Structure, governance and management

In the event of the charitable company's winding up each member may be required to contribute an amount not exceeding £1.

Objectives and Activities

In setting the objectives and activities the Trustees have given careful consideration to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

SLiDE's charitable purposes as defined in its objectives as cited in the Memorandum and Articles of Association:

1. To advance for the public benefit the performing arts, for people of all abilities, through the provision of accessible workshops, classes, events and performances in dance and associated art forms.
2. To advance for the public benefit education and training in inclusive arts practice in dance and associated art forms.

In 2020/21, the Trustees felt that the purposes were best achieved by continuing the core programme, alongside strengthening our infrastructure and existing partnerships. SLiDE's core programme consists of:

1. Creative dance for wellbeing: community dance classes for people of varying ages including people with learning disabilities and Parkinson's disease.
2. Community performance groups and projects: youth company and inclusive dance projects with a particular focus
3. SLiDE Collective: intergenerational, performance group of professional and community dancers, with and without disabilities.

The Trustees have paid due regard to guidance issued by the Charity Commission in deciding which activities the charity should undertake.

Achievements and Performance

From late Sept- early Nov 2020 following extensive planning by the core team and in line with government guidelines, we resumed our in-person activities at Fairfield Halls:

- Approximately 60% of our community returned to the sessions, we combined groups joined together increasing the diversity and inclusion
- We held rehearsals with the SLiDE Collective, in preparation for performances at TURF Projects in partnership with MOSS (learning disabled visual artists)

The Parkinson's dance group remained on Zoom throughout 2020-2021, a decision made in consultation with the group. We organised additional activities such as quiz nights and in-person socials to alleviate feelings of isolation and loneliness.

Owing to further changes to government guidelines, from November 5th 2020-end May 2021 our activities returned to an online delivery format. This included switching two days of the SLiDE Collective performance to Zoom, a risk which paid off with some great audience feedback. We added an online event 'Disco into your day' held on three mornings a week to help get our community through the lockdown. In April-May 2021 we held dance sessions outdoors in a local park, in response to some participants struggling to engage with our digital offer.

At the end of 2020 it was clear that the pandemic was far from over and it was continuing to have a significant impact on our participants and organisation. In response to this we sought additional support to ensure we could continue through turbulent times. In March 2021 we were awarded a Cultural Recovery Fund grant from Arts Council England and the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport. These essential funds enabled us to reopen our in-person programme at Fairfield Halls in June, with SLiDE\\FEST - a four-day festival, leading into weekly sessions focused on wellbeing. With the funds we contracted new practitioners, providing contingency plans for staff absence, which frequently took place owing to covid isolation rules. This additional support ensured that we could provide enhanced support to our community. By August 2021 80% of our community had returned to in-person activities.

Throughout the year we were able to develop our work through a series of projects with specialist consultants:

- Digital development of our online programmes and website with IT specialist Kevin D'Souza, supported with 3 grants from Catalyst and digital partners Reply and Outlandish
- Executive Director consultancy from Sophie Eustace (experienced arts manager) and Sarah Archdeacon (Coral Dance Artistic Director) to support development of the organisational plan, structure and governance
- Board development with Sarah Pickthall, an equality, diversity and inclusion specialist

Key highlights of the year:

- 200 in-person and Zoom dance sessions were held, averaging 12 participants per session
- One off sessions for the National Autistic Society, NHS, Rhythm Stick Crew (Alexandra Palace), I Can Dance and TURF.
- SLiDE Zoom socials (e.g., Christmas and Valentines) and quizzes for Parkinson's UK. Participant number: 197
- Summer Dance Jam, a 4-day dance intensive in Aug 2021. Participant number: 17
- 'Knowing Togetherness' audience number: 634
- Performance of <Insert title here> at TURF and on Zoom (Nov 2020), audience number: 22
- Youth company Zoom performance at SoDaDa in partnership with Club Soda (Dec 2020) Audience number: 85
- SLiDE\\FEST June 2021: 4-day dance festival at Fairfield Halls with guest artists from Coral and Blink. Participant number: 146
- 'Knowing Togetherness' film was presented at Croydonites Bites, Blue Elephant and FilmOxford Film Festival. Audience number: 190
- Stronger partnership working with local arts organisations: Club Soda & TURF
- New trustee: Matthew Lee, a learning-disabled young adult
- New patron: Joanna Scanlan, a critically acclaimed actor and local resident

Plans for the future

The Covid-19 pandemic remains a threat and a significant challenge for SLiDE, navigating this year has been difficult for a small, lean organisation. Throughout 2020/21 SLiDE continues to be managed on a day-to-day basis by the Artistic Director and Senior Producer, on a freelance basis. The additional support brought in to assist with identified areas for development made a big difference to this small team. Therefore, the model of bringing in specialists, for succinct pieces of work, supported by a grant, will be part of the ongoing organisational plan. The charity will continue to focus on its long-term sustainability as we move towards the end of the pandemic.

However, the SLiDE community has demonstrated continued strength and resolve to move through continued change and upheaval to our programmes. The need for work is strong and the mental and physical benefits to our community are very clear. In the year ahead we expect to increase the freelance office team to ensure the plans can be fully implemented.

Despite the continuing financial difficulties at Croydon Council, in 2023 Croydon is the London Borough of Culture (BoC). In addition, Croydon becomes an Arts Council England priority place (2022-2024), which is likely to improve the success rate for grants from Croydon-based organisations. We therefore expect to see a year of momentum for the arts, building to Croydon BoC, there are reasons for optimism.

Whilst the organisation continues with caution our 2021-22 plans include:

Creative dance for wellbeing:

1. Run three dance groups, two for adults with learning disabilities and one for adults over 55.
2. Relaunch the in-person dance sessions for people with Parkinson's, offering online live classes and pre-recorded sessions.

Community performance groups and projects:

1. Continue the youth company, collaborating with artists and other organisations.
2. Create a new piece and perform to a live audience.
3. Launch a performance company for learning disabled adults.
4. Lead three holiday intensives for families, young people and adults (learning disabled and neurodivergent)
5. Develop a stronger partnership with Club Soda and TURF/MOSS artists to increase the options for participation in creative and social events for learning disabled people in Croydon. Work with these partners to develop paid opportunities for learning disabled artists and producers.
6. Nurture our partnerships with the National Autistic Society, local SEN schools and Croydon Mencap.

SLiDE Collective:

1. Perform locally at a minimum of three events.
2. Maintain the group through weekly and/or monthly rehearsals
3. Partner with Dance Syndrome to develop a skilled cohort of learning-disabled dance assistants and co-facilitators
4. Develop a dance performance aimed at young audiences.
5. Develop a duet for performance at London festivals.
6. Explore options for remounting the full performance of <Insert title here> in Autumn 2022.

Financial Review

General review

2020/21 saw a significant increase in turnover due to a number of successful fundraising bids. Support was received from Arts Council England (ACE), National Lottery Community Fund, Croydon Relief in Need, Groundwork/GLA, Catalyst, Sport England and the Jack Petchey Foundation. Throughout this period SLiDE was able to make applications to funding streams that continued to emerge as a result of the pandemic. Whilst also returning to funders with whom we have a good relationship, such as ACE, National Lottery Community Fund and Croydon Relief in Need. The charity continues to raise funds on a project basis. Aspirations around core and multi-year funding are being prioritised. An application was made to the Paul Hamlyn Foundation for a three-year grant, and a successful outcome was received after this reporting period, in October 2021.

In December 2020 Croydon Council filed a section 114 (bankruptcy). Whilst this will impact our future fundraising success the trustees feel that SLiDE has made significant progress in creating a portfolio of funders that this risk is currently low and is being well managed.

Current year's results:

The total income for the year was £85,224, which was 30% up on the prior financial year. The majority of this was grant income.

The total expenditure for the year was £79,554, which was a 67% increase on the prior financial year. The majority of the spend was on project management and development owing to an extended period of digital development and administration costs, relating to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

Reserves Policy

The reserves policy agreed by the Trustees is to hold a minimum of one months' running costs in unrestricted reserves, which equates to £10,000. The reserves are to cover core activity in the event of a period of unforeseen difficulty such as unsuccessful fundraising. SLiDE activities are only undertaken when funding is in place. Therefore, the reserves would enable the charity to run a final 4 weeks of activities to wind up the charitable company in a careful and considered way, for our community members and partners. In spring 2022 the Trustees agreed to set a target reserves policy of three months' running costs to be held in unrestricted reserves, in order to increase the organisation's sustainability. To increase unrestricted reserves to the identified target the charity will be seeking to increase sustainable multi-year funding and including a request for funders to cover core costs in funding applications.

At 31 August 2021, unrestricted free reserves of £16,074 were held. SLiDE's reserves policy is reviewed and updated annually by the board.

Risk Assessment

The Trustees regularly review the major risks to which SLiDE is exposed. Where appropriate, procedures have been established to mitigate any risks faced by the organisation. Internal control risks are minimised through clear authorisation procedures for all projects, activities and financial transactions. Procedures are also in place to ensure the safeguarding and health and safety of staff, participants and visitors.
