- 7.3.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question
- 7 3 3 The other trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

- 7.3 4 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
- 7.3 5 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of trustees is present at the meeting.

9. Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties

- 9 1 If a conflict of interests arises for a trustee because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles, the unconflicted trustees may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

- 9.1.1 the conflicted trustee is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
- 9.1.2 the conflicted trustee does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of trustees is present at the meeting, and
- 9.1.3 the unconflicted trustees consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.
