For the year ended 31 December 2014 the company was entitled to exemption from audit under section 477(1) of the Companies Act 2006. Members have not required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476. The director acknowledges his responsibility for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts.

The director has taken advantage, in the preparation of the abbreviated accounts, of the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

M Kelly

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

Cash flow statement

The company qualifies as a small company under the Companies Act 2006. The director has elected to take advantage of the exemption under FRS1 not to prepare a cash flow statement.

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

Turnover

Turnover represents amounts receivable for services provided during the year.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed by the balance sheet date. Deferred tax is not recognised when assets are revalued unless, by the balance sheet date, the company has entered into a binding agreement to sell the assets and recognised the gains or losses expected to arise on sale.

2 Debtors

Debtors includes £nil (2013 - £1,433) receivable after more than one year.

3 Share capital
