STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Status of Charity Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Shri Ram Chandra Mission UK ("the Mission") is a company limited by guarantee, company number 6767140. The company, also known as SRCM UK, is registered in England and Scotland as a charity (Charity Commission No. 1128649, OSCR No. SCO38615). The mission is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association.

Recruitment and appointment of directors

Directors are appointed for a fixed term of 4 years but can be re-appointed after this period. New directors are appointed at the discretion of the company, approved by a majority in a board of directors' meeting. The Mission's values, aims and objectives are explained to new directors, as well as its day-to-day operations. The statutory responsibilities of directors are also outlined according to the Memorandum and Articles of Association.

Administrative Structure

The directors of the Mission are responsible for the overall administration of the company. An Executive Committee i.e. the Vice-President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer oversees the day-to-day operations of the Mission. Centre Coordinators support the work of the Executive Committee in the UK. The Executive works under the guidance of the President of the Mission, which has global headquarters in India.

Risk management

The Directors assess risks on a regular basis and take necessary steps to mitigate and manage them.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objective of the Mission is to protect and preserve the public health through the practice of the Sahaj Marg system of meditation.

Significant activities

The company's principal activities are:

- Establish meditation centres for practicants of Sahaj Marg within the United Kingdom.
- Work in partnership with Shri Ram Chandra Mission Ireland (an Irish Charity having similar objectives).
- Facilitate meditation, study groups, retreats and public information open days in established SHR Ram Chandra Mission centres.
- Facilitation and introduction of members of the public in the system of Sahaj Marg Meditation.
- Assist in organising visits to the world headquarters of Shr Ram Chandra Mission in Chennai, India, and other centres of Shri Ram Chandra Mission worldwide, to further the education of its members and their understanding of the system.
- Disseminate Shri Ram Chandra Mission literature and information of the charity to its members throughout the United Kingdom.

Volunteers

The Mission has been dependent on the services of volunteers to carry out its objectives. The volunteers gave their time free of charge and it was not possible to quantify the benefit arising to the company. The directors wish to express their deep gratitude to those who gave of their service in this way.

SHRI RAM CHANDRA MISSION UK

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Achievements and Performance

Up to and including 2014 the centres of Shri Ram Chandra Mission in the United Kingdom are as follows:

1. Edinburgh
2. Glasgow
3. Manchester
4. Sheffield
5. London
6. Bristol
7. Aberystwyth
8. Reading
9. Moray
10. Norwich
11. Midlands

SRCM UK purchased a long term lease (990 year) in February 2012 on premises in Stratford, London. These premises have been converted to form an ashram (spiritual centre) for use by practitioners in the UK and Ireland. The purchase was funded by savings and donations from within the UK and also from other donors in SRCM centres around the world.

The majority of these centres rent or lease meeting rooms for the purpose of meditation. Some members trained as facilitators travel to other centres to impart training and give support to other centres and their members.

In total we have around 400 registered practitioners across the UK (2015). Apart from weekly meditation sessions in our centres, a small number of regional seminars and retreats are held throughout the year.

Funding and charity management

Operational expenses of centres have been met by voluntary donations from its members. Donations have been kindly received by cash, standing orders, personal cheques or online transfers. All sources of funds for the charity are from members of the charity itself, although other Shri Ram Chandra Mission groups practising in other countries may also contribute.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the Mission to maintain unrestricted reserves, i.e. unrestricted funds not committed or invested in fixed assets, at a level which equates to at least four to six months annual income. However with the requirement to accumulate funds for the acquisition and maintenance of a property, the general fund is currently kept at a higher level.

Funds in deficit

There were no funds in deficit at the year end.

Principal funding sources

The company's activities and developments are dependent upon funding from three main sources, donations, events and book distribution.

Results for the year

The Statement of Financial Activities on page 6 reflects a surplus of £29,280 (2014 - £28,541). The net assets of the company at the year end were £1,564,026 (2014 - £1,534,746).

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

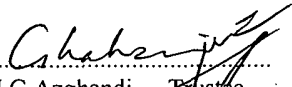

Earlier this year, the Mission worldwide launched 'Heartfulness' as a new approach to teaching Sahaj Marg meditation. The aim of Heartfulness is to allow an easier and broader approach to the method, and to extend the teaching of meditation to a wider section of the public. New coordinators have been put in place throughout the UK to help support the expansion of Heartfulness and to increase the accessibility of the system.

There has been a significant increase in open house and community events and many more events are planned in the coming months to help members of the public to have easy access to Sahaj Marg meditation.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF SHRI RAM CHANDRA MISSION UK

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2015 set out on pages six to fourteen.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

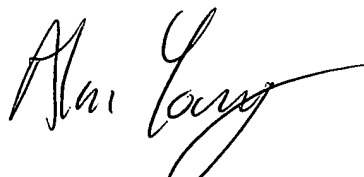

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
