5 0 Shareholders' Reserve Power

5 1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action

5 2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution

6 0 Borrowing Powers

The directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow monies and, subject to the provisions of these articles, to mortgage or charge its undertakings, property and uncalled capital or any part thereof and to issue debentures and other securities. Shareholder approval is required prior to the entry of the Company into any borrowing or borrowing facility

7 0 Directors May Delegate

7 1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles-

- a) to such person or committee,
- b) by such means (including by power of attorney),
- c) to such an extent,
- d) in relation to such matters or territories, and
- e) on such terms and conditions, as they think fit

7 2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated

7 3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or in part, or alter its terms and conditions

8 0 Committees

8 1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors

8 2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them

DECISION MAKING BY DIRECTORS

9 0 Directors to take decisions collectively

9 1 Any decision of the directors must be either a unanimous decision of all Directors present at a quorate meeting, or a decision taken in accordance with article 10

10 0 Unanimous Decisions

10 1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter

10 2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or his alternate. A resolution signed by an alternate director need not also be signed by his appointor and, if it is signed by a director who has appointed an alternate director, it need not be signed by the alternate director in that capacity

10 3 References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting

10 4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting

11 0 Calling a directors' meeting

11 1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice

11 2 A minimum of 5 business days notice of directors' meetings is required, save where urgent business arises where such period of notice is not practicable

11 3 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate—
a) its proposed date and time,
b) where it is to take place, and

c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting

11 4 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director

11 5 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company. Such notice may be retroactive, and where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it

12 0 Participation in directors' meeting

12 1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when—

- a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
- b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting

12 2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other

12 3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

13 0 Quorum for Directors' Meetings

13 1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting

13 2 The quorum for directors' meetings is four directors and shall include at least two directors appointed by each shareholder

13 3 If within 60 minutes of the time appointed for a Board meeting, there is no quorum, the Director(s) present shall adjourn the meeting to the same place and time not less than 10 Business Days later

13 4 A director who has duly declared his interest (so far as he is required to do so) may vote at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of the Directors on any decision concerning a matter in which he is interested, directly or indirectly. If he does, his vote shall be counted, and whether or not he does, his participation at the meeting shall be taken into account in calculating the quorum

13 5 An alternate director shall, if his appointor is not participating, be counted in the quorum

14 0 Chairing of Directors' Meetings

- 14 1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings
- 14 2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman
- 14 3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time
- 14 4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of their number to chair it

15 0 Casting Vote

- 15 1 The Chairman shall not have a second or casting vote

16 0 Conflicts of Interest

- 16 1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director notwithstanding his office
 - a) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested,
 - b) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the Company is otherwise interested,
 - c) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any shareholder or any member of the same Group as a shareholder, or any body corporate in which any such member of the same Group is interested, and
 - d) may be involved in putting in place, amending, operating, implementing or supervising the performance of any transaction or arrangement between the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is otherwise interested and any shareholder or any member of the same Group as a shareholder, or any body corporate in which any such member of the same Group is interested
- 16 2 If a director has duly declared his interest in a matter of the nature referred to in article 16 1
 - a) the director shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate,
 - b) the director shall not infringe his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company as a result of any such office or employment or any such transaction or arrangement or any interest in any such body corporate,
 - c) the director shall not be required to disclose to the Company, or use in performing his duties as a director, any confidential information relating to such office or employment if to make such a disclosure or use would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed by him in relation to or in connection with that office or employment,

d) the director may absent himself from discussions, whether in meetings of the directors or otherwise, and exclude himself from information, which will or may relate to that office, employment, transaction, arrangement or interest, and

e) no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit

16 3 For the purposes of this article

a) a director shall be deemed to have disclosed the nature and extent of an interest which consists of him being a director, officer, or employee of any shareholder or any member of the same Group as a shareholder or any body corporate in which any such member of the same Group is interested,

b) a general notice given to the directors that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified, and

c) an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his

16 4 The directors may (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as they may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation) authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law

a) any matter which would otherwise result in a director infringing his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company and which may reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest (including a conflict of interest and duty or conflict of duties), and

b) a director to accept or continue in any office, employment or position in addition to his office as a director and without prejudice to the generality of Article 16 4(a) may authorise the manner in which a conflict of interest arising out of such office, employment or position may be dealt with, either before or at the time that such a conflict of interest arises, provided that the authorisation is only effective if

i) any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director, and

ii) the matter was agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted

16 5 If a matter, or office, employment or position, has been authorised by the directors in accordance with Article 16 4 or is of the nature referred to in Article 16 1 or has been approved by the Shareholders pursuant to a members resolution then (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as the directors may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation or the permissions set out below), the director

a) shall not be required to disclose any confidential information relating to such matter, or such office, employment or position, to the Company if to make such a disclosure would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed by him in relation to or in connection with that matter, or that office, employment or position,

b) may absent himself from discussions, whether in meetings of the directors or otherwise, and exclude himself from information, which will or may relate to that matter, or that office, employment or position, and

c) shall not, by reason of his office as a director, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from any such matter, or from any such office, employment or position

16 6 Any director shall be entitled to pass any information relating to the Company, its business or affairs to any Shareholder, and neither a Shareholder nor the Company shall be entitled to raise any objection to such passing of information nor allege any breach of any duty to the Company as a result of such action

16 8 Subject to Article 13 4, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive

16 9 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

17 0 Records of Decisions to be kept

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, the directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every decision taken by the directors

18 0 Directors' Discretion to make Further Rules

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

19 0 Methods of Appointing Directors

19 1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director by notice in writing given to the Company by the appointing shareholder. A copy of the notice shall be given to the other shareholder.

19.2 Each shareholder shall have the exclusive right to appoint, remove and replace three persons to act as directors of the company.

20.0 Termination of Director's Appointment

A person ceases to be a director as soon as—

- a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law,
- b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person,
- c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts,

21.0 Directors' Remuneration

21.1 Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the directors decide.

b) for any other services which they undertake for the Company.

21.3 Subject to the articles, a directors' remuneration may—
a) take any form, and

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

23 0 Appointment and Removal

23 1 Any director (other than an alternate director) may from time to time appoint any other director or any person to be an alternate director of the Company, and may at any time remove any alternate director so appointed by him from office, and appoint another person approved as aforesaid in his place

23 2 Any such appointment or removal shall be by notice in writing to the Company signed by the director making or revoking the appointment (and in the case of an appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice and the appointment must be approved in writing by the shareholder who appointed the appointing director) and shall take effect in accordance with the terms of such notice or in any other manner approved by the directors

23 3 An alternate director shall
a) cease to be an alternate director if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a director, and
b) cease to be an alternate director on the occurrence in relation of any event which, if it occurred in relation to his appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director

23 4 An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to any directors' meeting and all meetings of committees of directors of which his appointor is a member or directors' written resolution, as the alternate's appointor

23 5 A person who is an alternate director but not a director

- a) may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating (but only if that person's appointor is not participating), and
- b) may sign a written resolution (but only if it is not signed or to be signed by that person's appointor)

No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes

24 0 Voting Rights Cumulative

A director acting as an alternate director shall have an additional vote at directors' meetings on behalf of each eligible director for whom he acts as an alternate (provided the appointor is not participating and would have been entitled to vote if they were participating in the meeting) but he shall only count as one person for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating

25 0 Alternate Directors' Powers

25 1 Save as otherwise provided in these articles, an alternate director shall not have power to act as a director nor shall he be deemed to be a director for the purposes of these articles

25 2 An alternate director shall be deemed to be an officer of the Company and shall alone be responsible for his own acts and defaults and the director so appointing him shall not be responsible for the acts and defaults of an alternate director so appointed

26 0 Remuneration

The remuneration of any alternate director shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the director appointing him and shall consist of such part (if any) of the last mentioned remuneration as may be agreed between the alternate director and the director appointing him

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

SHARES

27 0 All Shares to be fully paid up

27 1 No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the Company in consideration for its issue

27 2 This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the Company by the subscribers to the company's memorandum

28 0 Authority to Allot Shares

28 1 In the event that the Company has more than one share class, then pursuant to section 551 of the Companies Act 2006, the directors are generally and unconditionally authorised to exercise any power of the Company to allot and grant rights to subscribe for or convert securities into shares of the Company up to an aggregate nominal amount of not more than 50% of the issued share capital of the Company for the time being, at any time during the period of five years from the date of adoption of these articles and the directors may, after that period, allot any shares or grant any such rights under this authority in pursuance of an offer or agreement so to do made by the Company within that period. The authority hereby given may at any time (subject to the said section 551 be renewed, revoked or varied by ordinary resolution)

28 2 For clarity, where the Company has a single class of shares in issue, article 28 1 will not apply and the provisions contained in section 550 of the Companies Act 2006 shall prevail

28 3 Sections 561 and 562 of the Act, in their application to allotments by the company of shares, are hereby excluded

29 0 Power to issue different classes of share

- 29 1 Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the Company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution
- 29 2 The Company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares
- 29 3 In the event that rights and restrictions attaching to shares are determined by ordinary resolution or by the directors pursuant to this article, those rights and restrictions shall apply, in particular in place of any rights or restrictions that would otherwise apply by virtue of the Companies Act 2006 in the absence of any provisions in the articles of a company, as if those rights and restrictions were set out in the articles

30 0 Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the Company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it

31 0 Share Certificates

- 31 1 The Company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds (and upon transferring a part of his holding of shares a certificate for the balance of that holding)
- 31 2 Every certificate must specify—
 - a) in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued,

 - c) that the shares are fully paid, and
 - d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them
- 31 3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class
- 31 4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it
- 31 5 Certificates must—
 - a) have affixed to them the Company's common seal, or
 - b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts

32 0 Replacement Share Certificates

- 32 1 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is—
 - a) damaged or defaced, or

b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares

32 2 A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate—

a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates,

b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the Company if it is damaged or defaced, and

c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide

33 0 Share Transfers

33 1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor

33 2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share

33 3 The Company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered

33 4 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it

33 5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent

34 0 Transmission of Shares

34 1 If title to a share passes to a transferee, the Company may only recognise the transferee as having any title to that share

34 2 A transferee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require—

a) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and

b) subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had

34 3 But transferees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares

35 0 Exercise of Transmittee's Rights

- 35 1 Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish
- 35 2 If the transmitttee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmitttee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it
- 35 3 Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmitttee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred

36 0 Transmitttees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmitttee is entitled to those shares, the transmitttee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmitttee's name has been entered in the register of members

37 0 Alteration of Share Capital

- 37 1 Subject to these articles the Company may by ordinary resolution—
 - a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares, and
 - b) sub-divide its shares, or any of them , into shares of a smaller amount and the resolution may determine that, as between the shares resulting from the sub-division, any of them may have any preference or advantage as compared with the others
- 37 2 Whenever as a result of a consolidation or sub-division of shares any members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the directors may, on behalf of those members, sell the shares representing the fractions to the Company and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members, and the directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of the purchaser

38 0 Procedure for declaring dividends

- 38 1 The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends
- 38 2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors
- 38 3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights
- 38 4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it

38 5 If the Company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear

38 6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment

38 7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights

39 0 Payment of dividends and other distributions

39 1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means—

a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,

b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,

c) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide, or

d) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide

39 2 In the articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable—

a) the holder of the share, or

b) if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members, or

c) if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee

40 0 No interest on distributions

The Company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by—

a) the terms on which the share was issued, or

b) the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the Company

41 0 Unclaimed Distributions

- 41 1 All dividends or other sums which are—a) payable in respect of shares, and
b) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable, may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed

c) vesting any assets in trustees

43 0 Waiver of Distributions

the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share

44 0 Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

- 44 1 Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution—preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and

b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled too it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportion

- 45 3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it

45 4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other

45 5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them

49 2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if—

a) the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

b) it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner

 - a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - b) appointing that person as proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

54 0 Delivery of Proxy Notices

- 54 1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person

- 54 2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given
