PART 2 DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

4. POWER TO CHANGE THE COMPANY'S NAME

The directors may from time to time change the name of the company.

5. MEMBERS' RESERVE POWER

- 5.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 5.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

6. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

6.1 Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

- 6.1.1 to such person or committee;
- 6.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);
- 6.1.3 to such an extent;
- 6.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and
- 6.1.5 on such terms and conditions

as they think fit. The power to delegate shall be effective in relation to the powers, authorities and discretions of the directors generally and shall not be limited by the fact that in certain of the articles, but not in others, express reference is made to particular powers, authorities or discretions being exercised by the directors or by a committee authorised by the directors.

6.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

6.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. COMMITTEES

7.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors and/or in accordance with the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time.

7.2 A member of a committee need not be a director.

7.3 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

8.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 9.

8.2 If:

- 8.2.1 the company only has one director, and
- 8.2.2 no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

9. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

- 9.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 9.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing signed by each eligible director (whether or not each signs the same document) or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 9.3 References in the articles to “eligible directors” are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors’ meeting (but excluding any director whose vote is not to be counted in respect of that particular matter).
- 9.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. CALLING A DIRECTORS’ MEETING

- 10.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders’ agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, any director may call a directors’ meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 10.2 Notice of any directors’ meeting must indicate:
 - 10.2.1 its proposed date and time;
 - 10.2.2 where it is to take place; and
 - 10.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 10.3 Subject to the terms of any shareholders’ agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, notice of a directors’ meeting need not be in writing and must be given to each director provided that, if a director is absent (whether habitually or temporarily) from the United Kingdom, the company has an address for the director for sending or receiving documents or information by electronic means to or from the director outside the United Kingdom.
- 10.4 Notice of a directors’ meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

11. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS’ MEETINGS

- 11.1 Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders’ agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, directors participate in a directors’ meeting, or part of a directors’ meeting, when
 - 11.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
 - 11.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

- 11.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 11.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

12. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 12.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, at a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 12.2 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors and unless otherwise fixed it is three provided that:
 - 12.2.1 if and so long as there is only one director the quorum shall be one; and
 - 12.2.2 for the purposes of any meeting held pursuant to article 16 to authorise a director's conflict, if there is only one director besides the director concerned and directors with a similar interest, the quorum shall be one.
- 12.3 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, if the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision
 - 12.3.1 to appoint further directors, or
 - 12.3.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.

13. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 13.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings and may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- 13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.
- 13.3 If no director has been appointed chairman, or the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

14. CASTING VOTE

- 14.1 If the numbers of votes validly cast for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting shall not have a casting vote.

15. DIRECTORS' INTERESTS IN TRANSACTIONS

- 15.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time and except to the extent that article 16 applies or the terms of any authority given under that article otherwise provide, and without prejudice to such disclosure as is required under the Companies Act 2006, a director may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company and shall be entitled for quorum and voting purposes to participate in the decision-making process on any resolution concerning a matter in which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty that conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company.

16. DIRECTORS' SITUATIONAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

16.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time and the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director may, notwithstanding his office or that, without the authorisation conferred by this article 16.1, he would or might be in breach of his duty under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest, be interested in shares or other securities issued by the company or be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or otherwise be interested in (whether by virtue of any contract or arrangement or otherwise) or owe any duty to, any Shareholder, any undertaking in the same group as the company, or promoted by the company or by any undertaking in the same group as the company, or in which the company or any undertaking in the same group as the company is otherwise interested.

16.2 No director shall:

16.2.1 by reason of his office be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any office or employment, or by virtue of any interest or duty, that he is authorised under article 16.1 to have (and no such benefit shall constitute a breach of the duty under the Companies Act 2006 not to accept benefits from third parties, and no transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such benefit);

16.2.2 be in breach of his duties as a director by reason only of his excluding himself from the receipt of information, or from participation in decision-making or discussion (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise), that will or may relate to any office, employment, interest or duty that he is authorised under article 16.1 to have; or

16.2.3 be required to disclose to the company, or use in relation to the company's affairs, any confidential information obtained by him in connection with any office or employment, or by virtue of any interest or duty, that he is authorised under article 16.1 to have if his doing so would result in a breach of a duty or an obligation of confidence owed by him in that connection.

16.3 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may, if the quorum and voting requirements set out below are satisfied, authorise any matter that would otherwise involve a director breaching his duty under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest, and any director (including the director concerned) may propose that the director concerned be authorised in relation to any matter the subject of such a conflict provided that:

16.3.1 such proposal and any authority given by the directors shall be effected in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the directors under the provisions of the articles, except that the director concerned and any other director with a similar interest:

- (a) shall not be counted for quorum purposes as participating in the decision-making process while the conflict is under consideration;
- (b) may, if the other directors so decide, be excluded from participating in the decision-making process while the conflict is under consideration; and

- (c) shall not vote on any resolution authorising the conflict except that, if any such director does vote, the resolution will still be valid if it would have been agreed to if his vote had not been counted; and 16.3.2 where the directors give authority in relation to such a conflict:

- (a) they may (whether at the time of giving the authority or at any time or times subsequently) impose such terms upon the director concerned as they may determine, including, without limitation, the exclusion of the director from the receipt of information or participation in any decision-making or discussion (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise) related to the matter giving rise to the conflict;
- (b) the director concerned will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed from time to time by the directors in relation to the conflict but will not be in breach of his duties as a director by reason of his doing so;
- (c) the authority may provide that, where the director concerned obtains (otherwise than by virtue of his position as a director of the company) information that is confidential to a third party, the director will not be obliged to disclose that information to the company, or to use the information in relation to the company's affairs, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
- (d) the authority may also provide that the director concerned shall not be accountable to the company for any benefit that he receives as a result of the matter giving rise to the conflict;
- (e) the receipt by the director concerned of any remuneration or benefit as a result of the matter giving rise to the conflict shall not constitute a breach of the duty under the Companies Act 2006 not to accept benefits from third parties;
- (f) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and
- (g) the directors may withdraw such authority at any time.

16.4 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time and article 16.5, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman, whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.

16.5 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, if any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

17. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

- 17.1 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in hard copy form, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

18. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS19. METHODS OF APPOINTING AND REMOVING DIRECTORS

- 19.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director:

19.1.1 by ordinary resolution, or

19.1.2 by a decision of the directors.

- 19.2 If the company has no directors and, by virtue of death or bankruptcy, no member is capable of acting, the transmittee of the last member to have died or to have had a bankruptcy order made against him has the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.

- 19.3 For the purposes of article 19.2, where two or more members die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger member is deemed to have survived an older member.

- 19.4 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, a Shareholder may appoint any person to be a director, whether as an additional director or to fill a vacancy, and may remove from office any director howsoever appointed and any alternate director. Any such appointment or removal shall be effected by notice in writing to the company by the relevant member or members. Any such appointment or removal shall take effect when it is delivered to the registered office of the company or, if it is produced at a meeting of the directors, when it is so produced or, if sent by electronic means to an address generally used by the company, when it is sent (and article 80.2 shall not apply to it). Any such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim that a director may have under any contract between him and the company.

20. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT

- 20.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, a person ceases to be a director as soon as:

20.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;

20.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

20.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

- 20.1.4 he becomes, in the opinion of all his co-directors, physically or mentally incapable of discharging his duties as a director;
- 20.1.5 notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms; or
- 20.1.6 he is otherwise duly removed from office.

21. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION AND EXPENSES

- 21.1 Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.

22. INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

23. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 23.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, any director may appoint as an alternate any other director, or any other person, to:
 - 23.1.1 exercise that director's powers; and
 - 23.1.2 carry out that director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors, in the absence of the alternate's appointor.
- 23.2 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, any appointment or removal of an alternate must identify the proposed alternate and be effected by notice in writing to the company signed by his appointor, or in any other manner approved by the directors.

24. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 24.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, an alternate director may act as alternate director to more than one director and has the same rights in relation to any decision of the directors as the alternate's appointor.
- 24.2 Except as the articles or the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time specify otherwise, alternate directors:
 - 24.2.1 are deemed for all purposes to be directors;
 - 24.2.2 are liable for their own acts and omissions;
 - 24.2.3 are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and
 - 24.2.4 are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors and, in particular (without limitation), each alternate director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of directors and of all meetings of committees of directors of which his appointor is a member.

- 24.3 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, a person who is an alternate is entitled, in the absence of his appointor, to form part of the quorum and vote as alternate (in addition to his own vote if he is a director and to any other vote he may have as alternate for another appointor) in any decision-making of the directors, but:
- 24.3.1 only if his appointor is an eligible director in relation to that decision;
 - 24.3.2 not if he is himself a director but is not so eligible; and
 - 24.3.3 he shall not count as more than one director for the purposes of determining whether there is a quorum, whether in relation to a meeting of the directors or a unanimous decision.
- 24.4 Where an alternate participates in a unanimous decision it is not necessary for his appointor also to participate in it.
- 24.5 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the company.

25. TERMINATION OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORSHIP

Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, an alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:

- 25.1.1 when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;
- 25.1.2 on the occurrence, in relation to the alternate, of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
- 25.1.3 on the death of the alternate's appointor;
- 25.1.4 when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates; or
- 25.1.5 when the alternate is removed in accordance with the articles.

PART 3 SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

SHARES

26. PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

- 26.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the company may purchase its own shares (including redeemable shares) in any manner permitted by the Companies Act 2006, including in accordance with section 692(1ZA).

27. POWERS TO ISSUE DIFFERENT CLASSES OF SHARE

- 27.1 Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution or, if no such resolution has been passed or so far as the resolution does not make specific provision, as the directors may decide.
- 27.2 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

28. PAYMENT OF COMMISSIONS ON SUBSCRIPTION FOR SHARES

- 28.1 The company may pay any person a commission in consideration for that person:
- 28.1.1 subscribing, or agreeing to subscribe, for shares; or
 - 28.1.2 procuring, or agreeing to procure, subscription for shares.
- 28.2 Any such commission may be paid:
- 28.2.1 in cash, or in fully paid or partly paid shares or other securities, or partly in one way and partly in the other; and
 - 28.2.2 in respect of a conditional or an absolute subscription.

29. COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

30. EXCLUSION OF STATUTORY PRE-EMPTION PROVISIONS

Sections 561 and 562 of the Companies Act 2006 shall not apply to an allotment of equity securities made by the company but the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time shall apply on an allotment of equity securities made by the company.

31. FRACTIONAL ENTITLEMENTS

- 31.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, where there has been a consolidation or division of shares and, as a result, members are entitled to fractions of shares, the directors may:
- 31.1.1 sell the shares representing the fractions to any person including the company for the best price reasonably obtainable;
 - 31.1.2 authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser; and
 - 31.1.3 distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among the holders of the shares.

- 31.2 Where any holder's entitlement to a portion of the proceeds of sale under article 31.1 amounts to less than a minimum figure determined by the directors, that member's portion may be retained for the benefit of the company.
- 31.3 The person to whom the shares are transferred pursuant to article 31.1 is not obliged to ensure that any purchase money is received by the person entitled to the relevant fractions. The transferee's title to the shares is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to their sale.

LIEN AND FORFEITURE

32. COMPANY'S LIEN OVER SHARES

- 32.1 The company has a lien (the "company's lien") over every share which is partly paid for any part of:
- (a) that share's nominal value; and
 - (b) any premium at which it was issued,
- which has not been paid to the company, and which is payable immediately or at some time in the future, whether or not a call notice has been sent in respect of it.
- 32.2 The company's lien over a share:
- 32.2.1 takes priority over any third party's interest in that share; and
 - 32.2.2 extends to any dividend or other money payable by the company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the company) the proceeds of sale of that share.
- 32.3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part.

33. ENFORCEMENT OF THE COMPANY'S LIEN

- 33.1 Subject to the provisions of this article, if:
- 33.1.1 a lien enforcement notice has been given in respect of a share; and
 - 33.1.2 the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it,
- the company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide subject to the right of first refusal restrictions of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, whereby such restrictions (as appropriately adjusted) are deemed applicable in this instance.
- 33.2 A lien enforcement notice:
- 33.2.1 may only be given in respect of a share which is subject to the company's lien, in respect of which a sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed;
 - 33.2.2 must specify the share concerned;
 - 33.2.3 must require payment of the sum within 14 clear days of the notice;
 - 33.2.4 must be addressed either to the holder of the share or to a transmittee of that holder; and

- 33.2.5 must state the company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with.
- 33.3 Where shares are sold under this article:
 - 33.3.1 the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or to a person nominated by the purchaser; and
 - 33.3.2 the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration, and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale.
- 33.4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) must be applied:
 - 33.4.1 first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice; and
 - 33.4.2 second, to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the company for cancellation, or an indemnity in a form reasonably satisfactory to the directors has been given for any lost certificates, and subject to a lien equivalent to the company's lien over the shares before the sale for any money payable (whether immediately or at some time in the future) after the date of the lien enforcement notice.
- 33.5 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary (if any) that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been sold to satisfy the company's lien on a specified date:
 - 33.5.1 is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; and
 - 33.5.2 subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.

34. CALL NOTICES

- 34.1 Subject to the articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (a "call notice") to a member requiring the member to pay the company a specified sum of money (a "call") which is payable in respect of his shares at the date when the directors decide to send the call notice.
- 34.2 A call notice:
 - 34.2.1 may not require a member to pay a call which exceeds the total sum unpaid on the shares (whether as to nominal value or any amount payable to the company by way of premium);
 - 34.2.2 must state when and how any call to which it relates is to be paid; and
 - 34.2.3 may permit or require the call to be made in instalments.
- 34.3 A member must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no member is obliged to pay any call before 14 clear days have passed since the notice was sent.
- 34.4 Before the company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may:
 - 34.4.1 revoke it wholly or in part; or
 - 34.4.2 specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice, by a further notice in writing to the member in respect of whose shares the call is made.

- 34.5 The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance them all or any part of the monies unpaid and uncalled upon the shares held by him and may pay interest upon the monies so advanced (to the extent such monies exceed the amount of the calls due and payable upon the shares in respect of which they have been advanced) at such rate (not exceeding 15 per cent. per annum unless the company by ordinary resolution otherwise directs) as the directors may determine. A payment in advance of calls shall extinguish, to the extent of it, the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is advanced.

35. LIABILITY TO PAY CALLS

- 35.1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid.
- 35.2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share.
- 35.3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them:
- 35.3.1 to pay calls which are not the same; or
- 35.3.2 to pay calls at different times.

36. WHEN CALL NOTICE NEED NOT BE ISSUED

- 36.1 A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is issued, as being payable to the company in respect of that share:
- 36.1.1 on allotment;
- 36.1.2 on the occurrence of a particular event; or
- 36.1.3 on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue.
- 36.2 But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture.

37. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH CALL NOTICE: AUTOMATIC CONSEQUENCES

- 37.1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date:
- 37.1.1 the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person; and
- 37.1.2 until the call is paid, that person must pay the company interest on the call from the call payment date at the relevant rate.
- 37.2 For the purposes of this article:
- 37.2.1 the “call payment date” is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors give a notice specifying a later date, in which case it is that later date; and
- 37.2.2 the “relevant rate” is
- (a) the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted;

- (b) such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which required payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors; or
- (c) if no rate is fixed in either of these ways, 5 per cent per annum.

37.3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than 5 percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998.

37.4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part.

38. NOTICE OF INTENDED FORFEITURE

A notice of intended forfeiture:

- 38.1.1 may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by a call notice;
- 38.1.2 must be sent to the holder of that share (or all the joint holders of that share) or to a transmittee of that holder;
- 38.1.3 must require payment of the call and any accrued interest and all expenses that may have been incurred by the company by reason of such non-payment by a date which is not less than 14 clear days after the date of the notice;
- 38.1.4 must state how the payment is to be made; and
- 38.1.5 must state that, if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

39. DIRECTORS' POWER TO FORFEIT SHARES

If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

40. EFFECT OF FORFEITURE

40.1 Subject to the articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes:

- 40.1.1 all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the company in respect of it; and
- 40.1.2 all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the company.

40.2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the articles:

- 40.2.1 is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited;
- 40.2.2 is deemed to be the property of the company; and
- 40.2.3 may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit subject to the right of first refusal restrictions of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, whereby such restrictions (as appropriately adjusted) are deemed applicable in this instance.

40.3 If a person's shares have been forfeited:

- 40.3.1 the company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of members;
 - 40.3.2 that person ceases to be a member in respect of those shares;
 - 40.3.3 that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the company for cancellation;
 - 40.3.4 that person remains liable to the company for all sums payable by that person under the articles at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture); and
 - 40.3.5 the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.
- 40.4 At any time before the company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls, interest and expenses due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fit.

41. PROCEDURE FOLLOWING FORFEITURE

- 41.1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer.
- 41.2 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date:
- 41.2.1 is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; and
 - 41.2.2 subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.
- 41.3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share.
- 41.4 If the company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which:
- 41.4.1 was, or would have become, payable; and
 - 41.4.2 had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share,
- but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the company is not required to account for any money earned on them.

42. SURRENDER OF SHARES

- 42.1 A member may surrender any share:
- 42.1.1 in respect of which the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture;
 - 42.1.2 which the directors may forfeit; or

42.1.3 which has been forfeited.

42.2 The directors may accept the surrender of any such share.

42.3 The effect of surrender on a share is the same as the effect of forfeiture on that share.

42.4 A share which has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited.

43. SHARE CERTIFICATES

43.1 The company must issue each member, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that member holds.

43.2 Every certificate must specify:

43.2.1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;

43.2.2 the nominal value of those shares;

43.2.3 the amount paid up on them; and

43.2.4 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

43.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

43.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

43.5 Certificates must:

43.5.1 have affixed to them the company's common seal; or

43.5.2 be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

43.6 The directors may determine, either generally or in relation to any particular case, that any signature on any certificate need not be autographic but may be applied by some mechanical or other means, or printed on the certificate, or that certificates need not be signed.

44. REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES

44.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a member's shares is:

44.1.1 damaged or defaced, or

44.1.2 said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that member is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

44.2 A member exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:

44.2.1 may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;

44.2.2 must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and

44.2.3 must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

45. SHARE TRANSFERS

45.1 No share (or any legal and/or beneficial interest therein) may be transferred or disposed of and the directors shall not register the transfer of any share unless such transfer or disposal is made in accordance with these articles and subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time.

- 45.2 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, if the shares are not fully paid, the transferee.
- 45.3 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- 45.4 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- 45.5 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.
- 45.6 Except as the articles or the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time otherwise provide, the directors, in their absolute discretion, may refuse to register the transfer of a share, whether or not it is fully paid, and if they do so, they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged send the transferee the notice of refusal together with their reasons for refusal and, unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent, the instrument of transfer.

46. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 46.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.
- 46.2 Nothing in these articles releases the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of a share solely or jointly held by that member.
- 46.3 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:
 - 46.3.1 may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
 - 46.3.2 subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.
- 46.4 But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise unless they become the holders of those shares.

47. EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS

- 47.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.
- 47.2 If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- 47.3 Any notice or transfer given or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred, and so that the notice or transfer is treated in the same way under the articles as a transfer executed by that person.

- 47.4 The directors may at any time give notice to the transmittee requiring him to elect either to become a holder of the shares or to transfer the shares to another person, and if the notice is not complied with within 60 days from the date of the notice, the directors may withhold payment of all dividends and other monies payable in respect of the shares until he complies with the notice.

48. TAG-ALONG RIGHTS

- 48.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, a Shareholder may transfer its shares to the extent it wishes to exercise its Tag Along Right (as defined below) (any such Shareholder a "Tagging Shareholder") and is exercising or complying with its rights or obligations pursuant to articles 49 to 52 below.

49. CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH TAG-ALONG RIGHTS WILL APPLY

- 49.1 Save as otherwise agreed in writing between the Shareholders, including subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, if a Shareholder holding a majority of the shares (the "Tag Triggering Seller") proposes to make a transfer of at least 15% of the total number of shares in the capital of the company to a third party (the "Tag Transferee") other than to any person where a Drag-Along Notice has been served (and has not lapsed) (the "Tag-Along Sale"), the Tag Triggering Seller shall procure that the other Shareholder has the opportunity ("Tag-Along Right") to transfer to the Tag Transferee the same proportion of its shares as being sold by the Tag Triggering Seller (the "Tag-Along Shares") in accordance with the provisions of this article 49 and articles 50 to 52.
- 49.2 The Tag-Along Right shall not apply to any transfer of shares following or as part of a Listing which shall be governed by the provisions of any lock-up agreement and/or orderly marketing agreement.

50. TAG-ALONG MECHANISM

- 50.1 Not more than five Business Days following the execution of definitive agreements in respect of any proposed Tag-Along Sale, and in any event, not less than 30 Business Days before the completion of any proposed Tag-Along Sale, the Tag Triggering Seller shall deliver to the company and the other Shareholder(s) a written notice (a "Tag-Along Notice") which notice shall set out (to the extent not described in any accompanying documents):
- 50.1.1 the identity of the Tag Transferee;
 - 50.1.2 subject to article 50.2 below, the type and amount of consideration to be paid by the Tag Transferee for the Tag-Along Shares;
 - 50.1.3 the proposed date of the transfer (if known); and
 - 50.1.4 all other material terms and conditions, if any, of the Tag-Along Sale.
- 50.2 The Tagging Shareholder shall be entitled to transfer its shares to the Tag Transferee:
- 50.2.1 at the same time as the transfer by the Tag Triggering Seller;
 - 50.2.2 for the same type and amount of consideration as for the corresponding shares being sold by the Tag Triggering Seller; and

- 50.2.3 on substantially the same (and in any event, no less favourable) economic terms (including participating in any escrow arrangements on the same terms),
- provided that a Tagging Shareholder shall be offered a cash alternative to any non-cash consideration being paid for the Tag Triggering Seller's shares.
- 50.3 If a Shareholder wishes to exercise its Tag-Along Right, the Tagging Shareholder shall notify the Tag Triggering Seller within 10 Business Days following the date of the Tag-Along Notice (the "Acceptance Period") that it wishes to exercise its Tag-Along Right (each such notice a "Notification").
- 50.4 Following the expiry of the Acceptance Period, the Tag Triggering Seller shall deliver to the Tagging Shareholder, not less than 20 Business Days prior to the proposed Tag-Along Sale, a definitive agreement (along with any ancillary transfer instruments) to effect the sale of its Tag-Along Shares to the Tag Transferee.
- 50.5 The Tagging Shareholder shall:
- 50.5.1 not less than two Business Days prior to the anticipated date of the proposed transfer, return to the Tag Triggering Seller the duly executed documents and, if a certificate has been issued in respect of the relevant shares, the relevant certificate(s) (or an indemnity in respect of any missing certificates in a form satisfactory to the directors) all of which shall be held against payment of the aggregate consideration due to them;
 - 50.5.2 give warranties to the Tag Transferee as to the title to its Tag-Along Shares and its capacity to transfer the Tag-Along Shares on the same basis as the Tag Triggering Seller (but such warranties to be given by the Tag Transferee shall be limited to title and capacity);
 - 50.5.3 bear an amount of any reasonable and properly incurred costs of the Tag-Along Sale (to the extent such costs are not paid by a Group Company) in the same proportion as the consideration (of whatever form) received by it bears to the aggregate consideration paid pursuant to the Tag-Along Sale;
 - 50.5.4 participate in any escrow arrangements agreed between the Tag Triggering Seller and Tag Transferee in connection with the Tag-Along Sale on the same basis as the Tag Triggering Seller subject to such escrow arrangements relating to the retention of no more than 25% of the consideration for title and capacity warranty claims and the escrow period being less than twelve months; and
 - 50.5.5 procure (in as far as they are reasonably able) that any directors of the company appointed by it vote in favour of the Tag-Along Sale.
- 50.6 The Tag Triggering Seller shall furnish or shall procure that the Tag Transferee furnishes such evidence of completion of such Tag-Along Sale as may be reasonably requested by the Tagging Shareholder.
- 50.7 The Tagging Shareholder shall be entitled to receive its consideration pursuant to the Tag-Along Sale (less its share of the costs of the Tag Along Sale) at the same time as the Tag Triggering Seller.

51. NON-ACCEPTANCE BY SHAREHOLDERS

- 51.1 If a Shareholder waives its Tag-Along Rights, the Tag-Along Sale is permitted to be made provided:

51.1.1 it is completed within 60 Business Days of the expiry of the Acceptance Period (or, where any anti-trust, regulatory or other third party conditions are required to be satisfied before the Tag-Along Sale can be completed, by the long-stop date for the satisfaction of such conditions in the Tag-Along Sale documentation (as agreed between the Tag Triggering Seller and the Tag Transferee)); and 51.1.2 it takes place on terms and conditions no more favourable to the Tag Triggering Seller in any material respect to those stated in the Tag-Along Notice.

52. NON-COMPLETION

52.1 If the Tag-Along Sale is not completed within the period set out in article 51.1.1 above, the Tag Triggering Seller shall promptly return to the Tagging Shareholder all documents (if any) previously delivered in respect of the Tag-Along Sale, and all the restrictions on transfer contained in the articles with respect to shares held or owned by the Tag Triggering Seller and such Tagging Shareholder shall again be in effect.

53. DRAG ALONG RIGHTS

53.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, a Shareholder may transfer its shares to the extent it is triggering a Drag-Along Sale (as defined below) or to the extent a Shareholder is a Dragged Shareholder (as defined below) and is exercising or complying with its rights or obligations pursuant to articles 54 to 55 below.

54. CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH DRAG ALONG RIGHTS APPLY

54.1 Save as otherwise agreed in writing between the Shareholders, including subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, if a Shareholder holding more than a majority of the shares (the "Drag Triggering Seller") proposes to make a transfer of all of its shares to a bona fide third party (the "Drag Transferee") which would, on its completion, result in a Sale (a "Drag-Along Sale"), the Drag Triggering Seller shall have the right to require the other Shareholder(s) (the "Dragged Shareholder") to transfer to the Drag Transferee all of its shares (the "Drag-Along Shares") in accordance with the provisions of this article 54 and articles 55 and 56.

54.2 The Drag Triggering Seller shall consult with and keep the Dragged Shareholder informed of any negotiations with a Drag Transferee and the progress of a potential Drag-Along Sale.

55. DRAG ALONG MECHANISM

55.1 Not more than five Business Days following the execution of definitive agreements in respect of any proposed Drag-Along Sale, and in any event, not less than 20 Business Days before the proposed completion date of such Drag-Along Sale, the Drag Triggering Seller shall give written notice to the company and the Dragged Shareholder (the "Drag-Along Notice") which notice shall set out (to the extent not described in any accompanying documentation):

55.1.1 that the Dragged Shareholder is required to transfer its Drag-Along Shares in the event of a Drag-Along Sale;

55.1.2 the identity of the Drag Transferee;

55.1.3 subject to the below, the type and amount of consideration to be paid by the Drag Transferee for the Drag-Along Shares;

- 55.1.4 the proposed date of the transfer (if known); and
 - 55.1.5 all other material terms and conditions, if any, of the Drag-Along Sale.
- 55.2 Upon receipt of the Drag-Along Notice, the Dragged Shareholder shall be required to transfer its shares to the Drag Transferee:
- 55.2.1 at the same time as the transfer by the Drag Triggering Seller;
 - 55.2.2 subject to article 55.3 below, for the same type and amount of consideration as for the corresponding shares being sold by the Drag Triggering Seller; and
 - 55.2.3 on substantially the same economic terms (including participating in any escrow arrangements on the same terms subject to such escrow arrangements relating to the retention of no more than 25% of the consideration for title and capacity warranty claims and the escrow period being less than six months) as are agreed between the Drag Triggering Seller and the Drag Transferee,
- provided that a Dragged Shareholder shall be offered a cash alternative to any non-cash consideration being paid for the Drag Triggering Seller's shares.
- 55.3 The validity of a Drag-Along Sale pursuant to the provisions of this article 55 shall not be affected by the Drag Transferee offering different forms of consideration to the Drag Triggering Seller and/or the Dragged Shareholder provided that:
- 55.3.1 on the date of the transfer, the value of the consideration offered per Drag-Along Shares is at least equal to the value offered for the corresponding shares of the Drag Triggering Seller; and
 - 55.3.2 to the extent that the Drag Triggering Seller is receiving cash as consideration for its shares, the Dragged Shareholder shall also be entitled to receive cash consideration on equivalent terms to the Drag Triggering Seller, in respect of the same class of shares and in the same proportions.
- 55.4 The Drag-Along Notice shall be accompanied by copies of all documents required to be executed by the Dragged Shareholder to give effect to the Drag-Along Sale.
- 55.5 The Dragged Shareholder, upon receipt of the Drag-Along Notice and accompanying documents, shall be obliged to:
- 55.5.1 sell its Drag-Along Shares and participate in the Drag-Along Sale (including giving warranties to the Drag Transferee as to the title to its Drag-Along Shares and its capacity to transfer the Drag-Along Shares on the same basis as the Drag Triggering Seller (but such warranties to be given by the Drag Transferee shall be limited to title and capacity)) on the terms set out in the Drag-Along Notice and supporting documents;
 - 55.5.2 not less than two Business Days prior to the anticipated completion date of the Drag-Along Sale, return to the Drag Triggering Seller the duly executed documents and, if a certificate has been issued in respect of the relevant shares, the relevant certificates(s) (or an indemnity in respect of any missing certificates in a form satisfactory to the board) all of which shall be held against payment of the aggregate consideration due to them;
 - 55.5.3 bear an amount of any costs of the Drag-Along Sale (to the extent such costs are not paid by a Group Company) which it incurs in respect of the Drag Along Sale;

- 55.5.4 vote its shares in favour of the Drag-Along Sale at any meeting of Shareholders (or any class thereof) called to vote on or approve the Drag-Along Sale and/or consent in writing to the Drag-Along Sale; and
 - 55.5.5 procure (in as far as they are reasonably able) that any directors of the company appointed by it vote in favour of the Drag-Along Sale.
- 55.6 The Dragged Shareholder shall be entitled to receive its consideration pursuant to the Drag-Along Sale at the same time as the Drag Triggering Seller.

56. NON-COMPLETION

- 56.1 If the Drag-Along Sale has not been completed by the earlier of:
- 56.1.1 the date which is 60 Business Days following the date of the Drag-Along Notice (or, where any anti-trust, regulatory or other third party conditions are required to be satisfied before the Drag-Along Sale can be completed, by the long-stop date for the satisfaction of such conditions in the Drag-Along Sale documentation (as agreed between the Drag Triggering Seller and the Drag Transferee));
 - 56.1.2 the date on which the Drag Triggering Seller sends a written notice to the Dragged Shareholder that the Drag-Along Sale will not be completed,
- the Drag-Along Notice shall cease to be of effect and the Dragged Shareholder shall be irrevocably released from such obligations under the Drag-Along Notice and the rights of the Drag Triggering Seller pursuant to article 55 shall be reinstated.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

57. PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

- 57.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time:
- 57.1.1 the company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends; and
 - 57.1.2 a dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount and such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 57.2 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with members' respective rights.
- 57.3 Unless the members' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each member's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
- 57.4 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears.
- 57.5 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.

- 57.6 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

58. CALCULATION AND CURRENCY OF DIVIDENDS

- 58.1 Except as otherwise provided by the articles or the rights attached to shares, all dividends must be:

58.1.1 declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid; and

58.1.2 apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; and any dividends or other monies payable on or in respect of any share may be declared in any currency or currencies, and paid in the same currency or currencies or in any other currency or currencies, as the directors may determine, using where required such basis of conversion (including the rate and timing of conversion) as the directors decide.

- 58.2 If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.

- 58.3 For the purposes of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount.

59. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

- 59.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:

59.1.1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;

59.1.2 sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;

59.1.3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or

59.1.4 any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.

- 59.2 In the articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:

59.2.1 the holder of the share; or

59.2.2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or

59.2.3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

60. DEDUCTIONS FROM DISTRIBUTIONS IN RESPECT OF SUMS OWED TO THE COMPANY

60.1 If:

60.1.1 a share is subject to the company's lien; and

60.1.2 the directors are entitled to issue a lien enforcement notice in respect of it, they may, instead of issuing a lien enforcement notice, deduct from any dividend or other sum payable in respect of the share any sum of money which is payable to the company in respect of that share to the extent that they are entitled to require payment under a lien enforcement notice.

60.2 Money so deducted must be used to pay any of the sums payable in respect of that share.

60.3 The company must notify the distribution recipient in writing of:

60.3.1 the fact and amount of any such deduction;

60.3.2 any non-payment of a dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share resulting from any such deduction; and 60.3.3 how the money deducted has been applied.

61. NO INTEREST ON DISTRIBUTIONS

The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:

61.1.1 the terms on which the share was issued,

61.1.2 the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time;

61.1.3 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company.

62. UNCLAIMED DISTRIBUTIONS

62.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

62.1.1 payable in respect of shares, and

62.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable, may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

62.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

62.3 If:

62.3.1 12 years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and

62.3.2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company.

63. NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

- 63.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question and the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).
- 63.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:
- 63.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;
 - 63.2.2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
 - 63.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

64. WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

- 64.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if:
- 64.1.1 the share has more than one holder, or
 - 64.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise,
- the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

65. DISTRIBUTION IN SPECIE ON WINDING UP

- 65.1 If the company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by law, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. The liquidator may, with such sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of members as the liquidator with such sanction determines, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS66. AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

- 66.1 Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:
- 66.1.1 decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of any fund or reserve, including but not limited to the share premium account, capital redemption reserve, merger reserve, redenomination reserve or revaluation reserve; and

- 66.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a “capitalised sum”) to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the “persons entitled”) and in the same proportions.
- 66.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:
- 66.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled, and
- 66.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them
- and the company shall for the purposes of this article be deemed to be such a member in relation to any shares held as treasury shares which, if not so held, would have ranked for any such distribution by way of dividend, but only insofar as the appropriated sum is to be applied in paying up in full shares of the company.
- 66.3 Subject to the terms of any shareholders’ agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 66.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied:
- 66.4.1 in or towards paying up any amounts unpaid on existing shares held by the persons entitled; or
- 66.4.2 in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 66.5 Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders’ agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may:
- 66.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 66.3 and 66.4 partly in one way and partly in another:
- 66.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and
- 66.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article.

PART 4

DECISION-MAKING BY MEMBERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

67. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 67.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 67.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:
- 67.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and 67.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

67.3 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, the directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

67.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

67.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

68. QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum. Two Shareholders present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum at any general meeting.

69. CHAIRING GENERAL MEETINGS

69.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

69.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:

69.2.1 the directors present, or

69.2.2 (if no directors are present), the meeting,

must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

69.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as "the chairman of the meeting".

70. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING BY DIRECTORS AND NON-MEMBERS

70.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are members.

70.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not:

70.2.1 members, or

70.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of members in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

71. ADJOURNMENT

71.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, if the meeting was convened by the members, the meeting shall be dissolved and, in any other case, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it. If at the adjourned meeting the persons attending within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, the members present shall constitute a quorum.

- 71.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:
- 71.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or
 - 71.2.2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- 71.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
- 71.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:
- 71.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
 - 71.4.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 71.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least seven clear days' notice of it:
- 71.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and
 - 71.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 71.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

72. VOTING: GENERAL

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.

73. ERRORS AND DISPUTES

- 73.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 73.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

74. POLL VOTES

- 74.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:
- 74.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
 - 74.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- 74.2 A poll on a resolution may be demanded by the chairman of the meeting, the directors or by any qualifying person (as defined in section 318 of the Companies Act 2006) present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

74.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

74.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken, and

74.3.2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

A demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

74.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.

75. CONTENT OF PROXY NOTICES

75.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which:

75.1.1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;

75.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member’s proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

75.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and

75.1.4 is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting in relation to which the proxy is appointed and in accordance with any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate (but notwithstanding this an appointment of a proxy may be accepted by the directors at any time prior to the meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote (or, where a poll is demanded at the meeting, but not taken forthwith, at any time prior to the taking of the poll)).

75.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

75.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions, but the company shall not be obliged to ascertain that any proxy has complied with those or any other instructions given by the appointor and no decision on any resolution shall be vitiated by reason only that any proxy has not done so.

75.4 On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more members entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote, except that if the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution and:

75.4.1 has been instructed by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more other of those members to vote against it, or

75.4.2 has been instructed to vote the same way (either for or against) on the resolution by all of those members except those who have given the proxy discretion as to how to vote on the resolution the proxy is entitled to one vote for and one vote against the resolution.

75.5 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

75.5.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and

75.5.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

76. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

- 76.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
- 76.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 76.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 76.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

77. AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

- 77.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- 77.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
 - 77.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 77.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- 77.2.1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - 77.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- 77.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

78. NO VOTING OF SHARES ON WHICH MONEY OWED TO COMPANY

- 78.1 No voting rights attached to a share may be exercised at any general meeting, at any adjournment of it, or on any poll called at or in relation to it, or in relation to any written resolution of the company unless all amounts payable to the company in respect of that share have been paid.

APPLICATION OF RULES TO CLASS MEETINGS

79. CLASS MEETINGS

- 79.1 The provisions of the articles relating to general meetings apply, with any necessary modifications, to meetings of the holders of any class of shares.

PART 5

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

80. MEANS OF COMMUNICATION TO BE USED

- 80.1 Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company.
- 80.2 Except insofar as the Companies Acts or the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time requires otherwise, the company shall not be obliged to accept any notice, document or other information sent or supplied to the company in electronic form unless it satisfies such stipulations, conditions or restrictions (including, without limitation, for the purpose of authentication) as the directors think fit, and the company shall be entitled to require any such notice, document or information to be sent or supplied in hard copy form instead.
- 80.3 In the case of joint holders of a share, except insofar as the articles otherwise provide, all notices, documents or other information shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register of members in respect of the joint holding and shall be deemed to have been given to all the joint holders. For all purposes, including the execution of any appointment of proxy, resolution in writing, notice or other document (including anything sent or supplied in electronic form) executed or approved pursuant to any provision of the articles, execution by any one of such joint holders shall be deemed to be and shall be accepted as execution by all the joint holders.
- 80.4 In the case of a member that is a corporation, for all purposes, including the execution of any appointment of proxy, resolution in writing, notice or other document (including anything sent or supplied in electronic form) executed or approved pursuant to any provision of the articles, execution by any director or the secretary of that corporation or any other person who appears to any officer of the company (acting reasonably and in good faith) to have been duly authorised to execute shall be deemed to be and shall be accepted as execution by that corporation.
- 80.5 A member whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom and who notifies the company of an address within the United Kingdom at which notices, documents or other information may be served on or delivered to him shall be entitled to have such things served on or delivered to him at that address (in the manner referred to above), but otherwise no such member shall be entitled to receive any notice, document or other information from the company. If the address is that member's address for sending or receiving documents or information by electronic means the directors may at any time without prior notice (and whether or not the company has previously sent or supplied any documents or information in electronic form to that address) refuse to send or supply any documents or information to that address.

- 80.6 Subject to the articles and the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.
- 80.7 A director may agree with the company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 24 hours.
- 80.8 Every person who becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share which, before his name is entered in the register of members, has been given to the person from whom he derives his title.

81. WHEN INFORMATION SENT BY THE COMPANY DEEMED TO HAVE BEEN RECEIVED

- 81.1 Subject to the terms of any shareholders' agreement to which the holders of a majority of the ordinary shares are a party from time to time, any document or information sent or supplied by the company shall be deemed (subject to article 80.7) to have been received by the intended recipient:
