Unless the context otherwise requires, other words or expressions contained in these articles bear the same meaning as in the Companies Act 2006 as in force on the date when these articles become binding on the company.

2. LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

- 2.1 The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

PART B DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

- 3.1 Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

4. SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER

- 4.1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 4.2 No alteration of the articles and no such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the alteration was made or passing of the resolution.

5. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

- 5.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles—

- 5.1.1 to such person or committee;
- 5.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);
- 5.1.3 to such an extent;
- 5.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and
- 5.1.5 on such terms and conditions;

as they think fit.

- 5.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 5.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

6. COMMITTEES

- 6.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- 6.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

- 7.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8.

7.2 If—

- 7.2.1 the company only has one director; and
- 7.2.2 no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director;

the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision making.

8. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

- 8.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter. For this purpose, it is not necessary for the appointor of an alternate director to indicate that he shares a common view with the other directors if the alternate director, which he has appointed, indicates that he shares a common view with the other directors.
- 8.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing. For this purpose, it is not necessary for the appointor of an alternate director to sign the written resolution or otherwise indicate his agreement in writing if the alternate director, which he has appointed, signs the written resolution or otherwise indicates his agreement in writing.
- 8.3 References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter and whose vote would have been counted had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.
- 8.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

9. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

- 9.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 9.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate—
 - 9.2.1 its proposed date and time;
 - 9.2.2 where it is to take place; and
 - 9.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 9.3 It shall not be necessary to give notice to a director who is absent from the United Kingdom at the time notice of the meeting is given. Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director who is entitled to receive notice, but need not be in writing.
- 9.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

10. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 10.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when—
 - 10.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
 - 10.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 10.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 10.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

11. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 11.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 11.2 The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two.
- 11.3 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision—
 - 11.3.1 to appoint further directors, or
 - 11.3.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

12. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 12.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- 12.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.
- 12.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- 12.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

13. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 13.1 Provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director notwithstanding his office—
 - 13.1.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise interested;
 - 13.1.2 may be a director or other officer of, or be employed by or hold any position with, or be a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the company is interested; and
 - 13.1.3 may be a director or other officer of, or be employed by or hold any position with, or be a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any group undertaking in relation to the company, or any body corporate in which any such group undertaking is interested.
- 13.2 No transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any interest, office, employment or position within paragraph 13.1 above and the relevant director:
 - 13.2.1 shall not infringe his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company as a result of any such office, employment or position, or any such transaction or arrangement or any interest in any such undertaking or body corporate;
 - 13.2.2 shall not, by reason of his office as a director of the company, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such office, employment or position, or any such transaction or arrangement, or from any interest in any such body corporate;
 - 13.2.3 shall not be required to disclose to the company, or use in performing his duties as a director of the company, any confidential information relating to any such office, employment or position if to make such a disclosure or use would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed by him in relation to or in connection with such office, employment or position;
 - 13.2.4 may absent himself from discussions, whether in meetings of the directors or otherwise, and exclude himself from information, which will or may relate to such office, employment, position, transaction, arrangement or interest.
- 13.3 For the purposes of this article—

- 13.3.1 a director shall be deemed to have disclosed the nature and extent of an interest which consists of him being a director, officer or employee of any group undertaking in relation to the company;
- 13.3.2 a general notice given to the directors that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified;
- 13.3.3 an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his;
- 13.3.4 a director need not disclose an interest if it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; and
- 13.3.5 a director need not disclose an interest if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware).
- 13.4 The directors may (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as they may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation) authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law—
 - 13.4.1 any matter which would otherwise result in a director infringing his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company and which may reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest (including a conflict of interest and duty or conflict of duties); and
 - 13.4.2 a director to accept or continue in any office, employment or position in addition to his office as a director of the company and, without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph 13.4.1, may authorise the manner in which a conflict of interest arising out of such office, employment or position may be dealt with, either before or at the time that such a conflict of interest arises, provided that the authorisation is effective only if (i) any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director; and (ii) the matter was agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted.

- 13.5 If a matter, office, employment or position has been authorised by the directors in accordance with this article then (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as the directors may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation or the permissions set out below) no transaction or arrangement relating to any such matter shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such matter, office, employment or position and the relevant director:
 - 13.5.1 shall not infringe his duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company as a result of any such matter, office, employment or position;
 - 13.5.2 shall not, by reason of his office as a director of the company, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such matter, office, employment or position;
 - 13.5.3 shall not be required to disclose to the company, or use in performing his duties as a director of the company, any confidential information relating to such matter, office, employment or position if to make such a disclosure or use would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed by him in relation to or in connection with such matter, office, employment or position; and
 - 13.5.4 may absent himself from discussions, whether in meetings of the directors or otherwise, and exclude himself from information, which will or may relate to that matter, office, employment or position.

- 13.6 A director who has duly declared his interest (so far as he is required to do so) may vote at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of the directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he is interested, directly or indirectly. If he does, his vote shall be counted; and whether or not he does, his presence at the meeting shall be taken into account in calculating the quorum.
- 13.7 Subject to paragraph 13.8, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.
- 13.8 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.
- 13.9 For the avoidance of doubt, a director is unable to vote on a board resolution to terminate his service agreement with the company or any group undertaking.
- 14. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT
- 14.1 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.
- 15. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES
- 15.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

- 16. METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS
- 16.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director—
- 16.1.1 by ordinary resolution, or
- 16.1.2 by a decision of the directors.
- 16.2 In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.
- 16.3 For the purposes of paragraph 16.2, where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.
- 16.4 A shareholder or shareholders holding a majority in nominal value of the issued shares in the company may appoint any person who is willing to act, and is permitted by law to do so, to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director. Any such appointment shall be effected by a notice in writing signed by, or on behalf of, the shareholder or shareholders concerned and delivered to the registered office of the company or delivered at a meeting of the directors or a general meeting of the company.
- 17. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT
- 17.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as—
- 17.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- 17.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

- 17.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- 17.1.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;
- 17.1.5 notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;
- 17.1.6 that person is absent without permission of the directors from all meetings of the directors held during a continuous period of six months or more and the directors resolve that he should cease to be a director; and
- 17.1.7 a shareholder or shareholders holding a majority in nominal value of the issued shares in the company gives notice to remove that person from his position as a director; such notice to be in writing signed by, or on behalf of, the shareholder or shareholders concerned and delivered to the registered office of the company or delivered at a meeting of the directors or a general meeting of the company.

18. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

- 18.1 The directors shall be entitled to such remuneration as the company may by ordinary resolution determine and, unless the resolution provides otherwise, the remuneration shall be deemed to accrue from day to day.

19. DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

- 19.1 The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at—
 - 19.1.1 meetings of directors or committees of directors,
 - 19.1.2 general meetings, or
 - 19.1.3 separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

20. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 20.1 Any director may appoint as an alternate any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the directors, to—
 - 20.1.1 exercise that director's powers, and
 - 20.1.2 carry out that director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of the alternate's appointor.
- 20.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the company signed by the appointor, or in any other manner approved by the directors.
- 20.3 The notice must—
 - 20.3.1 identify the proposed alternate, and
 - 20.3.2 in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice.

21. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

21.1 An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to any directors' meeting and all meetings of committees of directors of which his appointor is a member or directors' written resolution, as the alternate's appointor.

21.2 Except as the articles specify otherwise, alternate directors—

21.2.1 are deemed for all purposes to be directors;

21.2.2 are liable for their own acts and omissions;

21.2.3 are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and 21.2.4 are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors.

21.3 A person who is an alternate director but not a director—

21.3.1 may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating (but only if that person's appointor is not participating), and

21.3.2 may sign or otherwise indicate his agreement in writing to a written resolution (but only if it is not signed or to be signed or otherwise agreed to in writing by that person's appointor).

No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes.

21.4 A director who is also an alternate director has an additional vote on behalf of each appointor who is—

21.4.1 not participating in a directors' meeting; and

21.4.2 would have been entitled to vote if they were participating in it, but shall not count as more than one director for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

21.5 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the company.

22. TERMINATION OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORSHIP

22.1 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates—

22.1.1 when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;

22.1.2 on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;

22.1.3 on the death of the alternate's appointor;

22.1.4 when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates; or 22.1.5 when a shareholder or shareholders holding a majority in nominal value of the issued shares in the company gives notice to remove that person from his position as an alternate director; such notice to be in writing signed by, or on behalf of, the shareholder or shareholders concerned and delivered to the registered office of the company or delivered at a meeting of the directors or a general meeting of the company.

PART C
SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

SHARES

23. ALL SHARES TO BE FULLY PAID UP

- 23.1 No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.
- 23.2 This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the company by the subscribers to the company's memorandum.

24. POWERS TO ISSUE DIFFERENT CLASSES OF SHARE

- 24.1 Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue further classes of shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.
- 24.2 The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.
- 24.3 In the event that rights and restrictions attaching to shares are determined by ordinary resolution or by the directors pursuant to this article, those rights and restrictions shall apply, in particular in place of any rights or restrictions that would otherwise apply by virtue of the Companies Act 2006 in the absence of any provisions in the articles of a company, as if those rights and restrictions were set out in the articles.

25. PAYMENT OF COMMISSIONS ON SUBSCRIPTION FOR SHARES

- 25.1 The company may pay any person a commission in consideration for that person—
- 25.1.1 subscribing, or agreeing to subscribe, for shares, or
- 25.1.2 procuring, or agreeing to procure, subscriptions for shares.
- 25.2 Any such commission may be paid—

- 25.2.2 in respect of a conditional or an absolute subscription

26. COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

- 26.1 Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

27. SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 27.1 The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.
- 27.2 Every certificate must specify—
- 27.2.1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;
- 27.2.2 the nominal value of those shares;
- 27.2.3 that the shares are fully paid; and
- 27.2.4 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.
- 27.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.
- 27.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

27.5 Certificates must—

27.5.1 have affixed to them the company's common seal, or

27.5.2 be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

28. REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES

28.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is—

28.1.1 damaged or defaced, or

28.1.2 said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

28.2 A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate—

28.2.1 may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;

28.2.2 must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and 28.2.3 must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

29. SHARE TRANSFERS

29.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.

29.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

29.3 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.

29.4 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.

29.5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

29.6 Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles, the directors may not refuse to register any transfer of shares and may not suspend registration of such shares where such transfer is:

29.6.1 to a bank, lender, institution, company or other person to which such shares have been mortgaged or charged by way of security (whether as lender, agent or trustee for any such person or for a group of banks, lenders, institutions, companies or other persons) (a "Secured Institution") or to any nominee, affiliate or any transferee of such Secured Institution;

29.6.2 executed by a Secured Institution or its nominee pursuant to the power of sale or other power under any such security; or 29.6.3 executed by a receiver or manager appointed by or on behalf of any Secured Institution or its nominee under any such security.

30. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

30.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.

30.2 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require—

30.2.1 may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and

- 30.2.2 subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.
- 30.3 But transmitters do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.
- 31. EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS
- 31.1 Transmitters who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.
- 31.2 If the transmitter wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmitter must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- 31.3 Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmitter has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.
- 32. TRANSMITTEES BOUND BY PRIOR NOTICES
- 32.1 If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmitter is entitled to those shares, the transmitter is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmitter's name has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

33. PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

- 33.1 The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- 33.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 33.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.
- 33.4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
- 33.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.
- 33.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 33.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

34. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

- 34.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means—
- 34.1.1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;
- 34.1.2 sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;

- 34.1.3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or
- 34.1.4 any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.
- 34.2 In the articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable—
 - 34.2.1 the holder of the share; or
 - 34.2.2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or
 - 34.2.3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

35. NO INTEREST ON DISTRIBUTIONS

- 35.1 The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by—
 - 35.1.1 the terms on which the share was issued, or
 - 35.1.2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company.

36. UNCLAIMED DISTRIBUTIONS

- 36.1 All dividends or other sums which are—
 - 36.1.1 payable in respect of shares, and
 - 36.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable, may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.
- 36.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.
- 36.3 If—
 - 36.3.1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
 - 36.3.2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum (unless the directors decide otherwise) and it ceases to remain owing by the company and the company shall not be obliged to account to, or be liable in any respect to, the recipient or person who would have been entitled to the amount.

37. NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

- 37.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).
- 37.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution—
 - 37.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;
 - 37.2.2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
 - 37.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

38. WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

- 38.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if—
- 38.1.1 the share has more than one holder, or
 - 38.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

39. AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

- 39.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution—
- 39.1.1 decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of any of the company's reserves, or funds including but not limited to the share premium account, capital redemption reserve, merger reserve or revaluation reserve; and
 - 39.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.
- 39.2 Capitalised sums must be applied—
- 39.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled, and
 - 39.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.
- 39.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 39.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 39.5 Subject to the articles the directors may—
- 39.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with paragraphs 39.3 and 39.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
 - 39.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and
 - 39.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article.

- 44.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

49. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

- 49.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
