In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community.

What incredible luck we had to be able to celebrate National Careers Week just before the lockdown.

It's at times like these when we need to dig deep in the face of our own personal battles to keep focused on our goal and purpose.

Thanks to NCW, millions of young people around the UK have benefitted enormously from the brilliant work of the Careers profession - you do an amazing job and the climb from any recession depends now on preparing the next generation with confidence, resilience and hope.

It is with great pride that we introduced the official NCW2020 film, HOPE. All our feedback showed that this resonated with more students, parents, carers and teachers than any film we have made over the last 20 years. The film came with a Hope Resource Pack for Assemblies, Tutor/Form time, PSHE lessons and guidance sessions.

National Careers Week 2020 was a huge success with over 1 million young people accessing our resources, events and inspirational activities across the UK.

We consulted with the following stakeholders:

- Young people (aged 11 – 24) via focus group activities to identify the types of engaging resources required for NCW 2020 to be a success.
- Practitioners through social media engagement – primarily facebook, twitter and linkedin to form the basis of the campaign narrative.

As a result of the above, we produced:

- 5 bespoke digital resources allowing people to share their career journeys, struggles and opportunities.
- The theme of 'HOPE' – delivered throughout the whole of NCW 2020.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
