2. The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them

PART 2

DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Directors' general authority

3. Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company

Shareholders' reserve power

- 4.—(1) The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action
(2) No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution

Directors may delegate

- 5.—(1) Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles—
  - (a) to such person or committee,
  - (b) by such means (including by power of attorney),

(c) to such an extent,
(d) in relation to such matters or territories, and
(e) on such terms and conditions, as they think fit

(2) If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated

(3) The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

Committees

6.—(1) Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors

(2) The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

Directors to take decisions collectively

7.—(1) The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8

(2) If—

(a) the company only has one director, and

(b) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making

Unanimous decisions

8.—(1) A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter

(2) Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing

(3) References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting

(4) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

Calling a directors' meeting

9.—(1) Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

- (2) Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate—
  - (a) its proposed date and time,
  - (b) where it is to take place, and
  - (c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting
- (3) Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing
- (4) Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it

Participation in directors' meetings

- 10.—(1) Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when—
- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
  - (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting
- (2) In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- (3) If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

Quorum for directors' meetings

- 11.—(1) At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting
- (2) The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two
- (3) If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision—
- (a) to appoint further directors, or
  - (b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors

Chairing of directors' meetings

- 12.—(1) The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings
- (2) The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman
- (3) The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time
- (4) If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it

Casting vote

13.—(1) If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

(2) But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

Conflicts of interest

14.—(1) If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes

(2) But if paragraph (3) applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.

(3) This paragraph applies when—

(a) the company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process,

(b) the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, or

(c) the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause

(4) For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes—

(a) a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the company or any of its subsidiaries,

(b) subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for shares or other securities of the company or any of its subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such shares or securities, and

(c) arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors

(5) For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting

(6) Subject to paragraph (7), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive

(7) If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

Records of decisions to be kept

15. The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

Directors' discretion to make further rules

16. Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

Methods of appointing directors

17.—(1) Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director—

- (a) by ordinary resolution, or
- (b) by a decision of the directors

(2) In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder

- 19.—(1) Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide
- (2) Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine—

  - (b) for any other service which they undertake for the company
- (3) Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may—
- (a) take any form, and
  - (b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director
- (4) Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day
- (5) Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested

Directors' expenses

20. The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at—

- 26.2 The transfer notice shall constitute the Company the agent of the prospective transferor for the sale of all (but not of part only) of the Sale Shares specified in the transfer notice to any Shareholder at such price. If the prospective transferor does not in the transfer notice specify the price at which he is prepared to sell the Sale Shares then the Sale Shares shall be offered for sale at the prescribed price (as determined in sub-clause 26.7). The transfer notice once received by the Company may not be withdrawn without the prior consent of the Directors
- 26.3 If the prospective transferor has specified a price at which he is prepared to sell the Sale Shares and within the period of two months of receiving the transfer notice the Company finds Shareholders ("the purchasers") willing to purchase all the Sale Shares specified in the transfer notice at the specified price and gives notice of that fact to the prospective transferor he shall be bound upon payment of the specified price to transfer the Sale Shares to such Shareholders.

ascertained For the purpose of determining the right to any distribution by the Company the prospective transferor shall be deemed to have sold the Sale Shares on the date of completion of the purchase

26 6 If the prospective transferor having become bound to transfer any Sale Shares to a purchaser or prospective purchaser fails to do so the Directors shall authorise some person to sign an instrument of transfer on behalf of the prospective transferor in favour of the purchaser or prospective purchaser and the Company may receive the purchase money and shall on receipt of the purchase money cause the name of the purchaser or prospective purchaser (as applicable) to be entered in the register as the holder of the Sale Shares and shall hold the purchase money on trust for the prospective transferor The receipt of the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchaser or prospective purchaser who shall not be bound to see to its application and after his name has been entered into the register the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

26 9 All Sale Shares comprised in any transfer notice shall be offered by the Company in the first instance for sale to all Shareholders holding shares of the same class as those so comprised (other than the prospective transferor) on the terms that if more than one such Shareholder desires to purchase the Sale Shares then they shall be sold to Shareholders accepting the offer in proportion (as nearly as may be) to their existing holdings of Shares All offers of Sale Shares under this sub-clause shall be made in accordance with the provisions as to notices applicable to the Company from time to time and shall state a time (not being less than twenty one days) within which the offer must be accepted or in default be treated as declined

26 11 1 Within a period of two months after receiving a transfer notice the Company shall not find purchasers for all of the Sale Shares, or

26 11 3 Acceptance of the price determined in accordance with sub-clause 26 7 is not notified to the Company in accordance with sub-clause 26 4 by prospective purchasers willing to buy all the Sale Shares specified in the transfer

26 12 If a prospective transferor wishes to sell any of the Sale Shares specified in a transfer notice after the expiry of the period of six months referred to in sub-clause 26 11 above then he must give notice in writing to the Company again in accordance with sub-clause 26 1

- 26 13 If at any time an offer to acquire all the Shares in the Company is made by a third party who is not a Shareholder or a Connected Person and Shareholders holding at least 75% of the Shares at the date the offer is made agree to accept that offer then all the Shareholders shall be obliged to sell all their Shares at the price offered.
- 26 14 Where the circumstances described in sub-clause 26 11 apply and the prospective transferor secures an offer to buy the Sale Shares which satisfies the conditions of that sub-clause all the remaining Shareholders may require that the party making the offer to buy the Sale Shares also buys at the same price and at the same time all (but not some only) of the Shares of all the remaining Shareholders
- 26 15 If a Shareholder dies, is adjudicated bankrupt, or in the case of a corporate Shareholder enters liquidation, or in the case of a Shareholder who is also an employee of the Company is dismissed by the Company (and such dismissal is not subsequently found by a Tribunal or Court to have been unlawful) then such Shareholder shall be deemed to have given a transfer notice in respect of all the Shares registered in his name (or in that of his nominee) or which he is entitled to have so registered at the date on which the event referred to occurred as though such notice had been served by him under the provisions of Article 26 1 but without having specified a price.

Transmission of shares

- 27.—(1) If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share

- (3) Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

Transmittees bound by prior notices

29. If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members

(2) A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors

(3) No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights

(4) Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it

(5) If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear

(6) The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment
