Directors' report for the year ended 31 December 2017

The directors present their annual report and the unaudited accounts of J.P. Morgan EO III UK GP Limited (the "Company") for the year ended 31 December 2017.

Principal activities

The principal activity of the J.P. Morgan EO III UK GP Limited is to act as general partner to limited partnerships which invest in real estate. The Company is dormant and has not traded during the period.

Review of business

The Company has the power and authority to take certain actions on behalf of the limited partnerships subject to the terms and conditions of the Limited Partnership Agreement which are determined by the Company to be necessary, appropriate, desirable and advisable. The financial position of the Company remains satisfactory.

Directors

The names of the directors who were in office during the year and up to the date of signing the financial statements are listed on page 1.

Statement of directors' responsibilities in respect of the annual report and the financial statements

The directors are responsible for preparing the directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period. Under that law the directors have prepared the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards, comprising FRS 101 "Reduced Disclosure Framework", and applicable law). Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business;

J.P. Morgan EO III UK GP Limited

Directors' report for the year ended 31 December 2017

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Liability insurance for directors

As permitted by Section 233 of the Companies Act 2006, the directors of the Company are covered for insurance purposes by the Group's insurance maintained at a consolidated level.

Third party indemnities

An indemnity is provided to the directors of the Company under the by-laws of JPMorgan Chase & Co against liabilities and associated costs which they could incur in the course of their duties to the Company. The indemnity was in force during the financial year and also at the date of approval of these financial statements and a copy of the by-laws of JPMorgan Chase & Co is kept at the registered office of the Company.
