This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

During the past year WEA has continued to consolidate its progress as witnessed by its activities listed below all of which are free and on-line to the economics community and aimed at generating wide discussion of a plurality of views from economists throughout the world.

- Publication of academic economics journals - 3 issues of Real-World Economics Review, 1 issue of World Economics Review and 1 issue of Economic Thought
- 6 issues per year of WEA Newsletter
- 2 online conferences- <http://www.worldeconomicsassociation.org/conferences>
- 2 Blogs. the RWER Blog and the WEA Pedagogy Blog
- WEA Young Economists Network facebook site
- production of low cost printed versions of its journals

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are, how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear

The Company's stakeholders are its membership, which are active at different levels of involvement.

In terms of formal consultation and accountability, mechanisms have been established. an executive committee - http //www worldeconomicsassociation org/wea/executive-committee editorial boards for the two journals 'World Economics Review' and 'Economic Thought', as well as a group of individuals to run on-line conferences and the newsletter

In addition participation in this global community of economists and interested parties is invited at every opportunity from welcoming the formal submission of articles to ad hoc comments through open discussion on-line - http //werdiscussion worldeconomicsassociation.org/, the on-line confences and the Young Economists Facebook site

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
