8. A new article 14A shall be inserted:

"14A.

- (1) For the purposes of section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 the directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this article 14A authorise any matter proposed to them by any director which would, if not authorised constitute or give rise to a situation in which a director has or can have, a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or possibly may conflict with the interest of the company (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not the company could take advantage of it) (a 'conflict').

- (b) be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may determine;

- (a) disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the company;
- (b) use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director of the company,
