PART 3: MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

5. POWERS OF DIRECTORS

- 5.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Articles, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who may exercise all the powers of the Company. No alteration of the Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Directors by the Articles and a meeting of Directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Directors.

- 5.2 Without prejudice to the generality of Article 5.1 the Directors shall be entitled to exercise the following specific powers:

- 5.2.1 to delegate to the Manager such of the Company's powers as may be appropriate to enable the Manager to perform its functions pursuant to the Property Management Agreement under which it is appointed. Throughout the duration of its appointment all the powers of the Company delegated to the Manager shall be exercised by the Manager and not by the Directors who shall instead liaise with the Manager and monitor the performance of its duties;

- 5.2.2 to enter into all contracts and agreements which they consider necessary or advisable in connection with managing the affairs of the Company or the Property including those which relate to:

- 5.2.2.1 default and interest charges in respect of late or non-payment of monies due by Members to the Company and/or the Manager;

- 5.2.2.2 the levying and payment of charges relating to the use of particular facilities; and

- 5.2.2.3 all such other administrative matters as the Board may from time to time deem necessary or expedient;

- 5.2.3 to do all things reasonably necessary for the smooth running of the Property;

- 5.2.4 to generally supervise the business affairs of the Company and ensure that the Manager and the Founder Member and the Ordinary Members are fulfilling their respective duties and obligations in connection with the Company and to ensure effective communication between the Manager, the Founder Member, the Directors, and the Ordinary Members;

- 5.2.5 to cancel, suspend or vary the rights or Membership of any Member (other than the Founder Member) at any time who, in the reasonable opinion of the Directors shall have failed without good cause to pay any monies due to the Manager or the Company on the due date or shall have failed to comply with his obligations under the Articles or whose conduct in the reasonable opinion of the Directors shall be detrimental to the Company the Property or the Members and who has not paid the outstanding monies, or complied with the obligation and remedied the breach, or desisted from the said conduct within such reasonable time as the Directors shall notify in writing to such Member. In the event of a Member having his rights cancelled or suspended or his Membership suspended under this Article he shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of a Member (including the right to attend and vote at general meetings) but shall continue to be liable for all the obligations attaching to his Membership (unless they have been cancelled).

- 5.3 Without prejudice to the generality of Article 5.1 the Directors shall be entitled to delegate to an administrator such of the Company's powers as may be appropriate to enable such administrator to perform its functions pursuant to an administration agreement under which it is appointed. Throughout the duration of its appointment all the powers of the Company delegated to an administrator shall be exercised by the administrator and not by the Directors who shall instead liaise with the administrator and monitor the performance of its duties or delegate such function to the Manager.

6. DELEGATION OF DIRECTORS' POWERS

The Directors may (with the consent of the Founder Member but not otherwise) delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more Directors of the Company. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Founder Member may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of the Directors' own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with three or more members shall be governed by the Articles regulating the proceedings of Directors (including the provisions regarding a quorum) so far as they are capable of applying.

7. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

- 7.1 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. A Director may, and the secretary at the request of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Directors. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote. A Director who is also an alternate Director shall be entitled in the absence of his appointor to a separate vote on behalf of his appointor in addition to his own vote.
- 7.2 The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors and unless so fixed, the number shall be two provided that at least one of their number shall include a director appointed by the Founder Member. A person who holds office only as an alternate Director shall, if his appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum.
- 7.3 The continuing Directors or a sole continuing Director may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but, if the number of Directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Directors or Director may act only for the purpose of calling a general meeting.

- 7.4 A Director nominated by the Founder Member from time to time shall be the Chairman. In the event that the Founder Member does not nominate a Director as Chairman the Directors may appoint one of their number to be the Chairman and may at any time remove him from that office. Unless he is unwilling to do so, the Director so appointed shall preside at every meeting of Directors at which he is present. But if there is no Director holding office, or if the Director holding it is unwilling to preside or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Directors present may appoint one of their number to be Chairman.
- 7.5 All acts done by a meeting of Directors, or of a committee of Directors, or by a person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any Director or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director and had been entitled to vote.
- 7.6 A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors or (as the case may be) a committee of Directors duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more Directors; but a resolution signed by an alternate Director need not also be signed by his appointor and, if it is signed by a Director who has appointed an alternate Director, it need not be signed by the alternate Director in that capacity.
- 7.7 Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more Directors to offices or employments with the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is interested the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each Director separately and (provided he is not for another reason precluded from voting) each of the Directors concerned shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.
- 7.8 If a question arises at a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors as to the right of a Director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any Director other than himself shall be final and conclusive.
- 7.9 A meeting of the Directors or any committee thereof may, subject to notice thereof having been given in accordance with the Articles, be for all purposes deemed to be held when Directors are in simultaneous communication with each other by telephone or fax or by any means of audio-visual communication and the number of Directors participating in such communication constitutes the quorum of Directors which would otherwise be required by these Articles to be present at the meeting.

8. DIRECTORS INTERESTS

- 8.1 The directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this article, authorise any matter or situation proposed to them by any director which would, if not authorised, involve a director (Interested Director) breaching his duty under section 175 of the Act to avoid conflicts of interest (Conflict).
- 8.2 Any authorisation under this article will be effective only if:
- 8.2.1 to the extent permitted by the Act, the matter in question shall have been proposed by any director for consideration in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the directors may determine;
 - 8.2.2 any requirement as to the quorum for consideration of the relevant matter is met without counting the Interested Director; and
 - 8.2.3 the matter was agreed to without the Interested Director voting or would have been agreed to if the Interested Director's vote had not been counted.
- 8.3 Any authorisation of a Conflict under this article may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):
- 8.3.1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter or situation so authorised;
 - 8.3.2 provide that the Interested Director be excluded from the receipt of documents and information and the participation in discussions (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict;
 - 8.3.3 provide that the Interested Director will or will not be an Eligible Director in respect of any future decision of the directors in relation to any resolution related to the Conflict;
 - 8.3.4 impose upon the Interested Director such other terms for the purposes of dealing with the Conflict as the directors think fit;
 - 8.3.5 provide that, where the Interested Director obtains, or has obtained (through his involvement in the Conflict and otherwise than through his position as a director of the Company) information that is confidential to a third party, he will not be obliged to disclose that information to the Company, or to use it in relation to the Company's affairs where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence; and
 - 8.3.6 permit the Interested Director to absent himself from the discussion of matters relating to the Conflict at any meeting of the directors and be excused from reviewing papers prepared by, or for, the directors to the extent they relate to such matters.

- 8.4 Where the directors authorise a Conflict, the Interested Director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms and conditions imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict.
- 8.5 The directors may revoke or vary such authorisation at any time but this will not affect anything done by the Interested Director prior to such revocation or variation in accordance with the terms of such authorisation.
- 8.6 A director appointed by the Founder Member, notwithstanding his office, may be a director or other officer of, employed by, or otherwise interested (including by the holding of shares) in, the Founder Member and/or the Manager, and no authorisation under Article 8.1 shall be necessary in respect of any such interest.
- 8.7 Any director appointed by the Founder Member shall be entitled from time to time to disclose to the Founder Member such information concerning the business and affairs of the Company as he shall at his discretion see fit.
- 8.8 A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the directors in accordance with these Articles or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms and conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds.
- 8.9 Subject to sections 177(5) and 177(6) of the Act, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature and extent of his interest to the other directors before the Company enters into the transaction or arrangement in accordance with the Act.
- 8.10 Subject to sections 182(5) and 182(6) of the Act, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a transaction or arrangement that has been entered into by the Company shall declare the nature and extent of his interest to the other directors as soon as is reasonably practicable in accordance with the Act, unless the interest has already been declared under Article 8.9.
- 8.11 Subject, where applicable, to any terms and conditions imposed by the directors in accordance with Article 8.3, and provided a director has declared the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with the requirements of the Act, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company:
- 8.11.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any such transaction or arrangement with the Company, or in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;

- 8.11.2 shall be an Eligible Director for the purposes of any proposed decision of the directors (or committee of directors) in respect of such transaction or arrangement or proposed transaction or arrangement in which he is interested;
- 8.11.3 shall be entitled to vote at a meeting of directors (or of a committee of directors) or participate in any unanimous decision, in respect of such transaction or arrangement or proposed transaction or arrangement in which he is interested;
- 8.11.4 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director;
- 8.11.5 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested; and
- 8.11.6 shall not, save as he may otherwise agree, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him (as defined in section 252 of the Act)) derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Act.

9. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

The Directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in permanent form, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the Directors.

10. APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

- 10.1 The number of Directors (other than alternate Directors) shall not be more than four.
- 10.2 The first Directors shall be appointed by the Founder Member, who may at any time and from time to time by a memorandum signed by it appoint any person to be a Director and may in like manner remove any Director so appointed and appoint another in his place and may similarly fill any other vacancy in the Directors. Any such appointment or removal shall take effect at and from the time when the memorandum is lodged at the Office or produced at a meeting of the Directors. Any additional Directors to those nominated above and the First Directors, may be appointed by the Board acting by a majority of Directors present and entitled to vote which shall include the vote.
- 10.3 Any memorandum of appointment or removal of a Director which is required to be signed by a corporate Member may be signed on its behalf by any of its directors.

11. ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 11.1 Any Director may appoint any other Director, or any other person approved by the Founder Member and willing to act, to be an alternate Director and may remove from office an alternate Director so appointed by him.
- 11.2 An alternate Director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of Directors and of all meetings of committees of Directors of which his appointor is a member, to attend and vote at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of his appointor as a Director in his absence but shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for his services as an alternate Director.
- 11.3 An alternate Director shall cease to be an alternate Director if his appointor ceases to be a Director.
- 11.4 Any appointment or removal of an alternate Director shall be by notice to the Company signed by the Director making or revoking the appointment or in any other manner approved by the Directors.
- 11.5 Save as otherwise provided in the Articles, an alternate Director shall be deemed for all purposes to be a Director and shall alone be responsible for his own acts and defaults and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him.

12. DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

The office of a Director shall be vacated if:

- 12.1 he ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Act (including removal by Ordinary Resolution of the Members) or he becomes prohibited by law from being a director; or
- 12.2 he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally; or
- 12.3 he is, or may be, suffering from mental disorder and either:

- 12.5 he is removed from office pursuant to Article 10.2; or

- 12.6 he shall for more than twelve consecutive months have been absent without permission of the Directors from meetings of Directors held during that period and the Directors resolve that his office be vacated; or
- 12.7 other than in the case of a Director appointed by the Founder Member, he is or becomes a member (or was appointed by a member) and ceases to be a member (or the member who appointed him ceases to be a member) for any reason whatsoever.

13. DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

No Director shall be paid any travelling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of Directors or committees of Directors or General Meetings.

14. SECRETARY

Subject to the provisions of the Act, a secretary may be appointed by the Directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them.

- 23.3 The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. The notice shall be given to all the Members including the Founder Member and Manager and to the Directors and auditors.
- 23.4 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- 23.5 Every notice convening a General Meeting shall comply with any applicable provisions of the Act relating to giving information to Members in regard to their right to appoint proxies.

24. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 24.1 Save where the Company has a single Member, no business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present. Two persons, provided that one of them is the Founder Member or his proxy, each being a Member or a proxy for a Member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation, at least one of whom shall be entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, shall be a quorum.
- 24.2 If such a quorum is not present within thirty minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or such other day and at such other time and place as the Chairman of the meeting may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within thirty minutes from the time appointed therefor the Members present shall be a quorum.
- 24.3 The Chairman, if any, of the board of Directors or in his absence some other Director nominated by the Directors shall preside as Chairman of the meeting, but if neither the Chairman nor such other Director (if any) be present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman and, if there is only one Director present and willing to act, he shall be Chairman.

24.10 A poll shall be taken as the Chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the Chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

24.12 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

and an instrument of proxy which is not deposited or delivered in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

25.6 A vote given or poll demanded by proxy or by the duly authorised representative of a firm or corporation shall be valid notwithstanding the previous determination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of the determination was received by the Company at the registered office of the Company or at such other place at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.
