- 3.1 The Company shall at all times have at least five (5) and up to thirteen (13) directors, consisting of:
- (a) up to three (3) and not less than two (2) executive directors that are each designated as an "Executive Director" one of whom shall also serve as the Chief Executive Officer of TopCo and one of whom shall also serve as Chief Financial Officer of TopCo;
 - (b) up to five (5) and not less than three (3) non-executive independent directors (within the meaning of the UK Corporate Governance Code) that are each designated as a "Non-Executive Independent Director", one of whom will be designated as Chairman of the Board in accordance with Article 5; and
 - (c) up-to five (5) non-executive directors that are each designated as an "Investor Director" and, in connection with his or her designation as such, as appointees of the Look-Through Shareholder who caused or procured the appointment of such Investor Director also as a director of Topco.
- 3.2 The holders of all shares for the time being shall be entitled to appoint a person to be a director of the Company, and designate any such director so appointed as an Executive Director, a Non-Executive Independent Director or an Investor Director (and appointee of a Look-Through Shareholder).
- 3.3 Any director may at any time be removed from office by the holders of all shares.

3.4 Any appointment or removal of a director pursuant to these Articles shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of the holders of all shares and served on the Company at its registered office and (in the case of his or her removal) on the director.

3.5 No director shall be appointed or removed otherwise than pursuant to these Articles, save as provided by law.

4. Secretary

The directors may appoint a Secretary to the Company for such period, for such remuneration and upon such conditions as they think fit, and any Secretary so appointed by the directors may be removed by them.

5. Chairman

The holders of all shares may appoint one of the Non-Executive Independent Directors as the Chairman, and to remove or replace the Chairman following appointment. Unless he is unwilling to do so, the Chairman shall preside at every meeting of the Board at which he is present. If there is no director holding such office, or if the Chairman is not willing to preside or he is not present within ten (10) minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of the other Non-Executive Independent Directors to be the Chairman of the meeting.

6. Observers

6.1 Appointment, removal and replacement: The holders of all shares shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons to act as observers to the Board ("Observer"), and to remove or replace such Observer following appointment. The holders of all shares may appoint, remove or replace any person as an Observer by giving the Company prior written notice of the appointment, removal or replacement of such Observer and the date and time that the appointment, removal or replacement is to take effect and the period for which the appointment is effective.

6.2 Role of Observer: No Observer shall have the right to speak or voting rights on any matter considered by the Board, but an Observer may attend all meetings that a director is entitled to attend and participate in such Board meetings to the same extent as any director, save for the inability to speak or vote.

6.3 Notices: Each Observer shall receive notice of each meeting of the Board at the same time and in the same manner as the relevant directors receive such notice, and will be provided all materials provided to such directors at the same time and in the same manner such materials are provided to such directors.

7. The Board

7.1 Notice of Board Meetings

Each director must receive at least four (4) (or two (2) in the event of an adjournment pursuant to Article 7.3(c)) Business Days' notice of a meeting of the Board unless such number of the directors who would be required to be present and vote in favour at a meeting in order for the Board to be quorate and to approve the resolutions to be considered at such meeting in accordance with these Articles agree otherwise in writing or are present at the relevant meeting and do not object

7.2 Written Materials to be Provided

Notice of a Board meeting shall in each case be accompanied by such written materials, including but not limited to an information pack, agenda and management accounts, as would provide each director with the information reasonably sufficient for such director to reach an informed business decision on each item on the agenda for such meeting (except in the case of an emergency or where such number of directors as would be required to be present and vote in favour at a meeting in order for the Board to be quorate and to approve the resolutions in question in accordance with these Articles agree otherwise or are present at the relevant meeting and do not object).

7.3 Quorum:

- (a) Subject to Article 7.3(b), the quorum for meetings of the Board shall be not less than a simple majority of all directors entitled to vote, which have been duly appointed.
- (b) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Board unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and remains present during the transaction of business except that if a director is not entitled to vote on a matter, that director shall not count for purposes of determining whether the meeting is quorate with respect to any deliberations and resolutions in respect of that matter.
- (c) A meeting of the Board shall be adjourned if a quorum is not present at that meeting within 60 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, and notice of such reconvened meeting shall be given to all directors of the Board. The quorum requirements for a reconvened meeting shall be the same as for the initial meeting.

7.4 Written Board Resolutions

Each Board may also pass resolutions without a meeting being held if each of the directors entitled to vote on and whose vote is required to adopt the resolution signs a document containing a statement that it is in favour of the resolution or signs the resolution.

7.5 Board Decisions by Majority Vote

- (a) Subject to Article 7.9 (Related Party Transactions), and any other express provision in these Articles, the passing of all resolutions at a meeting or by written consent by the Board shall require approval by:
 - (i) A simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting by those directors entitled to vote on the resolution who were present or represented at that meeting; or
 - (ii) A simple majority of the votes of all directors entitled to vote thereon in case of a proposed resolution by written consent.

7.6 Director Votes: At any Board meeting or action by written consent, each director entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote provided that the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

7.7 Location of Board Meetings and Place of Business:

- (a) All meetings of the Board shall be held in London, United Kingdom (or such other location as may be agreed by a majority of the directors provided that a majority of meetings in any Financial Year shall take place in the United Kingdom).
- (b) The Board must, subject to applicable companies laws meet at least 6 (6) times per year for each Financial Year.
- (c) The Chairman or any other director may convene a meeting of the Board at any time by notice to the other directors given in accordance with these Articles.

7.8 Disclosure of Related Party Matters: At the earliest opportunity before any action is taken by the Board (whether at a meeting or by written resolution) with respect to a Related Party Matter, any director that is involved in or has a direct or indirect interest in such Related Party Matter (or, in the case of an Investor Director, his or her Look-Through Shareholder is involved in or has a direct or indirect interest in such Related Party Matter) shall disclose such matter in reasonable detail to the Board.

7.9 Related Party Transactions: The Company shall not enter into, amend, terminate, pursue, initiate, settle or take any other action in relation to a Related Party Matter unless it is:

- (a) undertaken in good faith on arms' length commercial terms not less favourable to the Company than those available from Third Parties; and
- (b) unanimously approved by all directors, including the affirmative vote of all Non-Executive Independent Directors, in a resolution that also states that such entering into, amending, terminating, pursuing, initiating, settling or taking any other action in relation to such Related Party Matter complies with Article 7.9(a) above

For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that a Related Party Matter has been unanimously approved by all directors in accordance with Article 7.9(b) above, such Related Party Matter is authorized by the directors under Section 175 of the Companies Act.

7.10 Retirement of directors:

At every annual general meeting, all the directors shall retire from office. A director who retires at an annual general meeting may, if willing to act, be re-appointed.

8. Shares

- 8.1 All shares to be fully paid up; No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.

9. Directors' Fees and Expenses, Directors' and Officers' Insurance, Exculpation and Indemnity

9.1 Fees and Expenses

- (a) Non-Executive Independent Directors shall be entitled to a director's fee subject to an aggregate maximum amount to be determined the holders of shares (provided the relevant Non-Executive independent Director is not an employee of the Company or any of the Group Companies) plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses;
- (b) Executive Directors will receive remuneration and reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses in accordance with their service contracts (which shall be on standard terms); and
- (c) Investor Directors will not receive any director's fee or other remuneration other than reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

9.2 Insurance for Directors and Officers:

To the fullest extent permitted by law and subject to availability on commercially reasonable terms, the Company shall from the date on which these Articles are adopted or as soon as practicable thereafter, purchase and maintain with a reputable insurer Insurance on such terms (including customary exclusions), in customary amounts and for customary periods for, or for the benefit of, any person who is or was at any time a director (and may do so for any person who is or was at any time a director of a Group Company), against any liability incurred by or attaching to such person in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of such person's duties and/or in the exercise or purported exercise of such person's powers, and/or otherwise in relation to such person's duties, powers or officers as a director of the Company (or a director of a Group Company as applicable) (and all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by each Group Company in relation thereto)

9.3 Exculpation

- (a) Except as provided in Article 9.3(b) below, the Company may exculpate the directors of the Company or any person who is a director of a Group Company from and against any liability arising by virtue of being involved in the business or affairs of the Group or as the case may be in such person's role or capacity as a director of the Company or as a director of a Group Company (as applicable).

- (b) No exculpation shall be provided to any director of the Company or any director of a Group Company (i) against any liability owed to a Group Company, or a shareholder of TopCo by reason of gross negligence, wilful default, bad faith, criminal conduct or intentional or reckless fault, (ii) to the extent prohibited by mandatory provisions of applicable law, or (iii) in respect of any breach by such director or its Affiliates (and in the case of an Investor Director, such Investor Director's Look-Through Shareholder and such Look-Through Shareholder's concert parties and its or their Affiliates) of these Articles

9.4 Director Indemnity

- (a) Except as provided in Article 9.4(b) below, the Company may indemnify each of the directors of the Company or any person who is a director of a Group Company to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law against any liability, any amounts paid or incurred by such director in settlement thereof and all expenses reasonably incurred or paid by such director in connection with any action, claim, suit or proceeding in which such director becomes involved by virtue of being or having been involved in the business or affairs of the Group or any Group Company.
- (b) No indemnification shall be provided to any director of the Company or any director of a Group Company (i) if such person settled any action, claim suit or proceeding in which it becomes involved (as a party or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the holders of all shares, (ii) against any liability owed to a Group Company or any direct or indirect shareholder or any of their Affiliates by reason of gross negligence, wilful default, bad faith, criminal misconduct or intentional or reckless fault, (iii) to the extent prohibited by mandatory provisions of applicable law or (iv) in respect of any breach by such director or its Affiliates (and in the case of an Investor Director, such Investor Director's Look-Through Shareholder and such Look-Through Shareholder's concert parties and its or their Affiliates) of these Articles.

10. Shareholder reserve power

Subject to these Articles, the Companies Act and any applicable laws, the holders of all shares may unanimously direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action. No such direction invalidates anything which the directors have done before such direction being given.

11. Dividends

- (a) Except as otherwise provided by these Articles or the rights attached to the shares, dividends must be:
 - (i) declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid: and
 - (ii) apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid.
- (b) If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.
- (c) For the purpose of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount

12. Notice of General Meetings

- (a) Every notice convening a general meeting of the Company must comply with the provisions of

- (i) Section 311 of the Companies Act as to the provision of information regarding the time, date and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting; and
- (ii) Section 325(i) of the Companies Act as to the giving of information to members regarding their right to appoint proxies.
- (b) Every notice of, or other communication relating to, any general meeting which any member is entitled to receive must be sent to each of the directors and to the auditors (if any) for the time being of the Company.

13. Quorum at General Meetings

- (a) The quorum for general meetings shall be the holders of all shares being present in person or by one or more proxies or, for a holder that is a corporation, by one or more corporate representatives.
- (b) Model Article 41(1) is modified by the addition of a second sentence as follows:
"If at the adjourned general meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed therefor or, alternatively, a quorum ceases to be present, the adjourned meeting shall be dissolved"

14. Voting at General Meetings

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided on a poll. No resolutions put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands Every member (whether in person, by proxy or authorized representative) has one vote in respect of each share held by him.

15. Communications

15.1 When notice required to be in writing:

Any notice to be sent to or by any person pursuant to these Articles (other than a notice calling a meeting of the Board) shall be in writing.

15.2 Methods of Company sending notice:

Subject to Articles 15.1, 15.8, 15.9 and 15.10 and unless otherwise provided by these Articles, the Company shall send or supply a document or information that is required or authorised to be sent or supplied to a shareholder or any other person by the Company by a provision of the Companies Act or pursuant to these Articles or to any other rules or regulations to which the Company may be subject in such form and by such means as it may in its absolute discretion determine including by being made available on a website.

15.3 Methods of Shareholder etc. sending document or information

- (a) Subject to Article 15.1 and unless otherwise provided by these Articles, a shareholder or a person entitled by transmission to a share shall send a document or information pursuant to these Articles to the Company, any other shareholder or any other person in such form and by such means as it may in its absolute discretion determine, provided that:
 - (i) the determined form and means are permitted by the Companies Act for the purpose of sending or supplying a document or information of that type to a company pursuant to a provision of the Companies Act; and
 - (ii) unless the Board otherwise permits, any applicable condition or limitation specified in the Companies Act or other applicable legislation, including, without limitation, as to the address to which the document or information may be sent, is satisfied.
- (b) Unless otherwise provided by these Articles or required by the Board and subject to applicable law, such document or information shall be authenticated in the manner specified by the Companies Act for authentication of a document or information sent in the relevant form.

15.4 Notice to joint holders

In the case of joint holders of a share any document or information shall be sent to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the joint holding and any document or information so sent shall be deemed for all purposes sent to all the joint holders.

15.5 Deemed receipt of notice

A shareholder present, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the Company or of the holders of shares in the capital of the Company shall be deemed to have been sent notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

15.6 Notice to persons entitled by transmission

A document or information may be sent or supplied by the Company to the person or persons entitled by transmission to a share by sending it in any manner the Company may choose authorised by these Articles for the sending of a document or information to a shareholder, addressed to them by name, or by the title of the representative of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt or by any similar description at the address (if any) as may be supplied for that purpose by or on behalf of the person or persons claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been supplied, a document or information may be sent in any manner in which it might have been sent if the death or bankruptcy or other event giving rise to the transmission had not occurred.

15.7 Transferees etc. bound by prior notice

Every person who becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share which, before his name is entered in the register, has been sent to a person from whom he derives his title.

15.8 Proof of sending/when notices etc. deemed sent by post or electronic means

Subject to the Companies Act, a notice, consent or other communication under these Articles is only effective if it is in writing, signed by or on behalf of the person giving it, and addressed to the person to whom it is to be given and;

- (a) delivered or sent by pre-paid registered mail (by airmail, if the addressee is overseas) or courier to that person's address;
- (b) sent by fax to that person's fax number and the machine from which it is sent produces a report that states that it was sent in full;
- (c) sent by electronic mail, with (a) written confirmation of receipt (which may include electronic mail) to that person's electronic mail address or (b) distribution by pre-paid registered mail or courier pursuant to Article 15.1 that is sent on the same day as the electronic mail; or
- (d) in the case of a notice by the Company posted on the website of the Company or another Group Holding Company,

15.9 When a Notice is Given

Subject to Article 15.8 and the Companies Act, a notice, consent or other communication that complies with this Article 15.9 is regarded as given and received if it is delivered, or sent by mail, courier, fax or email;

- (c) at any time of transmission in legible form, if delivered by fax.

15.10 When notices etc deemed sent by website

Subject to the Companies Act, a document or information sent or supplied by the Company to a shareholder by means of a website shall be deemed to have been received by the shareholder:

- (a) when the document or information was first made available on the website; or
- (b) if later, when the shareholder is deemed by Article 15.8 or Article 15.9 to have received notice of the fact that the document or information was available on the website.

16. Company Seals

16.1 Model Article 81(1) is modified, such that any common seal of the Company may be used by the authority of the directors.

16.2 Model Article 81(3) is modified by the deletion of all words which follow the "." after the word "document" and their replacement with "the document must also be signed by:

- (a) one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature; or
- (b) "two authorised persons".

17. Transmission of Shares

17.1 Model Article 66 is modified by the addition of new Model Article 66(3) in the following terms - "Nothing in these Articles releases the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of a share solely or jointly held by that member".

17.2 All the Articles relating to the transfer of shares apply to:

- (a) any notice in writing given to the Company by a transmittee in accordance with Model Article 67(1); and
- (b) any Instrument of transfer executed by a transmittee in accordance with Model Article 67(2) or 67(3), as if such notice or instrument were an instrument of transfer executed by the person from whom the transmittee denied rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

17.3 Elections Required: The Board may at any time send a notice requiring any transmittee to elect either to become the holder of those shares or to transfer the share to another person. If the notice is not complied with within 60 days, the Board may, after the expiry of that period, withhold payment of all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share in the Company until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

18. Share Transfers

18.1 Subject to Article 18.2, the directors shall refuse to register the transfer of a share unless it has been approved by the holders of all shares, and, if the directors do so refuse, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee together with a notice of refusal unless the directors suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

18.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles, the directors shall promptly register any transfer of shares and may not suspend registration of shares, whether or not fully paid, where such transfer

- (a) is to the bank or institution or otherwise to which such shares have been charged by way of security, whether as agent and security trustee for any person or otherwise, or to any nominee or any transferee of such a bank or institution or otherwise (a "Security Holder"), in accordance with the terms of such security; or

- (b) is delivered to the Company for registration by any duly authorised representative of a Security Holder or its nominee in order to perfect its security over the shares, or
- (c) is executed by a Security Holder or its nominee pursuant to the power of sale or other power, or otherwise in connection with any enforcement or transaction authorised under such security, and furthermore notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these articles no transferor of any shares in the Company or proposed transferor of such shares to a Security Holder or its nominee and no Security Holder or its nominee shall be required to offer the shares which are or are to be the subject of any transfer aforesaid to the shareholders for the time being of the Company or any of them, and no such shareholder shall have any right under the Articles or otherwise howsoever to require such shares to be transferred to them whether for consideration or not. Any lien on shares which the Company has or may have shall not apply in respect of any shares which have been charged by way of security to a Security Holder. The directors may not make any call in respect of any moneys unpaid on any shares charged by way of security to such Security Holder, and no Security Holder to whom shares have been charged by way of security shall have any liability in respect of any such call made at any time and no interest shall accrue on any sum outstanding in respect of any call.
