DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

5. SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER

- 5.1 The shareholders may, with Shareholder Consent, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 5.2 No such action invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

- 5.3 No alteration of the articles invalidates anything which the directors have done before the alteration was made.

6. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

- 6.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

- (a) to such person or committee;
- (b) by such means (including by power of attorney);
- (c) to such an extent;
- (d) in relation to such matters or territories; and
- (e) on such terms and conditions;

as they think fit.

- 6.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

- 6.3 Where a provision in the articles refers to the exercise of a power, authority or discretion by the directors and that power, authority or discretion has been delegated by the directors to a committee, the provisions shall be construed as permitting the exercise of the power, authority or discretion by the committee.

- 6.4 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. COMMITTEES

- 7.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

- 7.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

- 8.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with this article 8.

- 8.2 If:

- (a) the company only has one director, and
- (b) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director (for so long as he remains the sole director) may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making. For the purpose of article 12, the quorum for the transaction of business by a sole director is one, and all other provisions of the articles apply with any necessary modification (unless a provision expressly provides otherwise).

- 8.3 If only one director is eligible to vote on any authorisation required under article 17, the general rule does not apply, and the eligible director may take decisions in relation to the relevant matter without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

9. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

- 9.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 9.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 9.3 References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.
- 9.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

- 10.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 10.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:
- (a) its proposed date and time;
 - (b) where it is to take place; and
 - (c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 10.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.
- 10.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

11. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 11.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:

- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
- (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

11.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

11.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

12. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

12.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

12.2 Subject always to articles 8.2 and 8.3 or in any shareholders' agreement in force between some or all of the shareholders and the company, the quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two.

12.3 Subject always to article 8.2, if the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

- (a) to appoint further directors, or
- (b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

13. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

13.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairperson.

13.3 The directors may terminate the chairperson's appointment at any time.

13.4 If the chairperson is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

14. CASTING VOTE

14.1 James Somerset Edmiston shall be the Company's Chairman and, in the event of equality of voting upon any resolution proposed to be passed at a meeting of the Board, shall have a casting vote.

14.2 Article 14.1 does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairperson or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

15. RESOLUTION IN WRITING

A resolution in writing signed by all the directors who are at the relevant time entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the directors (if that number is sufficient to constitute a quorum) shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution passed at a meeting of the directors properly called and constituted. The resolution may be contained in one document or several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the directors concerned.

16. TRANSACTIONS OR ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE COMPANY

Provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any interest of his in accordance with and to the extent required by the Companies Acts, a director notwithstanding his office:

- (a) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract with the company or in which the company is otherwise interested (including a guarantee);
- (b) may subscribe for shares or other securities, or enter into an agreement to subscribe for shares or other securities in the company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (c) may be party to arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors of the company or any of its subsidiaries, which do not provide special benefits for directors; and
- (d) may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the company (otherwise than as auditor).

17. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

17.1 The directors may, subject to the quorum and voting requirements set out in the articles, authorise any matter which would otherwise involve a director breaching his duty under the Companies Acts to avoid conflicts of interest ("Conflict").

17.2 Any director (including the relevant director) may propose that the relevant director be authorised in relation to any matter the subject of a Conflict. Such proposal and any authority given by the directors shall be effected in the same way that any other matter may be proposed on and decided upon by the directors under the provisions of the articles save that the relevant director shall not count towards the quorum nor vote on any resolution giving such authority and save further that if there are insufficient directors eligible to vote and therefore to form a quorum, article 8.3 will apply.

17.3 Where the directors give authority in relation to a Conflict:

- (a) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and
- (b) the directors may revoke or vary such authority at any time but this will not affect anything done by the relevant director prior to such revocation or variation in accordance with the terms of such authority.

17.4 Where the directors give authority in relation to a Conflict or where any of the situations referred to in article 16 ("Permitted Situation") applies:

- (a) the directors may (whether at the relevant time or subsequently) (i) require that the relevant director is excluded from the receipt of information, the participation in discussion and/or the making of decisions (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict or Permitted Situation; and (ii) impose upon the relevant director such other terms for the purposes of dealing with the Conflict as it may determine;

- (b) the relevant director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed by the board in relation to the Conflict or Permitted Situation; and
- (c) the directors may provide that where the relevant director obtains (other than through his position as a director of the company) information that is confidential to a third party, the director will not be obliged to disclose that information to the company, or to use or apply the information in relation to the company's affairs, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

17.5 A director shall not, by reason of his office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established, be liable to account to the company or the members for any remuneration, profit or other benefit realized by reason of his having any type of interest in a Conflict authorised under this article or in any Permitted Situation and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of a director having any such interest.

18. DIRECTORS MAY VOTE WHEN INTERESTED

18.1 Subject where applicable to disclosure in accordance with the Companies Acts or the articles and subject to any terms imposed by the directors in relation to any Conflict or Permitted Situation, a director shall be entitled to vote in respect of any matter in which he is interested directly or indirectly and if he shall do so his vote shall be counted and, whether or not he does, his presence at the meeting shall be taken into account in ascertaining whether a quorum is present.

18.2 Subject to article 18.3, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in a meeting (or part of a meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairperson (if any) whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairperson is to be final and conclusive.

18.3 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairperson (if any), the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairperson is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

19. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

20. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

21. CHANGE OF NAME

The company may change its name by a decision of the directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

22. METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS

- 22.1 Subject to any shareholders' agreement or similar document in force between some or all of the shareholders and the Company, any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Director by a decision of the Directors.
- 22.2 In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.
- 22.3 For the purposes of article 22.2, where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.

- (f) that person has for more than six consecutive months been absent without permission of the directors from meetings of directors held during that period and the other directors resolve that that person should cease to be a director.

24. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

- 24.1 Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.
- 24.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine:
- (a) for their services to the company as directors, and
 - (b) for any other service which they undertake for the company.
- 24.3 Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may take any form.
- 24.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

- 24.5 Directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.
- 24.6 The directors may provide benefits, whether by the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuities, or any death, sickness or disability benefits or by insurance or otherwise, for any director or former director who holds or has held any office or employment with the company or with any undertaking which is or has been a group company, and for any member of his family (including a spouse or former spouse) or any person who is or was dependent on him, and may (before as well as after he ceases to hold such office or employment) contribute to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such benefit.

- 30.2 Unless otherwise agreed with Shareholder Consent, if the Company proposes to allot any new equity securities ("New Shares"), those New Shares shall not be allotted to any person unless the Company has in the first instance offered them to all shareholders on the same terms and at the same price as those New Shares are being offered to other persons on a pro rata basis to the number of shares held by those holders (as nearly as may be without involving fractions) prior to the offer.

- 30.3 The offer:

- (a) shall be in writing, be open for acceptance from the date of the offer to the date 10 business days after the date of the offer (inclusive) (the "Subscription Period") and give details of the number and subscription price of the New Shares; and
- (b) may stipulate that any shareholder who wishes to subscribe for a number of New Shares in excess of the proportion to which each is entitled shall in their acceptance state the number of excess New Shares for which they wish to subscribe.

- 30.4 If at the end of the Subscription Period, the number of New Shares applied for is equal to or exceeds the number of New Shares, the New Shares shall be allotted to the shareholders who have applied for New Shares on a pro rata basis to the number of shares held by such shareholders which procedure shall be repeated until all New Shares have been allotted (as nearly as may be without involving fractions or increasing the number allotted to any shareholder beyond that applied for by him).

- 30.5 If, at the end of the Subscription Period, the number of New Shares applied for is less than the number of New Shares, the New Shares shall be allotted to the shareholders in accordance with their applications and any remaining New Shares shall be offered to any other person as the Board may determine at the same price and on the same terms as the offer to shareholders.
- 30.6 The provisions of articles 30.1 to 30.5 (inclusive) shall not apply to:
- (a) the grant or exercise of options to subscribe for shares under an employee share scheme set up in accordance with the Companies Act 2006; or
 - (b) New Shares issued in consideration of the acquisition by the Company of any company or business.
- 30.7 The directors may, as a condition to subscription for shares, require the subscriber to execute and deliver to the Company a deed agreeing to be bound by the terms of any shareholders' agreement or similar document in force between some or all of the shareholders and the Company in any form as the directors may reasonably require and if any condition is imposed in accordance with this article 30, the subscription may not be registered unless that deed has been executed and delivered to the Company by the subscriber.

31. SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 31.1 The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.
- 31.2 Every certificate must specify:

 - (b) the nominal value of those shares;
 - (c) that the shares are fully paid; and
 - (d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.
- 31.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.
- 31.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.
- 31.5 Certificates must:
- (a) have affixed to them the company's common seal, or
 - (b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

32. REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 32.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is:
- (a) damaged or defaced, or
 - (b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

- 32.2 A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:
- (a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;
 - (b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
 - (c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

33. SHARE TRANSFERS

- 33.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.
- 33.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- 33.3 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- 33.4 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.
- 33.5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.
- 33.6 The directors may, as a condition to the registration of any transfer of shares, require the transferee to execute and deliver to the Company a deed agreeing to be bound by the terms of any shareholders' agreement or similar document in force between some or all of the shareholders and the Company in any form as the directors may reasonably require and if any condition is imposed in accordance with this article 33.6, the transfer may not be registered unless that deed has been executed and delivered to the Company by the transferee.

34. DRAG ALONG

- 34.1 If the holders of more than 80% of the shares (the "Selling Shareholders") wish to transfer all of their interest in Shares (the "Sellers' Shares") to a proposed purchaser (together with any person or persons connected to or acting in concert with the proposed purchaser) (the "Drag Purchaser") pursuant to a bona fide arm's length offer, then the Selling Shareholders shall have the option (the "Drag-Along Option") to require all the other Shareholders (the "Called Shareholders") to sell and transfer all their Shares (the "Called Shares") to the Drag Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of this article 34.
- 34.2 The Selling Shareholders may exercise the Drag-Along Option by giving a written notice to that effect (a "Drag-Along Notice") to the Company, which the Company shall promptly send to the Called Shareholders, at any time before the transfer of the Sellers' Shares to the Drag Purchaser. A Drag-Along Notice shall specify that the Called Shareholders are required to transfer all their Called Shares under this article 34, the person to whom they are to be transferred, the consideration for which the Called Shares are to be transferred; and the proposed date of transfer. No Drag-Along Notice may require a Called Shareholder to agree to any terms except those specifically provided for in this article 34.

- 34.3 Drag-Along Notices shall be irrevocable but will lapse if for any reason the sale of the Sellers' Shares by the Selling Shareholders to the Drag Purchaser has not completed within 30 Business Days of the date of service of the Drag-Along Notice. The Selling Shareholders shall be entitled to serve further Drag-Along Notices following the lapse of any particular Drag-Along Notice.
- 34.4 The consideration (in cash or otherwise) for which the Called Shareholders shall be obliged to sell each of the Called Shares shall be on terms no less favourable than those obtained by the Selling Shareholders from the Drag Purchaser.
- 34.5 Within five Business Days of the Company serving a Drag-Along Notice to the Called Shareholders (or such later date as may be specified in the Drag Along Notice) (the "Drag Completion Date"), each Called Shareholder shall deliver duly executed stock transfer form(s) for its Shares in favour of the Drag Purchaser, together with the relevant share certificate(s) (or a duly executed indemnity for lost certificate(s) in a form acceptable to the Board) to the Company.
- 34.6 On the Drag Completion Date, the Company shall pay or transfer to each Called Shareholder, on behalf of the Drag Purchaser, the consideration that is due (the "Drag Consideration") to the extent the Drag Purchaser has paid, allotted or transferred such consideration to the Company. The Company's receipt of the Drag Consideration shall be a good discharge to the Drag Purchaser.
- 34.7 To the extent that the Drag Purchaser has not, on the Drag Completion Date, paid, allotted or transferred the Drag Consideration to the Company, the Called Shareholders shall be entitled to the immediate return of any documents provided by them in respect of the transfer of the relevant Shares and the Called Shareholders shall have no further rights or obligations under this article 34 in respect of their Shares.
- 34.8 If a Called Shareholder fails to deliver the documents specified in article 34.5 by the Drag Completion Date, any Director shall be constituted the agent of such defaulting Called Shareholder to take such actions and enter into any agreement or document as is necessary to effect the transfer of the Called Shareholder's Shares to the Drag Purchaser (to the extent the Drag Purchaser has, by the Drag Completion Date, put the Company in funds to pay the amounts due for the Called Shareholder's Shares). The Board shall then authorise registration of the transfer once appropriate stamp duty (if any is required) has been paid. The defaulting Called Shareholder shall surrender his share certificate for his Shares (or a suitable executed indemnity) to the Company. On surrender, he shall be entitled to the amount of consideration due to him.
- 34.9 On any person, following the issue of a Drag-Along Notice, becoming a Shareholder pursuant to the exercise of a pre-existing option or warrant to acquire shares in the Company or pursuant to the conversion of any convertible security of the Company (a "New Shareholder"), a Drag-Along Notice shall be deemed to have been served on the New Shareholder on the same terms as the previous Drag-Along Notice who shall then be bound to sell and transfer all Shares so acquired to the Drag Purchaser and the provisions of this article 34 shall apply (with the necessary changes) to the New Shareholder except that completion of the sale of the Shares shall take place immediately on the Drag-Along Notice being deemed served on the New Shareholder.

35. TAG ALONG

- 35.1 Except in the case of a Permitted Transfer, and after going through and pre-emption provision in any shareholders' agreement in place with the Company and its shareholders from time to time, the provisions of this article 38 shall apply if, in one or a series of related transactions, one or more Sellers propose to transfer any Shares ("Proposed Sale") which would, if carried out, result in any person ("Proposed Buyer"), and any person acting in concert with him, acquiring more than 51% of the Shares.
- 35.2 Before making a Proposed Sale, a Seller must procure the making by the Proposed Buyer of an offer (the "Offer") to the other Shareholders to acquire all of their Shares for a consideration per Share the value of which is at least equal to the highest price per Share offered or paid by the Proposed Buyer in the Proposed Sale or any related previous transaction in the preceding 12 months.
- 35.3 Each Offer shall be made by written notice (the "Offer Notice") at least 10 Business Days before the proposed sale date (the "Tag-Along Period"). The Offer Notice must set out the identity of the Proposed Buyer, the purchase price and any other terms and conditions of payment, the proposed sale date and the number of Shares proposed to be purchased by the Proposed Purchaser ("Proposed Sale Shares").
- 35.4 If any holder of Shares is denied the rights accorded to him by this article, the Sellers will not be entitled to complete the Proposed Sale and the Company will not register any transfer intended to carry that sale into effect.
- 35.5 If the Offer is accepted by any Shareholder (an "Accepting Shareholder") within the Tag-Along Period, the completion of the Proposed Sale will be conditional upon the completion of the purchase of all the Shares held by that Accepting Shareholder.
- 35.6 If the Offer is not accepted by any Shareholders in writing within the Tag-Along Period, the Proposed Buyer shall be entitled to complete the Proposed Sale with the relevant Seller(s).

36. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 36.1 If title to any shares passes under the following circumstances, including but not limited to: (i) death; (ii) bankruptcy; (iii) liquidation; (iv) administration; or (v) administrative receivership of the original shareholder, the original shareholder's personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy or its liquidator or administrator or administrative receiver (the "Transmittee") shall, as soon as reasonably practicable (and in any event within 30 days of becoming entitled to the shares) after the date of the grant of probate, the making of the bankruptcy order or the appointment of the liquidator, administrator or the administrative receiver, notify the directors of their entitlement to the shares and produce to the directors such evidence of entitlement as they may reasonably require.
- 36.2 Upon such notification being given, the Transmittee shall be obliged to serve a notice offering such shares for sale to the other shareholders of the company (and such notice shall be deemed automatically to have been given if such a notice has not been served within 30 days of the Transmittee becoming entitled to the shares).
- 36.3 The shares shall be offered at their fair value (as determined by an independent accountant) and shall, be offered pro rata to the shareholders' percentage shareholding and then, to the extent that any shares remain, by way of offer generally. The other shareholders shall have a period of six months from receipt of the notice to make payment in full to the Transmittee.

To the extent that any shares remain after this period, the company may, at its discretion, purchase such shares or require that they be transferred to a third party, as notified to the Transmittree by the company, in either case for their fair value (unless otherwise agreed between the company and the Transmittree).

- 36.4 The shareholders shall give their written consent to and shall procure that the directors shall approve for registration any transfer of the shares made in accordance with article 36.3.
- 36.5 If any Transmittree fails to comply with the provisions of this article 36, the Company shall be constituted the agent of any such defaulting Transmittree for taking such actions as are necessary to achieve any transfer or repurchase of Shares required under this article 36. In the event such appointment is utilised, any director may execute and deliver on behalf of such defaulting Transmittree the necessary documents and the company may receive any purchase monies due to the defaulting Transmittree on trust. The receipt of the company of any such purchase monies shall be a good discharge by any purchasing shareholder or third party.
- 36.6 Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the Transmittree has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

37. COMPULSORY TRANSFER – LEAVER PROVISIONS

- 37.1 Unless the board with Shareholder Consent determine that this article 37.1 shall not apply, if at any time during the Relevant Period an employee (excluding any of James Edmiston, Alexander Holden and Andrew Yeow) ceases to be an employee, the relevant employee shall be deemed to have given a Transfer Notice in respect of the Leaver's Percentage of the Employee Shares on the Effective Termination Date save that if such employee ceases to be an employee within 12 months from the Commencement Date a Transfer Notice shall deemed to be given in respect of the all the Employee Shares.
- 37.2 In such circumstances the sale price shall be as follows:
- (a) where the relevant employee ceases to be an employee by reason of being a Bad Leaver, the lower of Fair Value and the nominal value of the Employee Shares;
 - (b) where the relevant employee ceases to be an employee by reason of being a Good Leaver, the Fair Value.
- 37.3 For the purposes of this article 37, Fair Value shall be as agreed between the board (with Shareholder Consent) and the relevant employee, or failing agreement within five business days of seeking to agree such price, shall be as determined in accordance with article 38.
- 37.4 For the purposes of this article 37, the Employee Shares are offered in the following order of priority:
- (a) in the case of a Bad Leaver, the company shall have a right of first refusal (subject always to the provisions of the Companies Act), to purchase all or some (as applicable) of the Bad Leaver's shares before they (or any remaining shares not purchased by the company) are offered to the existing shareholders pro rata to such existing shareholder's holdings of shares (excluding the Bad Leaver's shares); and
 - (b) in the case of a Good Leaver, to the existing shareholders pro rata to such existing shareholder's holdings of shares (excluding the Bad Leaver's shares).

- 37.5 Where the company does not have sufficient distributable reserves to fund a repurchase of a Bad Leaver's shares in accordance with this article 37, the company may fund such repurchase out of capital as permitted by section 692(1ZA) of the Companies Act, and in this case the sale price shall be the lower of the nominal value of the Bad Leaver's shares and the nominal value of 5% of the company's fully paid share capital as at the beginning of the relevant financial year.
- 37.6 Notwithstanding anything to contrary in any shareholders' agreement or these articles, in the event that the company does not have available reserves to purchase the Bad Leaver's shares at the relevant time, the relevant employee shall be obliged to keep such shares until the date on which the company has sufficient reserves to purchase the Bad Leaver's shares for nominal value, at which time the sale price for the Bad Leaver's shares shall be the nominal value.

Suspension of voting rights

- 37.7 All voting rights attached to Employee Shares held by an employee or by any Permitted Transferee of that employee (the "Restricted Member"), if any, shall at the time the employee ceases to be an employee be suspended unless the board with Shareholder Consent notify such employee otherwise.
- 37.8 Any Employee Shares whose voting rights are suspended pursuant to article 37.7 ("Restricted Shares") shall confer on the holders of Restricted Shares the right to receive a notice of and attend all general meetings of the company but shall have no right to vote either in person or by proxy or to vote on any proposed written resolution. Voting rights suspended pursuant to article 37.7 shall be automatically restored immediately prior to an IPO. If a Restricted Member transfers any Restricted Shares in accordance with any shareholders' agreement or these articles all voting rights attached to the Restricted Shares so transferred shall upon completion of the transfer (as evidenced by the transferee's name being entered in the company's register of members) automatically be restored.

38. TRANSFER OF SHARES – VALUATION

- 38.1 Where a valuation of shares is required in accordance with these articles, the Independent Accountant shall be requested to determine the Fair Value of the relevant shares within 10 business days of appointment and to notify the company, and the shareholder(s) whose shares are being transferred (the "Relevant Shareholders"), in writing of its determination.
- 38.2 "Fair Value" shall, in any case, be the price of the relevant shares determined in writing by the Independent Accountant on the following bases and assumptions:
- (a) that the sale is on an arm's length basis between a willing seller and a willing buyer;
 - (b) if the company is carrying on business as a going concern, on the assumption that it will continue to do so;
 - (c) that the shares are capable of being transferred without restriction;
 - (d) valuing the shares as a rateable proportion of the total value of all the issued shares without any premium or discount being attributable to the percentage of the issued share capital of the company which they represent; and
 - (e) shall reflect any other factors which the Independent Accountant reasonably believes should be taken into account.

- 38.3 The Independent Accountant shall act as expert and not as arbitrator and its determination shall be final and binding on the parties (in the absence of fraud or manifest error).
- 38.4 The cost of obtaining the valuation shall be paid by the company unless the Fair Value price determined by the Independent Accountant is less than the price (if any) suggested by the board to the Relevant Shareholders for the shares prior to the Independent Accountant's instruction, in which case the Relevant Shareholders, as applicable, shall bear the cost.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

39. PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

- 39.1 The company may by with Shareholder Consent declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- 39.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 39.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.
- 39.4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
- 39.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears.
- 39.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 39.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

40. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

- 40.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:
- (a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;
 - (b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;

- (c) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or
- (d) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.

40.2 In the articles, “the distribution recipient” means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:

- (a) the holder of the share; or
- (b) if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or
- (c) if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the Transmittree (but subject to article 36).

41. NO INTEREST ON DISTRIBUTIONS

41.1 The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:

- (a) the terms on which the share was issued, or
- (b) the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company.

42. UNCLAIMED DISTRIBUTIONS

42.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

- (a) payable in respect of shares, and
- (b) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

42.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

42.3 If:

- (a) twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
- (b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company.

43. NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

- 43.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).
- 43.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:
- (a) fixing the value of any assets;
 - (b) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
 - (c) vesting any assets in trustees.

44. WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if:

- (a) the share has more than one holder, or
- (b) more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

45. DISTRIBUTION IN SPECIE ON WINDING UP

If the company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by law, divide among the shareholders in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the shareholders or different classes of shareholders. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the shareholders as he with the like sanction determines, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

46. AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

- 46.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:
- (a) decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of any of the company's reserves or funds, including but not limited to the share premium account, capital redemption reserve, merger reserve or revaluation reserve; and

- (b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a “capitalised sum”) to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the “persons entitled”) and in the same proportions.
- 46.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:
 - (a) on behalf of the persons entitled; and
 - (b) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.
- 46.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 46.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 46.5 Subject to the articles the directors may:
 - (a) apply capitalised sums in accordance with article 46.3 and 46.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
 - (b) make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and
 - (c) authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article.

DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

47. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

Notice of every general meeting shall be given to all members other than any who, under the provisions of the articles or the terms of issue of shares they hold, are not entitled to receive such notices from the company.

48. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 48.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 48.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:
 - (a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

- (b) that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

48.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

48.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

48.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

49. QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

No business other than the appointment of the chairperson of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

50. CHAIRING GENERAL MEETINGS

50.1 If the directors have appointed a chairperson, the chairperson shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

50.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairperson, or if the chairperson is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:

- (a) the directors present; or
- (b) (if no directors are present), the meeting,

must appoint a director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairperson of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

50.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as "the chairperson of the meeting".

51. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING BY DIRECTORS AND NON-SHAREHOLDERS

51.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders.

51.2 The chairperson of the meeting may permit other persons who are not:

- (a) shareholders of the company; or
- (b) otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

52. ADJOURNMENT

- 52.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairperson of the meeting must adjourn it.
- 52.2 The chairperson of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:
- (a) the meeting consents to an adjournment, or
 - (b) it appears to the chairperson of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- 52.3 The chairperson of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
- 52.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairperson of the meeting must:
- (a) either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
 - (b) have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 52.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):
- (a) to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and
 - (b) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 52.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

53. VOTING: GENERAL

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.

54. ERRORS AND DISPUTES

- 54.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 54.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairperson of the meeting, whose decision is final.

55. POLL VOTES

55.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

- (a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or
- (b) at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

55.2 A poll may be demanded by:

- (a) the chairperson of the meeting;
- (b) the directors;
- (c) two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- (d) a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution.

A demand for a poll by a proxy counts, for the purposes of paragraph (c) above, as a demand by a member and, for the purposes of paragraph (d) above, as a demand by a member representing the voting rights that the proxy is authorised to exercise.

55.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

- (a) the poll has not yet been taken; and
- (b) the chairperson of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

55.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairperson of the meeting directs.

56. CONTENT OF PROXY NOTICES

56.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:

- (a) states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy;
- (b) identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
- (c) is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
- (d) is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

56.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

56.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

- 56.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

57. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

- 57.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
- 57.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 57.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 57.4 The directors may require the production of any evidence which they consider necessary to determine the validity of any proxy notice.

58. AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

- 58.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- (a) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairperson of the meeting may determine), and
 - (b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairperson of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 58.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:
- (a) the chairperson of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- 58.3 If the chairperson of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairperson's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

59. CLASS MEETINGS

The provisions of the articles relating to general meetings shall apply, with any necessary modifications, to any separate general meeting of the holders of shares of a class. For this purpose, a general meeting at which no holder of a share other than an ordinary share may, in his capacity as a member, attend or vote shall also constitute a separate general meeting of the holders of the ordinary shares.
