1 REPORTING ENTITY

The financial statements are prepared for Relative Value Trading Limited (the Company), under Section 394 of the Companies Act 2006. The principal activity of the Company is to act as an investment Company. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Relative Value Investments UK LLP and its ultimate parent Company is Barclays PLC. Barclays PLC prepares consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS as adopted by the European Union, and accordingly consolidated financial statements have not been prepared for Relative Value Trading Limited.

Relative Value Trading Limited is a limited company incorporated and domiciled in England and Wales. The Company's registered office is

1 Churchill Place
London
E14 5HP

2. COMPLIANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and interpretations issued by the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC"), as published by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"). They are also in accordance with the IFRSs and IFRIC interpretations as adopted by the European Union.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of the financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied.

The effects of the application of new and revised international financial reporting standards (IFRS) are set out on page 14.

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention modified to include the fair valuation of certain financial instruments to the extent required or permitted under IAS 39, 'Financial Instruments, recognition, and measurement' as set out in the relevant accounting policies. They are stated in US dollars, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies. The notes to the financial statements set out areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions are significant to the individual financial statements such as taxation (note 10) and financial risks (Note 18).

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised in the income statement when it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will be received by the Company. Revenue is reported at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable.

Interest

Interest income or expense is recognised on all interest bearing financial assets classified as held to maturity, available for sale or other loans and advances, and on interest bearing financial liabilities, using the effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or liability and of allocating the interest income or interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts the expected future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument, or when appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount of the instrument. The application of the method has the effect of recognising income (and expense) receivable (or payable) on the instrument evenly in proportion to the amount outstanding over the period to maturity or repayment.

Fees and commissions

Fees and commissions are recognised in the income statement on an accruals basis as the service is provided.

Foreign exchange

Foreign currency transactions are translated into US Dollar using the spot exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions.

Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into functional currency at the spot rate prevailing on the balance sheet date. All exchange gains and losses are recognised in the income statement except for items that are designated as hedging instruments in qualifying cash flow hedges or hedges of net investments, translation differences for which are recognised in other comprehensive income.

Taxation

Taxation payable on taxable profits is recognised as an expense in the period in which the profits arise. Income tax recoverable on tax allowable losses is recognised as an asset only to the extent that it is regarded as probable that it is recoverable by offset against current or future taxable profits.

Current tax assets and liabilities are only offset when they arise in the same tax reporting group and where there is both the legal right and the intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Loans and advances

Loans and advances are recorded on balance sheet according to the substance of the contractual arrangement entered into. They are initially recorded at fair value including direct and incremental transaction costs. They are subsequently valued at amortised cost, less any amounts that have been provided for to reflect impairment in the value of the investment, where there is objective evidence of impairment. Income is recognised in the income statement, using the effective interest rate which discounts estimated future cash flows through the life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying value.

Relative Value Trading Limited

Registered Number in England & Wales 6817403

Cash and cash equivalents

For the purposes of the cash flow statement, cash comprises cash on hand, demand deposits, and cash equivalents. Cash equivalents comprise highly liquid investments that are convertible into cash with an insignificant risk of changes in value with original maturities of less than three months.

Borrowings

Borrowings represent loans and advances from a fellow group company. They are recognised as a liability when a contractual agreement results in the Company having a present obligation to deliver cash or another financial asset to the holder. The liability is initially recognised at fair value and amortised to the redemption value using the effective rate of interest over the life of the instrument.

Borrowing costs are charged as an expense to the income statement in the period in which they are incurred.

Share Capital

Share capital classified as equity is shown in called up share capital, and the costs associated with the issuance of shares are recorded as a deduction from equity. Dividends paid on ordinary shares are recognised in equity in the period in which they are paid or, if earlier, approved by the Company's shareholders.

Determining fair value

Where the classification of a financial instrument requires it to be stated at fair value, this is determined by reference to the quoted bid value in an active market wherever possible. Where no such active market exists for the particular asset, the Company uses a valuation technique to arrive at the fair value, including the use of prices obtained in recent arms' length transactions, discounted cash flow analysis, option pricing models and other valuation techniques commonly used by market participants.

The following fair value classifications are used when determining the fair value of assets and liabilities in the financial risks note:

Level 1

Financial instruments for which their valuations are determined by reference to unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets where the quoted price is readily available and the price represents actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis,

Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a portfolio of financial assets, including trade receivables, is impaired. The factors that the Company takes into account include significant financial difficulties of the debtor or the issuer, a breach of contract or default in payments, the granting by the Company of a concession to the debtor because of a deterioration in its financial condition, the probability that the debtor will enter into bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation, or, in the disappearance of an active market for a security because of the issuer's financial difficulties.

Impairment allowances are calculated, based on the difference between the carrying amount of the asset and its estimated recoverable amount, calculated by reference to the expected cash flows from it discounted at the original effective interest rate for the asset.

New and revised standards affecting presentation and disclosure only

Amendments to IFRS 7 Financial Instruments Disclosures

Amendments to IFRS 7 The amendments increase the disclosure requirements for transaction involving transfer of financial assets. These amendments are intended to provide greater transparency around risk exposures when a financial asset is transferred but the transferor retains some level of continuing exposure in the asset. The amendments also require disclosures where transfers of assets are not evenly distributed throughout the period.

The directors do not anticipate that amendments to IFRS will have a significant effect on the Company's disclosures however if the company enters into such transactions in the future, disclosures in compliance with these amendments to IFRS 7 will be required.

Amendment to IAS 1

The amendment clarifies that an entity may choose to disclose an analysis of other comprehensive income by item in the statement of changes in equity or in the notes to the financial statements.

The Company has chosen to continue with the former presentation, disclosing the analysis of other comprehensive income by item, in the statement of changes of equity.

–IFRS 9 ‘Financial Instruments Classification and Measurement’ was published on 12 November 2009. Requirements for financial liabilities were added to IFRS 9 in October 2011. It is the first phase of a project to replace IAS 39 and will ultimately result in fundamental changes in the way that the Company accounts for financial instruments. Adoption of the standard is not mandatory until accounting periods beginning on or after 1st January 2015 but early adoption is permitted. However, it is not available for adoption in the EU until it has been endorsed. The endorsement status is currently postponed.

The main differences from IAS 39 are as follows:

- All financial assets, except for certain equity investments, would be classified into one of two categories: amortised cost, where they generate solely payments of interest and principal and the business model is to collect contractual cash flows that represent principal and interest, or fair value through profit or loss.
- Certain non-trading equity investments would be classified at fair value through profit or loss or fair value through other comprehensive income with dividends recognised in net income.
- Embedded derivatives are no longer considered for bifurcation but are included in the assessment of the cash flows for the classification of the financial asset as a whole.
- Financial assets which meet the requirements for classification at amortised cost are optionally permitted to be measured at fair value if that eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch.
- Reclassifications are required, if and only if, there is a change in the business model.

Aspects of financial instrument accounting which will be addressed in future phases of the project include impairment of amortised cost financial assets and hedge accounting. The entity is assessing the impacts of the first phase in the project, as well as following developments in the future phases.

–On 13 May 2012 the IASB issued IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements, IFRS 11 Joint Arrangements and IFRS 12 Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities. IFRS 10 provides a single consolidation model that identifies control as the basis for consolidation for all types of entities. IFRS 10 replaces IAS 27 Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements and SIC-12 Consolidation—Special Purpose Entities. IFRS 11 Joint Arrangements establishes principles for the financial reporting by parties to a joint arrangement. IFRS 11 supersedes IAS 31 Interests in Joint Ventures and SIC-13—Jointly Controlled Entities—Non-monetary.

Contributions by Venturers. IFRS 12 combines, enhances and replaces the disclosure requirements for subsidiaries, joint arrangements, associates and unconsolidated structured entities. As a consequence of these new IFRSs, the IASB also issued amended and retitled IAS 27 Separate Financial Statements and IAS 28 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures. The new requirements are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2013, with earlier application permitted.

–On 13 May 2012 the IASB issued IFRS 13 Fair Value Measurement. IFRS 13 defines fair value, sets out in a single IFRS a framework for measuring fair value and requires disclosures about fair value measurements. * IFRS 13 applies when other IFRSs require or permit fair value measurements. It does not introduce any new requirements to measure an asset or a liability at fair value, change what is measured at fair value in IFRSs or address how to present changes in fair value. The new requirements are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2013, with earlier application permitted.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the possibility that changes in interest rates will result in higher financing costs and/or reduced income from the Company's interest bearing financial assets and liabilities. The Company's interest rate risk arises from interest on its loans and receivables and borrowings.

Interest rate sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity of the income statement is the effect of assumed changes in interest rates on the net interest income for one period, based on the floating rate non-trading financial assets and financial liabilities held at 31 December 2012, including the effect of hedging instruments.
