Trusteess' Report

The trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 30 June 2014.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have complied with Section 17(5) of The Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Charitable objects

The charity is governed by its memorandum and articles of association.

The objects of the charity are to improve the quality of life amongst elderly people for the public benefit, through promoting social inclusion and improving social welfare through financial assistance and practical intervention; and to promote and protect the physical and mental health of sufferers of autism through the provision of financial assistance, support, education and practical advice and to advance the education of the general public in all areas relating to autism.

New trustees are appointed where necessary by the existing trustees.

The trustees have identified all the risks to which the charity is exposed and put in place systems and controls to manage such risks.

In furtherance of the objects the trustees have engaged an experienced investment manager to maximise the investment returns from the charity's investments. The trustees make grants and donations for charitable purposes.

Achievements and performance

During the year a return of 2.66% was made on investments. The trustees made a donation of £5,000 to Livability.

Trustees/directors

The following persons served as directors during the year:

Mrs S M Robertson
D A Robertson

Small company provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

This report was approved by the board on 11/10/2014 and signed on its behalf.

Independent Examiner's Report

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 30 June 2014, which are set out on the attached pages.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and the examiner

The Trustees, who are also the directors of Ordinary People Interesting Lives for the purposes of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011, the 2011 act, and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- (i) examine the accounts;
- (ii) follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- (iii) state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of an independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - (i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or
  - (ii) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of 396 of the Companies act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of recommended Practice: accounting and reporting by Charities; have not been met;or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
