Lucky Hens CIC

Social Report to 31st August 2016

Stakeholders

Lucky Hens CIC has engaged with a wide range of stakeholders and general public during the year which includes the following:-

- 20,638 hens have been re-homed to around the country but mainly to families living in the North West. Over 2000 families have hens and are able to produce their own eggs.
- Provided work placements for Wigan Youth Offenders Team working on the farm on their Reparation.
- Organised a Grow Your Own Day which was attended by over 100 families who potted their own strawberries and took them home to start their own strawberry beds. We gave out free recipes and homemade soup was on sale on the day.
- Attending local events and libraries taking along the hens to promote the welfare of laying hens. Inspiring people to 'grow their own' in back gardens, yards and in unusual reclaimed containers such as car tyres or raised beds made from scaffold boards. Also instructing public how to make feeders and water holders from old pallets and guttering.
- We have a volunteer who spins the wool from our own sheep so that visiting children will learn where wool comes from. We also have people knitting throughout the country making items to help raise funds.
- Sale of recycled barrels as feed storage and feeders.
- Sale of own diatomaceous earth organic mite control powder which is sold in paper bags and then the owners are encouraged to use old plastic talc bottles to save on plastic waste.
- Sale of own apple cider vinegar in recycled wine bottles which has health benefits to hens and humans.
- Fund raising re the sale recycled glass jars which are decorated and then sold as candle jars.
- We expanded our activities at the local farmers markets and at our own farm to encourage families to grow their own and eat healthily. We will provide recipes and demonstrations using seasonal fruit and vegetables. This included organising a potato day.
