20. Avoidance of Payments

- 20.1 No assurance, security or payment which may be avoided or adjusted under any enactment relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or under Part VI of the Insolvency Act 1986 or similar legislation binding on the Borrower in a jurisdiction other than England and Wales and no release, settlement or discharge given or made by the Lender on the faith of any such assurance, security or payment shall prejudice or affect the right of the Lender to recover from the Borrower (including the right to recover any monies which it may have been compelled by due process of law to refund under the provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 and any costs payable by it or otherwise incurred in connection with such process) or to enforce the security created by or in connection with this Debenture to the full extent of all monies and liabilities secured by this Debenture
- 20.2 The Lender can retain the security created by this Debenture for a period of 25 months after all the Borrower's Obligations shall have been paid and discharged in full notwithstanding any release, settlement, discharge or arrangement given or made by the Lender on or as a consequence of such payment or termination of liability. If at any time within the period of 25 months after such payment or discharge a petition shall be presented to a court for an order for the winding up of the Borrower or any person ("the Principal Debtor") whose liabilities to the Lender have been guaranteed by the Borrower, or an application is made to a court for an administration order for the Borrower or the Principal Debtor, or any person gives notice of its intention to appoint an administrator of the Borrower or of the Principal Debtor, or any person files with the court a notice of intention to appoint an administrator or a notice of appointment of an administrator of the Borrower or the Principal Debtor, or the Borrower or the Principal Debtor shall commence to be wound up or to go into administration or any analogous proceedings shall be commenced by or against the Borrower or the Principal Debtor, the Lender shall be at liberty to continue to retain such security for and during such further period as the Lender may determine. The Borrower agrees that in such event such security shall be deemed to have continued to have been held as security for the payment and discharge to the Lender of all monies and liabilities secured by this Debenture.
