5 Limited liability

- 5.1 The liability of the Members is limited to £1, being the amount each Member undertakes to contribute to the Charity's assets if the Charity shall be wound up while he, she or it is a Member, or within one year after he she or it ceases to be a Member, for payment of the Charity's debts and liabilities contracted before he, she or it ceases to be a Member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

6 Membership

- 6.1 The number of Members with which the Charity is registered is unlimited.
- 6.2 The Charity must maintain a register of Members.
- 6.3 The Members of the Charity shall be:
 - 6.3.1 the subscribers to the Memorandum and the Trustees from time to time; and

- 6.3.2 the Council.
- 6.4 Every Member shall sign a written consent to become a Member.
- 6.5 No person shall be admitted as a Member if such membership would cause the Charity to be a Regulated Company.
- 6.6 In the case of a Member who is an individual, Membership is terminated if the Member concerned:
- 6.6.1 gives written notice of resignation to the Charity; or
 - 6.6.2 dies; or
 - 6.6.3 makes an arrangement or composition with his or her creditors; or
 - 6.6.4 ceases to be a Trustee; or
 - 6.6.5 becomes a Local Authority Associated Person and, as a result, the Charity would become a Regulated Company.
- 6.7 In the case of the Council, Membership is terminated if:
- 6.7.1 such Membership causes the Charity to be a Regulated Company; or
 - 6.7.2 the Council gives written notice of its resignation to the Charity.
- 6.8 Membership of the Charity is not transferable.
- 6.9 The Trustees may admit such persons as they see fit as associate members in accordance with any criteria or rules set out by the Trustees from time to time, provided that associate members shall not be members of the Charity for the purposes of the Act and accordingly such membership shall not bestow upon any associate member the right to attend or vote on any matter at any general meeting of the Charity.

7 General meetings

- 7.1 Members are entitled to attend general meetings either personally or by proxy. General meetings are called on at least 14 clear days' written notice specifying the business to be discussed. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.
- 7.2 A general meeting may be called at any time by the Trustees and must be called in accordance with the terms of the Act within 21 days of a written request from the Members made in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Quorum

- 7.3 There is a quorum at a general meeting if four Members who are also Independent Trustees ("Independent Members"), entitled to attend and vote at that meeting, are present in person or by proxy. If there are fewer than four Independent Members, all the Independent Members shall constitute a quorum. If there are no Independent Members, the Member(s) who are also Nominated Trustee(s) may only act for the purpose of appointing new Independent Trustees (each of whom shall, on appointment as an Independent Trustee, become an Independent Member) or of calling a general meeting.

- 7.4 If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting will be adjourned to such other day and at such time as the Board may determine. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting the Members present in person or through their authorised representatives or by proxy shall be a quorum.

Chair

- 7.5 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee elected by those present (who may not be a Local Authority Associated Person) shall preside as chair at a general meeting. The chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place as the chair shall determine.

Voting

- 7.6 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting will be decided on a show of hands unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded by the chair, by at least two Members present in person or through their authorised representatives or by proxy; or by the Trustees.
- 7.7 Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chair that a resolution has been carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 7.8 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chair and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 7.9 A poll shall be taken as the chair directs. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 7.10 A poll demanded on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment will be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question will be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chair directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll will not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting will continue as if the demand had never been made.
- 7.11 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- 7.12 On a show of hands or a poll every Member present in person or through its authorised representative or by proxy shall have one vote.
- 7.13 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid. Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.

Proxy notices

- 7.14 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:

- 7.14.1 states the name and address of the Member appointing the proxy;
- 7.14.2 identifies the person appointed to be that Member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
- 7.14.3 is signed by or on behalf of the Member appointing the proxy or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
- 7.14.4 is delivered to the Charity in accordance with these Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- 7.15 The Charity may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 7.16 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 7.17 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
 - 7.17.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - 7.17.2 by appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates, as well as to the meeting itself.
- 7.18 A person who is entitled to speak, attend or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Charity by or on behalf of that person.
- 7.19 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 7.20 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 7.21 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

Written resolutions

- 7.22 A written resolution passed in accordance with the Act is as valid as a resolution actually passed at a general meeting (and for this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document). A written resolution passed under this Article will lapse if not passed before the end of six calendar months beginning with the circulation date (as defined in section 290 of the Companies Act 2006).

Council representatives

- 7.23 The Council may by resolution of its members authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its authorised representative at any meeting of the Charity and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the Council as that person would exercise if he or she were an individual Member of the Charity.

8 The Trustees

- 8.1 The Trustees are the charity trustees of the Charity and have control of the Charity and its property and funds.
- 8.2 The first Trustees shall be the persons whose names are notified to Companies House on incorporation. Additional Trustees shall be appointed in accordance with Article 8.3.
- 8.3 The Board shall be composed of no fewer than four Trustees and no more than 11 Trustees comprising:
- 8.3.1 Nominated Trustees appointed in accordance with Article 8.4; and
- 8.3.2 Independent Trustees appointed in accordance with Article 8.5.
- 8.4 The Council may appoint and remove a maximum of four Trustees (each a "Nominated Trustee"). An appointment or removal of a Nominated Trustee shall be made by the Council giving notice in writing to the Charity and to the relevant Nominated Trustee.
- 8.5 The Trustees may by majority resolution appoint up to seven additional Trustees (each an "Independent Trustee"). The Trustees may from time to time at their discretion determine any criteria for the appointment of Independent Trustees, provided that no person shall be appointed as an Independent Trustee if he or she is:
- 8.5.1 a member, officer or employee of the Council; or
- 8.5.2 a Local Authority Associated Person.
- 8.6 No person shall be appointed as a Trustee if the appointment would result in the Charity being a Regulated Company.
- 8.7 If, by reason of a reduction in the number of Trustees or for any other reason, the Charity would be a Regulated Company, such number of Nominated Trustees who are Local Authority Associated Persons shall cease to be Trustees as is necessary to ensure that the Charity will not be a Regulated Company (such Trustees to be selected by agreement amongst themselves or, in the absence of agreement, by lot).
- 8.8 Upon appointment as a Trustee, a person shall automatically become a Member of the Charity.
- 8.9 Every Trustee shall sign a written consent to become a Trustee.

Term of office of Trustees

- 8.10 A Nominated Trustee shall remain in office until such time as he or she is removed by the Council, subject always to Article 8.15.
- 8.11 Subject to Article 8.12, the normal term of office for Independent Trustees shall be three years. An Independent Trustee shall be eligible for re-election by majority resolution of the Board for one further term of three years.
- 8.12 The first term of office for the first seven individuals who are appointed as Independent Trustees shall be determined by majority resolution of the Trustees, provided that no Independent Trustee's first term of office shall exceed three years.
- 8.13 After an Independent Trustee has served two consecutive terms in office, he or she shall be eligible for re-election only after a year has elapsed since he or she retired as Trustee, unless the Board considers it would be in the best interests of the Charity for an Independent Trustee to be eligible for re-election on his or her retirement for such number of further terms as the Board shall resolve.

8.14 Every Trustee will hold office until he or she vacates office in accordance with Article 8.15.

8.15 A Trustee's term of office automatically terminates if he or she:

8.15.1 is disqualified under the Charities Act 2011 from acting as a charity trustee;

8.15.2 is, in the opinion of the Trustees, unable properly to fulfil his or her duties by reason of illness, disability or infirmity and the Trustees resolve that his or her office be vacated;

8.15.3 is absent from two consecutive meetings of the Board without the consent of the Trustees and the Trustees resolve that his or her office is vacated;

8.15.4 is removed as a Trustee by the Members pursuant to the Act;

8.15.5 resigns by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least three Trustees will remain in office);

8.15.6 becomes bankrupt, has an interim receiving order made against him or her, makes any arrangement or compounds with his or her creditors generally or applies to the Court for an interim order in respect of a voluntary arrangement;

8.15.7 is convicted of an offence and the Trustees shall resolve that it is undesirable in the interests of the Charity that he or she remains a Trustee of the Charity;

8.15.8 in the case of a Nominated Trustee, he or she is removed by the Council;

8.15.9 in the case of an Independent Trustee, he or she is removed by unanimous resolution of the Trustees or becomes a Local Authority Associated Person; or 8.15.10 ceases to be a Member of the Charity.

8.16 A technical defect in the appointment of a Trustee of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting of the Board.

9 Proceedings of the Board

9.1 The Trustees must hold at least four meetings of the Board each year. Any Trustee may call a meeting of the Board by giving notice of the meeting to the Trustees or by authorising the Secretary (if any) to give such notice provided that:

9.1.1 such notice must indicate the proposed date, time and location of the meeting and, if it is anticipated that Trustees participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting;

9.1.2 such notice must be given to each Trustee, but need not be in writing; and

9.1.3 such notice need not be given to Trustees who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting by giving notice to that effect to the Charity not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held (and where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it).

AD

- 9.2 The quorum necessary at a meeting of the Board shall be determined by the Board and unless and until otherwise determined shall be four Independent Trustees, or all the Independent Trustees then in office if there are fewer than four Trustees. If the total number of Trustees for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Trustees must not take any decision other than a decision to call a general meeting or to appoint further Independent Trustees.
- 9.3 A meeting of the Board may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all Trustees participating in the meeting may communicate with all the other participants. If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.
- 9.4 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present will preside as chair at each meeting.
- 9.5 Every decision of the Trustees shall be by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting but a written resolution signed (or agreed to in writing) by all of the Trustees who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a meeting of the Board and would have formed a quorum at such a meeting is as valid as a resolution passed at a meeting (and for this purpose the resolution or agreement in writing may be contained in more than one document).
- 9.6 Every Trustee has one vote on each issue except for the chair of the meeting, who in the event of an equality of votes has a second or casting vote (unless the chair of the meeting is in accordance with these Articles not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes).
- 9.7 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

10 Powers of Trustees

- 10.1 The Trustees have the following powers in the administration of the Charity:
- 10.1.1 at their absolute discretion, to appoint (and remove) any person or corporate entity (who may also be a Trustee) to act as Secretary to the Charity in accordance with the Act;
 - 10.1.2 to appoint a Chairman from among their number;
 - 10.1.3 to appoint a Treasurer, Patron and other honorary officers;

- 18.5 In giving the authorisation under Article 18.1 in relation to a transaction or arrangement or situation or matter in which a Trustee (or any person Connected to a Trustee) has, or may have, a Conflict of Interest which will not confer a Benefit on that Trustee (or Connected Person), the Trustees may (subject to such terms as they may impose from time to time and to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation) determine the manner in which they may be dealt with and, in doing so, the Trustees must consider:
- 18.5.1 whether the nature and extent of the interest in the relevant transaction or arrangement or situation or matter is reasonably likely to give rise to a Conflict of Interest;
 - 18.5.2 whether or not the Trustee should withdraw from that part of any meeting at which the relevant transaction or arrangement or situation or matter is to be discussed unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information;
 - 18.5.3 whether or not the Trustee should be excluded from the receipt of information in relation to the relevant transaction, arrangement, situation or matter;
