DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Company Law requires the Director to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the year, and the profit and loss for the year then ended.

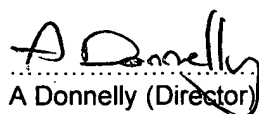

In preparing these accounts, the Director is required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them on a consistent basis, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable. The Director must also prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The Director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. The Director is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

SMALL COMPANY EXEMPTION

In preparing this report, the Director has taken advantage of the special exemption provisions of Section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 available to small companies.
