If for any reason this should prove impossible then to such other charitable organisation having objects similar to or compatible with the Objects or the objects of the sole member and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the sole member. In so far as the assets are not transferred, they shall be held for charitable purposes

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES

- 43 Clauses in the Articles of Association may be altered by Special Resolution

SOCIAL AUDIT

- 44 A Social audit of the Company may, by resolution of the Company in General Meeting, be undertaken annually of the Company's activities, in addition to any financial audit required by law. The role of such a social audit would be to attempt to identify the social costs and benefits of the Company's work, and to enable an assessment to be made more easily than may be made from financial accounts only of the Company's overall performance in relation to its objects

Such a social audit may be drawn up by an independent assessor appointed by the Company in General Meeting, or by the Board of Directors who may submit their report for verification or comments to an independent assessor

A social audit may include an assessment of the internal collective working of the employees of the Company, including employees' views, internal democracy and decision making, wages, health and safety, skill sharing and education opportunities, or other matters concerning their overall personal or job satisfaction, an assessment of the Company's activities externally, including its effects on persons involved in the same or similar trade, on customers and suppliers, and on persons residing in areas where the Company is located
