- 11.1 In favour of any purchaser, the statutory powers of sale and of appointing a receiver which are conferred upon CT, as varied and extended by this Debenture, and all other powers of CT, shall be deemed to arise and be exercisable immediately after the execution of this Debenture.
- 11.2 No purchaser from or other person dealing with CT, nor any person to whom it has delegated any of its powers, nor the receiver, shall be concerned to enquire whether any of the powers which they have exercised has arisen or become exercisable, nor whether the secured liabilities remain outstanding, nor whether any event has happened to authorise the receiver or CT to act or as to the propriety or validity of the exercise of any such power; and the title and position of a purchaser or such person shall not be impeachable by reference to any of those matters.
- 11.3 The receipt of CT or the receiver shall be an absolute and conclusive discharge to a purchaser or any other such person and shall relieve him of any obligation to see the application of any moneys paid to or by the direction of CT or the Receiver.
