Achievements and performance

This is the third and final year in which the centre has benefited from funding from the National Lottery via the governments' Youth Investment Fund. The funding has enabled the charity to deliver a wide variety of services for young people which have supported their health and well-being.

Sustainable funding supported by the Henry Smith charity has been sourced this year for a new three-year post of development manager to develop a long-term strategy for the organisation. Throughout this year the development manager has obtained funding from Children in Need to support the youth club's ambassador project. The additional funding enabled the charity to achieve its main objective of ensuring young people have a voice.

In October 2019, the centre attracted corporate sponsorship which enabled the purchase of a new minibus.

The centre continues to offer a wide variety of services to the whole of the local community. An example of this is the opening of the facility to the Liverpool Tamil School, an organisation that encourages young people to their education. The centre provides the perfect resource for the delivery of this programme supporting over 120 young people in English, Mathematics and Tamil.

The Brunswick centre is also a strong partner to the Jamie Carragher Academy providing facilities five days per week from 9am to 4pm for young people between the ages of 16 and 19 working towards BTEC level 2 and 3 qualifications in sport/football.

The Brunswick centre also hosts a weekly pensioner's group and a volunteering gardening group. A very popular walking football session for over 55 year-olds takes place every Tuesday and Friday afternoon. These activities are all part of the charity's work in tackling social isolation.

The centre also provides facilities and resources for Veterans in Sefton and Bootle Detachment Merseyside Army Cadet Force, reflecting the charity's historical background in relation to the armed forces.

The centre has been supported over the last year in developing its resources and activities, including the community garden, by funding from the PH Holt foundation. This has enabled the successful delivery of a number of programmes promoting health and wellbeing .

Throughout this year, the charity has continued to comply with the requirements of Sefton Council's service level agreement (Early Intervention Service for 11+) in offering a universal service for young people. The Brunswick's transparent approach and inclusive environment has encouraged other services to locate at the centre, including Merseyside Youth Association's Talent Match programme. Work continues in partnership with the Sovini Group and other major stakeholders in the community to enhance the centre's resources.

Towards the end of March 2020, the centre had to close all open access services as a result of the COVID 19 pandemic. It was necessary to adapt the services provided to meet the urgent needs of the community and, in particular, to provide emergency food and support for local families.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE OF BRUNSWICK YOUTH AND COMMUNITY CENTRE

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Brunswick Youth and Community Centre for the year ended 31 March 2020.

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. My examination has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an Independent Examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for my examination, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of Brunswick Youth and Community Centre (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the charity are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I can confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- 1     accounting records were not kept in respect of the Charity as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
- 2     the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- 3     the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- 4     the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1.1 Accounting convention

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the charity's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Companies Act 2006 and "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)" (as amended for accounting periods commencing from 1 January 2016). The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional currency of the charity. Monetary amounts in these financial statements are rounded to the nearest £.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention. The principal accounting policies adopted are set out below.

1.2 Going concern

At the time of approving the accounts and as detailed in the Trustees' report the Management Committee have considered the impact of Covid-19 on the charity and the Management Committee have a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. The charity have availed the Coronavirus job retention scheme post year end. Thus, the Management Committee continue to adopt the 'going concern' basis of accounting in preparing the accounts.

1.3 Charitable funds

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the Management Committee in furtherance of their charitable objectives unless the funds have been designated for other purposes.

Restricted funds are subject to specific conditions by donors as to how they may be used. The purposes and uses of the restricted funds are set out in the notes to the accounts.

1.4 Income

Voluntary income is received by way of donations and gifts and is included in the full statement of financial activities when receivable. The value of services provided by volunteers has not been included.

Grants are recognised in full in the statements of financial activities in the year in which they are receivable.

1 Accounting policies

Basic financial assets

Basic financial assets, which include debtors and cash and bank balances, are initially measured at transaction price including transaction costs and are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the transaction is measured at the present value of the future receipts discounted at a market rate of interest. Basic financial liabilities

Basic financial liabilities, including creditors and bank loans are initially recognised at transaction price unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the debt instrument is measured at the present value of the future payments discounted at a market rate of interest. Financial liabilities classified as payable within one year are not amortised.

Debt instruments are subsequently carried at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method.

Trade creditors are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of operations from suppliers. Amounts payable are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less. If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities. Trade creditors are recognised initially at transaction price and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised where the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods where the revision affects both current and future periods.
