of major/classical shows during that year. The financial year 2014/15 also saw the introduction of Corporation Tax-related Theatre Tax Relief credits, by HM Treasury, with effect from 1 September 2014. Three of the shows undertaken by the company during the year in question were eligible for this relief, to varying degrees. The accounts for 2014/15 estimate £44,873 (2014: £nil) to be due from this source. However, as a claim has yet to be submitted to, or settled by, HMRC in this regard, there must still be considered an element of risk as to the certainty of the quantification of this relief (especially as this will be the first time for such a claim to be submitted).

General reserves now stand at £480,450 (2014: £136,566), including the designated production reserve of £251,019 (2014: £nil) referred to above. Within this total, free reserves account for £219,486 (2014 £123,566). This is above the guideline level set in the company's reserves policy (see below), the achievement of which was an objective of the company's financial strategy for 2014/15. Although the caveats regarding the value of Theatre Tax Relief credits (see above) need to be borne in mind when viewing this level of reserves, the target level has been achieved even when the recognition of such income is excluded. However, an important consideration to be borne in mind moving forward is that the company's budget strategy for 2015/16 also includes a use of 'free reserves' amounting to £50,690 in addition to the application of designated reserves referred to earlier. The balance of General Reserves (£9,945; 2014: £13,000) is accounted for by a fixed asset related designated fund, which matches the net book value of fixed assets in the balance sheet.

The financial year 2015/16 sees the final year of the existing ACW commitment to funding NTW as part of its core group of annually funded organisations to which it commits funding from its Welsh Government support, following its previous "Investment Review" undertaken in 2010. For 2014/15, ACW continued to provide core support to NTW to the value of £1.643m (2013/14 £1.685m). However, the 2014/15 funding did represent a 2.5% reduction on the previous year, in common with other 'national' organisations funded by ACW and a further 2.1% funding reduction was applied for 2015/16. These reductions are reflective of the funding reductions that ACW has itself experienced.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Moving forward, ACW has recently completed its next Investment Review process, covering the three year period from April 2016, which will inform its funding programme from 2016/17 onwards. NTW has been informed that it has been successful in its application to remain a Revenue Funded Organisation. However, the level of funding that it will receive, in consequence, will not be confirmed until the early part of 2016.

During the course of 2014/15, the company also received unrestricted grant funding of £2,700 (2014: £nil) from the Arts and Business Cymru, to part fund the salary of a Development Intern. This was a 9 month appointment with effect from September 2014, and consequently continuing on into the 2015/16 financial year. The previously received general funding support from the Tolkien Trust (2014: £15,000) did not recur in 2014/15.

As previously referred to, 2014/15 saw the company successful in obtaining ring-fenced funding from a number of sources, including charitable foundations and public bodies, to finance a range of projects and initiatives, as well as contributing to the costs of some of the company's shows. This included the continuation of a number of existing sources of funding, as well as successfully obtaining support from a number of new funders. In total, ring-fenced funding received during 2014/15 amounted to £734,292 (2014: £293,451).

The Paul Hamlyn Foundation, continued to finance the TEAM programme (2015 £130,000; 2014 £110,000), with 2014/15 representing the first year of a third phase of funding from this source. This funding tranche will conclude as at 31 March 2016, and replacement funding beyond that point is actively being sought, whilst consideration is also being given to the future shape of the TEAM project.

Income also continued to be received in 2014/15 from Esmée Fairbairn Foundation (to run the WalesLab artist development project) in the sum of £103,765 (2014 £108,951). This represented the first stage of the scheduled tapering of funding for this project, which continues further in 2015/16, prior to its conclusion also in March 2016. However, funding was obtained from ACW (2015: £21,600; 2014: £nil) to support an artist development training programme of 'huddles' events and other support, which has enabled this initiative to be supplemented until its conclusion. Discussions are ongoing with the Esmée Fairbairn Foundation to identify ways in which they may be able to fund the company's new creative development activities.

The company also, once again, received additional, ring-fenced funding from ACW (2015 £10,000; 2014 £20,000) to fund costs associated with the engagement of a Digital Associate, tasked with developing the company's digital content for productions and the BBC's 'The Space' initiative. This engagement concluded in September 2014.

In addition, to the funding referred to above, ACW provided funding toward a number of other projects during the course of the year. This included £100,000 (2014: £nil) towards the production of 'Raw Material' as part of the DT100 celebrations of the birth of the Welsh poet Dylan Thomas; £49,665 (2014: £nil) to fund 'Llareggub Discovered' a digital reimagining of the world of Thomas' play 'Under Milk Wood' that inspired 'Raw Material'; and, £40,371 (2014: £nil) towards the Wales touring costs associated with the company's production of 'Crouch, Touch, Pause, Engage'. This followed similarly ring-fenced funding of £50,000 (2015: £nil) being provided by ACW in 2013/14 to support NTW's staging of 'The Radicalisation of Bradley Manning' as part of the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Meanwhile, Wales Arts International (a partnership between ACW and British Council Wales, which works to promote knowledge about contemporary culture from Wales and encourage international exchange and collaboration) provided funding of £3,400 (2014: £3,000) towards the costs of overseas visits, by two company staff, to attend performing arts events in Melbourne and Montreal respectively (the 2013/14 funding having supported the attendance of two staff at a NTW production in Tokyo).

Further sources of ring-fenced funding received during the year came from 14-18 NOW (the major cultural programme taking place to commemorate the centenary of the First World War) in the sum of £175,000 (2014: £nil) and the Welsh Government's Major Events Unit (2015: £25,000; 2014: £nil) towards the costs of staging the production 'Mametz'; from Snowdonia National Park Authority (2015: £15,000; 2014: £nil) in respect of the production of 'The Gathering'; from the Great Britain Sasakawa Foundation (2015: £4,000; 2014: £nil) and the Japan Foundation (2015: £7,726; 2014: £nil) towards the costs of an artist development visit by Japanese artists; from the Tolkien Trust (2015: £18,000; 2014: £nil) in respect of the company's Education TEAM project; from the Rayne Foundation (2015: £20,000; 2014: £nil) towards costs associated with the company's Big Democracy Project series of performance events; and from iShed (2015: £500; 2014: £1,500), in the form of a bursary towards the costs of the Company's Digital Associate attending the Playable Cities project, which was staged in Recife (Brazil) in April 2014.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

One final source of ring-fenced funding received related to project management fees related to a NESTA-funded audience data research and development project, undertaken in conjunction with NoFit State Community Circus Ltd. NoFit State were the lead partner in receipt of grant funds on this project (which completed during the 2014/15 financial year) and reimbursed NTW for the costs it incurred (2015 £10,265; 2014 £6,800).

As at 31 March 2015, restricted funds of £105,859 (2014 £70,623) were being carried forward. This balance related to projects funded by the Paul Hamlyn, Esmée Fairbairn and Jerwood Foundations, Tolkien Trust and ACW (in respect of the artist development training programme). The Jerwood Foundation funding was originally received in 2011/12, in support of the Company's development of an online artist collaboration space, with spend being incurred up to and including 2013/14. A small balance of funding still remains from this project, whose initial stage is now complete, and these funds are expected to be repaid during the course of 2015/16. Discussions have been ongoing with Jerwood Foundation regarding the nature of future funding relationships. It should be noted that all other projects for which ring-fenced funding reserves exist, as listed above, are to due to complete during the course of the 2015/16 financial year. With that in mind, it is anticipated that all existing reserves of this nature are likely to be applied in full by 31 March 2016.

The company continues to seek to develop its income streams through developing relationships that will encourage sponsorship and other forms of fundraising, and seeking grants from other funding bodies, in addition to increasing the level of income generated through box office receipts. This is amply demonstrated by the income growth exhibited in 2014/15. Leaving aside core funding received from ACW, income from other sources increased from £489,756 in 2013/14 to £1,115,358 in 2014/15 (a 127% increase). Whilst this in part reflected the nature of the artistic programme undertaken during the year, it also reflected an increase in successful fundraising activity, and led to core funding reducing as a proportion of total income during the course of the year from 77% to 60%. Such diversification of income sources is a key element of both the company's Strategic Plan and its Funding Development Strategy moving forward.

The company's expenditure levels increased by some 9% in 2014/15, compared to the previous year, in part reflecting the additional funding obtained during the course of the year. This represents a continuation of an underlying trend of continued growth in the company's turnover, which is anticipated to continue as the company moves into the next three year period of ACW funding and strategic planning. Within its turnover, the focus of the company's expenditure will continue to be on its production, artist development and engagement related activities – expenditure on creative and artistic activities currently accounting for some 74% of total turnover.

Reserves policy

In accordance with good corporate governance and Charity Commission guidelines, the Board's aim continues to be to set aside £150,000 in reserve, as an unrestricted contingency fund for NTW operations, and to cover three months operating expenses of NTW should its primary source of income from ACW be withdrawn or withheld due to unforeseen circumstances.

Whilst this level of cover is currently considered sufficient for the company, the Finance Committee keeps this policy under regular review to ensure its continued sufficiency. As part of such a process, a review of NTW's reserves policy and guideline level of reserves is currently under way. This review is considering the purposes for the holding of reserves, as well as designation and application approval processes, and the level of reserves that it is most appropriate to retain as a protection against unforeseen events and circumstances. This review will be concluded during the 2015/16 financial year, and inform the company's financial strategies going forward. Within this context, it will remain the company's philosophy to re-invest reserves in its charitable purposes (artistic and creative activities) as far as possible, as demonstrated by the designation of funds in support of the 2015/16 artistic programme.

As mentioned above, the level of free reserves as at 31 March 2015 is in excess of the guideline figure.

Pension

The company has in place a group personal pension scheme, on a defined contribution basis, administered by Royal London (formerly Scottish Life). The company makes agreed employer contributions to the scheme, on a monthly basis. These are generally at a rate equivalent to 3% of gross salary (although there are contractual obligations to make a contribution equivalent to 5% in certain instances). Contributions are made in respect of all permanently appointed staff that have completed their contractual probationary period satisfactorily, where they have joined the scheme. Where staff have yet to join the scheme, a provision is set aside to fund such costs when they do become due. As at 31 March 2015, the value of the provision set aside for this purpose was £8,728 (2014: £8,901). Employees also make contributions to the scheme, the rates of which vary in accordance with individual discretion.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The company also makes contributions to the defined contribution scheme administered by Aviva on behalf of Equity, where it employs actors and stage managers who are members of the scheme. In accordance with industry conditions of service, the company again makes a contribution equivalent to 3%, where it is applicable to do so, whilst scheme members contribute at a rate of 2%.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2015

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, with the exception of investments which are included at market value, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008), the Companies Act 2006 and the requirements of the Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting and Reporting by Charities.

The statement of financial activities (SOFA) and balance sheet consolidate the financial statements of the charity and its subsidiary undertaking. The results of the subsidiary are consolidated on a line by line basis.

Incoming resources from generated funds

Voluntary income, including donations, gifts and grants that provide core funding or are of a general nature is recognised where there is entitlement, certainty of receipt and the amount can be measured with sufficient reliability. Such income is only deferred when the donor specifies it must be used in future accounting periods or the donor has imposed conditions which must be met before the charity has unconditional entitlement. This includes capital grants.

Investment income

Investment income is recognised on a receivable basis.

Incoming resources from charitable activities

Incoming resources from charitable activities includes income received under contract or where entitlement to grant funding is subject to specific performance conditions. This income is recognised as the related services are provided and there is entitlement, certainty of receipt and the amount can be measured with sufficient reliability. Income is deferred when the amounts received are in advance of the performance of the service or event to which they relate.

It is not the policy of the charity to show incoming resources net of expenditure.

Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accruals basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes any VAT which can not be fully recovered and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates.

"Charitable expenditure" comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

"Governance costs" include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include the audit fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the charity.

"Support costs" are those costs that, whilst necessary to deliver an activity, do not themselves produce or constitute the output of the charitable activity. These costs have been allocated to activity cost categories on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Fixed assets are initially recorded at cost. The value below which fixed assets are not capitalised is £500.

Depreciation is calculated so as to write off the cost of an asset, less its estimate residual value over the useful economic life of the asset as follows:

Fixtures & fittings Computer equipment - 25% straight line

- 33% straight line

However, where assets are acquired as a result of grant funding they will be depreciated over their useful life, or the period of the grant, whichever is the shorter.

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Operating leases

Rentals applicable to operating leases where substantially all of the benefits and risks of ownership remain with the lessor are charged against profits on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

Pension costs

The charity operates a defined contribution pension scheme for employees. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the charity. The annual contributions payable are charged to the statement of financial activities incorporating the income and expenditure account.

Provisions

The organisation commits to providing pensions for all core staff via the company pension scheme. Joining the scheme is optional currently, once employees have completed three months service. A number of eligible employees have yet to join the scheme but when they do employer contributions are backdated to their original start date with the company. Provision is made for the organisations potential contribution in respect of these individuals.

Basis of recognition of liabilities

Liabilities are recognised as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation which commits the charity to the expenditure.

Funds structure

Unrestricted funds

Unrestricted funds are donations and other incoming resources receivable or generated for the objects of the charity without further specified purpose and are available as general funds.

Designated funds

Designated funds are funds which have been specifically designated for specific future costs.

Restricted funds

Restricted funds are to be used for specific purposes as laid down by the donor. Expenditure, which meets these criteria, is charged to the fund, together with a fair allocation of support and governance costs.
