This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

Rydal Gym's role in the community is to provide a safe environment for both boxing classes for all fitness levels for people aged 8-60 years old, male or female.

We provide an amateur boxing class for children wanting to compete or just train to keep fit, and an adult amateur class for people 16-40 years who can box in competitions or just train to keep fit.

We provide boxing fitness classes which are non contact so people can learn all the aspects of boxing without physical contact.

We are multi cultural and inclusive and welcome people from all areas of the community.

We also provide a class for Impact, which looks after children who have been excluded from mainstream school.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

The company's stakeholders are the users of the gym and boxing facilities.
We regularly talk to our users to gain information about what classes they would like to seem and at what times.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").

PART 3 – DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION – if you have provided full details in your accounts you need not reproduce it here. Please clearly identify the information within the accounts and confirm that, "There were no other transactions or arrangements in connection with the remuneration of directors, or compensation for director's loss of office, which require to be disclosed" (See example with full notes). If no remuneration was received you must state that "no remuneration was received" below.

The amount paid to Rob Butler during the year was £12075.09.
There were no other transactions or arrangements in connection with the remuneration of directors, or compensation for director's loss of office, which require to be disclosed.

PART 4 – TRANSFERS OF ASSETS OTHER THAN FOR FULL CONSIDERATION – Please insert full details of any transfers of assets other than for full consideration e.g. Donations to outside bodies. If this does not apply you must state that "no transfer of assets other than for full consideration has been made" below.

There were no transfers of assets other than for full consideration.

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)
