- 3 Unless the context otherwise requires, other words or expressions contained in these Articles bear the same meaning as in the Companies Acts as in force on the date when these Articles become binding on the Company

¹ On articles of association generally, see [Part 5] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes. If you are an existing company wishing to become a community interest company, there is no need to adopt completely new articles, but you must comply with the requirements of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005 (as amended) ("the Regulations") by including the provisions set out in Schedule 1 to the Regulations in the articles of your company.

² See [Part 6] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes. Inclusion of the provisions contained in article 3.1 to 3.3 is mandatory, reflecting sub-paragraphs (1) to (3) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the Regulations.

³ On the specification of the company's objects, see [Part 5] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes.

⁴ On limited liability, see [Part 3] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes. On guarantees generally see [Chapter 3.2] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes.

⁵ Note that although this model constitution assumes that all Directors are Members and all Members are Directors, and the Directors are given wide powers, under the Articles (and company law more generally) there are still some decisions which Members must make as Members (either in general meeting under the Companies Act 2006 (article 28.2), or by written resolution in accordance with article 29). [See in general the Companies House guidance booklet, "Resolutions" (available online at <http://www.companieshouse.gov.uk/about/gbhtml/gba7.shtml>)]

⁶ Article 11 permits the Directors to delegate any of their functions. Delegation may take the form of, for instance, the Directors giving a managing director general authority to run the company's day to day business, or responsibility for specific matters being delegated to particular directors (e.g. financial matters to a finance director), or it may be equally appropriate to delegate matters to persons other than Directors. In all cases, it is important to remember that delegation does not absolve Directors of their general duties towards the company and their overall responsibility for its management. This means that, amongst other things, Directors must be satisfied that those to whom responsibilities are delegated are competent to carry them out.

⁷ Article 12 states that the Directors must make decisions by majority at a meeting in accordance with article 14, or unanimously if taken in accordance with article 18.

⁸ Article 14.2 is designed to facilitate the taking of decisions by the directors communicating via telephone or video conference calls. Note the requirement to keep a written record of meetings and decisions (article 32).

⁹ The quorum may be fixed in absolute terms (e.g. "two Directors") or as a proportion of the total number of Directors (e.g. "one third of the total number of Directors"). You may even wish to stipulate that particular named Directors, or Directors representing particular stakeholder interests, must be present to constitute a quorum.

¹⁰ Article 17 reflects paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to the Regulations, which is required to be included in the articles of all community interest companies.

¹¹ You may wish to include a provision which gives the chair of the board a casting vote. This will enable the directors to resolve any deadlock at board level.

¹² Article 18 is designed to facilitate the taking of decisions by directors following discussions in the form of, for example, email exchanges copied to all the directors. Note the requirements as to recording the decision in articles 18.2 and 32.

¹³ The provisions in articles 19 and 20 reflect the position under the Companies Act 2006. However, it is recommended that, as a matter of good practice, all actual and potential conflicts of interest are disclosed in writing or at a meeting, as the case may be.

¹⁴ Private companies are obliged to have at least one director. Provisions can be inserted into the articles providing for a minimum number of directors. Where the company has just one director, that director must be a natural person. Article 12 notes that, where there is only one director, a majority decision is reached when that director makes a decision. In the case of a single director, the quorum provisions (article 15) will need to be amended accordingly.

¹⁵ The board of directors cannot remove a director other than in accordance with the provisions in article 23 and the Companies Act 2006.

¹⁶ See the guidance on directors' remuneration in [Part 9] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes.

¹⁷ See section 112 of the Companies Act 2006. A company's members are (i) the subscribers to its memorandum, and (ii) every other person who agrees to become a member of the company and whose name is entered in its register of members.

¹⁸ There is no need for all those who wish to become Members to subscribe to the Memorandum on incorporation; they can become Members and be entered in the register of Members after the company has been formed. However, since this model constitution assumes that all Members are also Directors, all Members will also have to be validly appointed as Directors under article 22.

¹⁹ Inclusion of the provisions in article 26 (other than 26.3) is mandatory and reflects paragraphs 2(1)-(4) of Schedule 1 to the Regulations. [Directors should ensure that the information to be included on an application form includes all the information which will be required to fill in Companies House Form [288a] on the appointment of the new Member as a Director (see <http://www.companieshouse.gov.uk/forms/generalForms/288A.pdf>)] Article 26 3 provides that the Directors are also members of the company

²⁰ Inclusion of the provisions of article 27 1 and 27 2 1 – 27 2 2 (reflecting sub-paragraphs (5) and (6) of paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the Regulations), is mandatory

²¹ The Companies Act 2006 has removed the need for private companies to hold annual general meetings and therefore these Articles follow suit, however, if you wish, you can insert an additional provision which obliges the company to hold annual general meetings

²² Article 28 2 provides that general meetings must be held in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 You may insert additional provisions that specify how many Members are required to be present to hold a valid general meeting The quorum may be fixed in absolute terms (e g “four Members”) or as a proportion of the total number of Members (e g “three quarters of the Members from time to time”) You may even wish to stipulate that particular named Members, or Members representing particular stakeholder interests, must be present to constitute a quorum In any event, it is recommended that the quorum should never be less than half of the total number of Members

²³ Inclusion of the provisions of article 28 3 (reflecting paragraph 3(1) of Schedule 1 to the Regulations) is mandatory

²⁴ See the Companies House guidance booklet, “Accounts and Accounting Reference Dates” (available online at <http://www.companies-house.gov.uk/about/gbhtml/gba3.shtml>)] On the annual community interest company report, see [Part 8] of the Regulator’s information and guidance notes

²⁵ Section 1(1) of the Charities Act 2006 defines “charity” as an institution which “is established for charitable purposes only, and falls to be subject to the control of the High Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with respect to charities ”

Our organisation will provide self-defence workshops for young people living in deprived areas of Hastings. It will address ongoing concerns with youth engagement, crime, health and well-being, within economically deprived communities.

We look to break down barriers to taking part in group physical activity for disadvantaged young people. These barriers exist in more popular sports such as football as they are competitive and inaccessible to young people with issues such as obesity, mental health or financial hardship.

Our workshops will promote physical fitness, conflict resolution, inclusivity and sense of worth in young people where need is greatest, providing a firm foundation to achieve stronger and healthier communities.

If funding is awarded, we will deliver self-defence and general wellbeing classes for disadvantaged young people through partnerships formed with schools, colleges and children's homes in and around Hastings (workshops taking place outside of school hours).

We will teach basic skills in self-defence to the group, under close supervision, with safety our priority at all times. It will provide an effective cardiovascular workout in addition to improving mental focus, a sense of calm and physical coordination. General skills such as correct posture and breathing control will be taught. People that participate in our sessions will learn how to resolve conflict in a non-aggressive way. Participants will be encouraged to progress at their own pace, without pressure, and work together to support learning. The programme of skills will be carefully selected to ensure no activities pose any danger to participants, risk assessments will be carried out before each workshop.

Grants and extra funding will be used to purchase a range of equipment, flooring, marketing materials that will enable us to expand and grow at the speed we expect.

The area in particular that we have chosen really does need a provision like SIAM BOXING CAMP. It is in an area whereby there is no other martial art facility and we feel that we can really make an impact within the area of Rye and its surrounding areas.

SIAM BOXING CAMP CIC

Any extra money the camp/club makes will be used to enable it to grow and expand at the rate we envisage our unique camp to do so

Extra money generated may well be used to finance marketing materials such as banners and posters

Extra money will be used to generate a cash flow to enable our members to compete at local events and events up and down the country, to enable our users to reach their personal goals, should they choose to compete in any local/national competitions

Extra money could potentially be used to enable us to "fix" a rental agreement on a local premises, long term, that benefits our users, the local community and the wider community while we combat anti-social behaviour, obesity, health issues, reducing bullying, violence, low self-esteem/confidence issues to name but a few

Whilst the extra money generated enables us to grow and expand, equipment like our very own ring, comes at a substantial cost but is imperative to our ring craft.

As our camp grows and expands we would like to see our practice/club/workshops/sessions being delivered in other deprived areas of Hastings that encounter similar ongoing problems
