LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

- 2 The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

PART 2 DIRECTORS DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

- 3 Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER

- 4 (1) The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- (2) No such special resolution invalidates anything, which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

- 5 (1) Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers, which are conferred on them under the articles —
- (a) to such person or committee;
- (b) by such means (including by power of attorney);
- (c) to such an extent;
- (d) in relation to such matters or territories; and
- (e) on such terms and conditions;
- as they think fit.
- (2) If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- (3) The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

COMMITTEES

- 6 (1) Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures, which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- (2) The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

- 7 (1) The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8.
- (2) If —
- (a) the company only has one director, and
- (b) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director,
- the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of articles 8 to 16 (inclusive) and references in these articles to "directors" (other than in articles 8 to 16 (inclusive)) shall be construed as a reference to that sole director.

UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

- 8 (1) A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- (2) Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- (3) References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.
- (4) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

- 9 (1) Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

- (2) Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate —
 - (a) its proposed date and time;
 - (b) where it is to take place; and
 - (c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- (3) Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.
- (4) Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 10 (1) Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when —
 - (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
 - (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- (2) In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- (3) If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 11 (1) At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- (2) The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two.
- (3) If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision —

- (a) to appoint further directors, or
- (b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 12 (1) The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- (2) The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.
- (3) The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- (4) If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

CASTING VOTE

- 13 (1) If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.
- (2) But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 14 (1) If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.
- (2) But if paragraph (3) applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.
- (3) This paragraph applies when —
 - (a) the company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process;
 - (b) the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or
 - (c) the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.

- (4) For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes —
- (a) a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the company or any of its subsidiaries;
 - (b) subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for shares or other securities of the company or any of its subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such shares or securities; and
 - (c) arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors.
- (5) For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting.
- (6) Subject to paragraph (7), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.
- (7) If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

- 15 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

- 16 Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS

- 17 (1) No person shall be appointed as a director of the company without such person first agreeing in writing to become both a director and shareholder of the company.
- (2) Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director —
- (a) by ordinary resolution, or
- (b) by a decision of the directors.
- (3) In any case where, as a result of death or bankruptcy, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the transmittee(s) of the last shareholder to (as the case may be) have died or to have a bankruptcy order made against him has the right, by notice in writing to the company, to appoint a person who is willing to act as a director, and who is permitted by law to be a director, to be a director of the company. This director's appointment will take effect when the notice is received by the company (in accordance with the provisions of these articles) or any later date specified in the notice. In the circumstances where this article 17(2) applies, the requirements of article 17(1) shall not apply.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3), where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.

TERMINATION OF DIRECTORS' APPOINTMENT

- 18 A person ceases to be a director as soon as —
- (a) that person is removed as a director by ordinary resolution;
- (b) that person ceases to be a shareholder of the company;
- (c) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- (d) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- (e) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- (f) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

- (g) by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
- (h) notice in writing is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms.

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

- 19
- (1) Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.
 - (2) Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine —
 - (a) for their services to the company as directors, and
 - (b) for any other service which they undertake for the company.
 - (3) Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may—
 - (a) take any form, and
 - (b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.
 - (4) Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.
 - (5) Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration, which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.

DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

- The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at —
- (a) meetings of directors or committees of directors,
 - (b) general meetings, or
 - (c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company,
- or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

PART 3

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

SHARES

ALL SHARES TO BE FULLY PAID UP

- 21 (1) No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.
- (2) This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the company by the subscribers to the company's memorandum.

POWERS TO ISSUE DIFFERENT CLASSES OF SHARE

- 22 (1) Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.
- (2) The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

- 23 Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 24 (1) The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.
- (2) Every certificate must specify —
- (a) in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;
- (b) the nominal value of those shares;

- (c) that the shares are fully paid; and
 - (d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.
- (3) No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.
- (4) If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.
- (5) Certificates must —
 - (a) have affixed to them the company's common seal, or
 - (b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES

- (1) If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is —
 - (a) damaged or defaced, or
 - (b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed,
 - (c) that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.
 - (2) A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate —
 - (a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;
 - (b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
 - (c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

SHARE TRANSFERS

- 26
- (1) If any shareholder ceases to be a relevant individual for whatever reason (including termination by the company of the relationship with the relevant individual) then on the shareholder's cessation date there shall be deemed to have been served by the company on the shareholder a notice ("transfer notice") requiring the transfer of all of the shares standing in the name of the shareholder, together with any additional shares as may be allotted to the shareholder pursuant to the exercise or conversion

after the date on which the transfer notice is deemed served of any options, rights to subscribe for or securities convertible into shares ("sale shares"). The price at which the sale shares will be transferred will be £1 ("sale price") and the sale shares shall be transferred in accordance with the remaining provision of this article 26.

- (2) The sale shares shall be offered pursuant to the transfer notice as being available to be transferred to any person who is, or who at any time after the cessation date agrees to become, an employee of the company ("eligible transferee").
- (3) Any transfer notice served pursuant to article 26(1) shall be irrevocable.
- (4) Completion of the sale and purchase of sale shares pursuant to the transfer notice will take place at the company's registered office on the day that is the same day as an eligible transferee agrees to acquire the sale shares or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. On the completion date, the transferring shareholder shall, upon payment by the transferee of the sale price, deliver an executed and dated instrument of transfer in a form permitted by article 26(6) together with the share certificate(s) in respect of the sale shares so that such share certificate(s) can be cancelled.
- (5) If the transferring shareholder fails by the completion date to deliver an executed and dated instrument of transfer in respect of any of the sale shares together with the share certificate(s) in respect of the sale shares, any director of the company shall be and is hereby irrevocably authorised to:
 - (a) execute and complete an instrument of transfer in a form permitted by article 26(6) in respect of the sale shares for and on behalf of the transferring shareholder;
 - (b) execute and complete for and on behalf of the transferring shareholder any further documents and undertake any action which is or are necessary or desirable to give effect to the transfer of the sale shares to the transferee;
 - (c) against receipt by the company of the sale price (which shall be held by the company on trust for the transferring shareholder without interest), the company shall deliver the executed and completed instrument of transfer and any other documents executed pursuant to article 26(5)(b) to the transferee. The receipt of the sale price by the company shall be a good discharge to the transferee who will not be bound to see to the application of it;
 - (d) the directors will authorise registration of the transfer, and of the transferee as the holder of the sale shares, subject only to the payment of any stamp duty arising on the transfer. After registration, the title of the transferee as registered holder of the sale shares will not be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of the proceedings set out in this article 26(5), and such proceedings and the transferee's title to the shares will not be questioned by any person.
- (6) Shares may be transferred (including for the purposes of effecting any transfer of shares pursuant to articles 26(1) to 26(5) (inclusive)) by means of:

- (a) an instrument of transfer in writing in any usual form which is executed by or on behalf of the transferring shareholder; or
 - (b) otherwise by any other written form approved by the directors and which has been executed by or on behalf of the transferring shareholder.
- (7) No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- (8) The company may retain any instrument evidencing transfer of shares in respect of any transfer of shares registered by the directors.
- (9) The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.
- (10) Save in respect of a transfer of shares pursuant to articles 26(1) to 26(5) (inclusive), the directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer, or any other written document evidencing transfer of shares, must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.
- (11) When a transfer notice is deemed to have been served on a shareholder pursuant to article 26(1), all shares held by that shareholder shall cease from and including that date to confer any of the Suspended Rights. These rights shall be restored immediately upon the Company registering a transfer of the shares in accordance with the provisions of articles 26(1) to 26(10) (inclusive).

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 27
- (1) If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.
 - (2) A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require —
 - (a) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
 - (b) except where any rights are suspended rights, has the same rights in relation to the share as the holder had.

EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS

- 28
- (1) Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.
 - (2) If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
 - (3) Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

TRANSMITTEES BOUND BY PRIOR NOTICES

- 29
- (1) If a notice is given, or deemed to have been given, to a shareholder in respect of shares (including pursuant to article 26(1)) and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

- 30
- (1) The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
 - (2) A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
 - (3) No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.
