PART 2, DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

6 Directors' general authority

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the Club's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Club.

7 Members' reserve power

7.1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

7.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

8 Directors may delegate

8.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

8.1.1 to such person or committee;

8.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);

8.1.3 to such an extent;

8.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and

8.1.5 on such terms and conditions

as they think fit. The power to delegate shall be effective in relation to the powers, authorities and discretions of the directors generally and shall not be limited by the fact that in certain of the articles, but not in others, express reference is made to particular powers, authorities or discretions being exercised by the directors or by a committee authorised by the directors.

8.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

8.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

9 Committees

9.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

9.2 A member of a committee need not be a director.

- 9.3 The directors may make Rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over Rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.
- 9.4 The committee appointed pursuant to article 22 shall be collectively responsible for the day to day operation and management of the Club.
- 9.5 The committee's decision-making process is that any decision of the committee shall be way of a simple majority of votes.
- 9.6 Notwithstanding article 9.5, the board have a right to veto any decision of the committee which might prejudice the directors' fiduciary duties, statutory duties and common law duties to the Club and/ or shall cause the Club's affairs to be conducted in a manner which is unfairly prejudicial to the interests of the members or of some part of the members (for the avoidance of doubt, this article 9.6 shall not confer any right on any member which such member would not have under general law including the Companies Act 2006).
- 9.7 The quorum for meetings of the committee formed pursuant to the provisions of the articles shall be determined by the board and, if relevant, shall be set out in the Rules.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

10 Directors to take decisions collectively

- 10.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 11.
- 10.2 If:
- 10.2.1 the Club only has one director; and
 - 10.2.2 no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director,
- the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

11 Unanimous decisions

- 11.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 11.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing signed by each eligible director (whether or not each signs the same document) or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 11.3 References in the articles to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting (but excluding any director whose vote is not to be counted in respect of that particular matter).

- 11.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

12 Calling a directors' meeting

- 12.1 The directors shall meet for the dispatch of business as they think fit. For the avoidance of doubt, the directors' attendance at a committee meeting shall constitute a directors' meeting.

- 12.2 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

- 12.3 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:

12.3.1 its proposed date and time;

12.3.2 where it is to take place; and

12.3.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

- 12.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be in writing and must be given to each director provided that, if a director is absent (whether habitually or temporarily) from the United Kingdom, the Club has an address for sending or receiving documents or information by electronic means to or from that director outside the United Kingdom.

- 12.5 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Club not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

13 Participation in directors' meetings

- 13.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when

13.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and

13.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

- 13.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

- 13.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

14 Quorum for directors' meetings

- 14.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

- 14.2 The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors and unless otherwise fixed it is two provided that:

14.2.1 if and so long as there is only one director the quorum shall be one; and

14.2.2 for the purposes of any meeting held pursuant to article 18 to authorise a director's conflict, if there is only one director besides the director concerned and directors with a similar interest, the quorum shall be one.

- 14.3 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

14.3.1 to appoint further directors; or

14.3.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.

15 Chairing of directors' meetings

- 15.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

- 15.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chair.

- 15.3 The directors may terminate the chair's appointment at any time.

- 15.4 If no director has been appointed chair, or the chair is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

16 Casting vote

- 16.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chair or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

- 16.2 But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chair or other director chairing the meeting is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

17 Directors' interests

Except to the extent that article 18 applies or the terms of any authority given under that article otherwise provide, and without prejudice to such disclosure as is required under the Companies Act 2006, a director may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Club and shall be entitled to participate in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes on any resolution concerning a matter in which they have, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty that conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Club.

18 Directors' conflicts of interest

18.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 and provided that they have disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director may, notwithstanding their office or that, without the authorisation conferred by this article 18.1, they would or might be in breach of their duty under the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest, be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any undertaking in the same group as the Club, or promoted by the Club or by any undertaking in the same group as the Club, or in which the Club or any undertaking in the same group as the Club is otherwise interested.

18.2 No director shall:

18.2.1 by reason of their office, be accountable to the Club for any benefit which they derive from any office or employment, or from any transaction or arrangement, or from any interest in any undertaking, that is authorised under article 18.1 (and no such benefit shall constitute a breach of the duty under the Companies Act 2006 not to accept benefits from third parties, and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit);

18.2.2 be in breach of their duties as a director by reason only of their excluding themselves from the receipt of information, or from participation in decision-making or discussion (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise), that will or may relate to any office, employment, transaction, arrangement or interest that is authorised under article 18.1; or

18.2.3 be required to disclose to the Club, or use in relation to the Club's affairs, any confidential information obtained by them in connection with any office, employment, transaction, arrangement or interest that is authorised under article 18.1 if their doing so would result in a breach of a duty or an obligation of confidence owed by them in that connection.

18.3 A general notice given to the directors that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect them to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of theirs.

18.4 The directors may, if the quorum and voting requirements set out below are satisfied, authorise any matter that would otherwise involve a director breaching their duty under the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest, and any director (including the director concerned) may propose that the director concerned be authorised in relation to any matter the subject of such a conflict provided that:

18.4.1 such proposal and any authority given by the directors shall be effected in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the directors under the provisions of the articles, except that the director concerned and any other director with a similar interest:

- (a) shall not be counted for quorum purposes as participating in the decision-making process while the conflict is under consideration;
- (b) may, if the other directors so decide, be excluded from participating in the decision-making process while the conflict is under consideration; and
- (c) shall not vote on any resolution authorising the conflict except that, if any such director does vote, the resolution will still be valid if it would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted; and 18.4.2 where the directors give authority in relation to such a conflict:

- (a) they may (whether at the time of giving the authority or at any time or times subsequently) impose such terms upon the director concerned and any other director with a similar interest as they may determine, including, without limitation, the exclusion of that director and any other director with a similar interest from the receipt of information, or participation in any decision-making or discussion (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise) related to the conflict;
- (b) the director concerned and any other director with a similar interest will be obliged to conduct themselves in accordance with any terms imposed from time to time by the directors in relation to the conflict but will not be in breach of their duties as a director by reason of their doing so;
- (c) the authority may provide that, where the director concerned and any other director with a similar interest obtains information that is confidential to a third party, the director will not be obliged to disclose that information to the Club, or to use the information in relation to the Club's affairs, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
- (d) the authority may also provide that the director concerned or any other director with a similar interest shall not be accountable to the Club for any benefit that they receive as a result of the conflict;
- (e) the receipt by the director concerned or any other director with a similar interest of any remuneration or benefit as a result of the conflict shall not constitute a breach of the duty under the Companies Act 2006 not to accept benefits from third parties;
- (f) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and

(g) the directors may withdraw such authority at any time.

18.5 Subject to article 18.6, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chair, whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chair is to be final and conclusive.

18.6 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chair, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chair is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

19 Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the Club keeps a record, in hard copy form, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

20 Directors' discretion to make further Rules

20.1 Subject to those Rules being made, varied or revoked by the members in general meeting, the board shall have power to make, vary or revoke the Rules including, but not limited to, Rules:

20.1.1 setting out different categories of membership of the Club;

20.1.2 setting criteria for admission to membership of the Club;

20.1.3 creating regulations, standing orders and bye-laws for the better administration of the Club; and

20.1.4 to regulate the function role and operation of sub-committees to assist the board in the administration of the Club, provided that nothing in those Rules shall prejudice the Club's status as a CASC under Part 13 Chapter 9 of the Corporation Act 2010 and provided that the said Rules shall be consistent with these articles and the Companies Act 2006.

25.4 A director who is also an alternate director is entitled, in the absence of their appointor, to a separate vote on behalf of their appointor, in addition to their own vote on any decision of the directors (provided that their appointor is an eligible director in relation to that decision), but shall not count as more than one director for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

32.2.2 to receive from the board a report of the activities of the Club;

32.2.3 to elect the board;

32.2.4 to elect the committee;

33.2 The board can call a general meeting at any time.

34 Attendance and speaking at general meetings

34.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

34.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:

34.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

34.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

34.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

34.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

- 34.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

35 Quorum for general meetings

- 35.1 No business other than the appointment of the chair of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.
- 35.2 Ten persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member (or his/ her proxy validly appointed in accordance with these articles), shall be a quorum at any general meeting.

36 Chairing general meetings

- 36.1 If the directors have appointed a chair, the chair shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.
- 36.2 If the directors have not appointed a chair, or if the chair is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:
- 36.2.1 the directors present, or
- 36.2.2 (if no directors are present), the meeting,
- must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chair of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.
- 36.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as 'the chair of the meeting'.

37 Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members

- 37.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are members.
- 37.2 The chair of the meeting may permit other persons who are not:
- 37.2.1 members, or
- 37.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of members in relation to general meetings,
- to attend and speak at a general meeting.

38 Adjournment

- 38.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, if the meeting was convened by the members, the meeting shall be dissolved and, in any other case, the chair of the meeting must adjourn it. At the second attempt to hold a general meeting, if at the adjourned meeting the persons

- attending within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, the members present shall constitute a quorum.
- 38.2 The chair of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:
- 38.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or
 - 38.2.2 it appears to the chair of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- 38.3 The chair of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
- 38.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chair of the meeting must:
- 38.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
 - 38.4.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 38.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Club must give at least seven clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):
- 38.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Club's general meetings is required to be given, and
 - 38.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 38.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

39 Voting: general

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.

40 Voting: for captains and vice captains

- 40.1 Only senior playing members may vote in relation to the appointment of captains and vice captains.

41 Errors and disputes

- 41.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

- 41.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.

42 Poll votes

- 42.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

42.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or 42.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

- 42.2 A poll on a resolution may be demanded by:

42.2.1 the chair of the meeting;

42.2.2 the directors;

42.2.3 any qualifying person (as defined in section 318 of the Companies Act 2006) present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

- 42.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

42.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken, and 42.3.2 the chair of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

- 42.4 A demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

- 42.5 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chair of the meeting directs.

43 Content of proxy notices

- 43.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a proxy notice) which:

43.1.1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;

43.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

43.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and

43.1.4 is delivered to the Club in accordance with the articles not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting in relation to which the proxy is appointed and in accordance with any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate (but notwithstanding this an appointment of a proxy may be accepted by the directors at any time prior to the meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote (or, where a poll is demanded at the meeting, but not taken forthwith, at any time prior to the taking of the poll)).

43.2 The Club may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

43.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions, but the Club shall not be obliged to ascertain that any proxy has complied with those or any other instructions given by the appointor and no decision on any resolution shall be vitiated by reason only that any proxy has not done so.

43.4 On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more members entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote, except that if the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution and:

43.4.1 has been instructed by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more other of those members to vote against it, or

43.4.2 has been instructed to vote the same way (either for or against) on the resolution by all of those members except those who have given the proxy discretion as to how to vote on the resolution the proxy is entitled to one vote for and one vote against the resolution.

43.5 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

43.5.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and

43.5.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

44 Delivery of proxy notices

44.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Club by or on behalf of that person.

44.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Club a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

44.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

44.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

45 Amendments to resolutions

- 45.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
 - 45.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Club in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chair of the meeting may determine), and
 - 45.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 45.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
 - 45.2.1 the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - 45.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- 45.3 If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

46 Means of communication to be used

- 46.1 Subject to the articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Club under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Club.

If the address is that member's address for sending or receiving documents or information by electronic means the directors may at any time without prior notice (and whether or not the Club has previously sent or supplied any documents or information in electronic form to that address) refuse to send or supply any documents or information to that address.
