Prescribed particulars

The Ordinary shares have the right to dividends as if one class of share constituted with the holders of the Preferred shares on a pro rata basis. On a distribution of assets on a liquidation or a return of capital (other than a conversion, redemption or purchase of shares) the surplus assets of the company remaining after payment of its liabilities shall be applied: (a) first, in paying to each of the holders of the Preferred shares in priority to any other classes of share an amount per share held equal to the Preference Amount, provided that if there are insufficient surplus assets to pay the amounts per share equal to the Preference Amount, the remaining surplus assets shall be distributed to the Preferred shareholders pro rata to their respective holdings of Preferred shares); and (b) the balance of the surplus assets (if any) shall be distributed among the holders of the Ordinary shares pro rata according to the nominal amounts paid up or credited as paid up on such shares (excluding any premium at which such shares were issued). On a share sale, the proceeds of sale shall be distributed in the same order as on a return of assets on liquidation unless waived in accordance with the Articles. The Preferred shares are not redeemable.

• Prescribed particulars of rights attached to shares

The particulars are:

- a. particulars of any voting rights, including rights that arise only in certain circumstances;
- b. particulars of any rights, as respects dividends, to participate in a distribution;
- c. particulars of any rights, as respects capital, to participate in a distribution (including on winding up); and
- d. whether the shares are to be redeemed or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the shareholder.

A separate table must be used for each class of share.
