COMMUNITY INTEREST ANNUAL REPORT

ONE STEP CIC

Company Number: 07398192 (England and Wales)

Year Ending: 31 March 2021

Company activities and impact

One Step CIC was founded to provide supported accommodation to highly vulnerable people, offering them the chance of semi independent living through shared supported accommodating. We strive to support the individual to develop maximum levels of independence within their home, enabling them to work towards a more stable and independent future. Our aim is to move people's lives forward by sign-posting them to agencies qualified to deal with their addictions and find social succour and respite from negative life choices with the chance to move on into their own accommodation. We have a proven record of quality assurance in the operation of Health and Social Care to our clientele. We operate to the highest professional standards to ensure quality of staff and delivery through our person centered care of of planning approach, where emphasis can be placed on a person's needs as an individual. We provide a holistic approach and work on a multi disciplinary basis using combined resources and existing programs to approach the after care or prevention of custodial sentences and homelessness. Once settled into their new homes, each service user is given advice, guidance and support to register with a doctors and dentist and gain treatment for any addictions they require abstinence from. We encourage each individual to keep health checks, accompanying them to appointments and ensure they refrain from sanctions to their benefits. We underpin these new changes by regular visits to the properties and educate them by offering the chance of enrolment on courses that will teach living skills and money management. We understand the challenges our service users face and look for realistic ways of keeping them safe whilst heading towards a future of independent living.
